COOLIDGE FOES HIT 3RD TERM

ASKS IF ANY ONE ON A COUNTY JOB DOES ANY WORK

Commissioner Even Includes Judges.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Just before the close of the first day's work on the Cook county budget, John W. Gibson, a new county commissioner, who had listened attentively for hours, arose and asked:

"You have told us that the painters don't work, the plumbers loaf, the mechanics skin the job and that there are others on the pay roll who can but don't do a day's work. You tell us the charity distributed to the poor has been mishandled, auditors have been paid who did not audit; and now finally that the judges don't do a reasonable day's work. Who in hell on the county pay roll does work? Isn't there any bright side to this county government?"

$1,000 a Year per Pupil.

The "bright side" did not show in yesterday's discussions. President Cermak started the attack by a statement regarding the cost of operating the Chicago and Cook county school for boys near Riverside.

"The county is spending $85,000 a year for it," he said. "The school board spends $35,000 more. It is costing the taxpayers $120,000 a year for a school with a capacity of 120. A boy there is costing more than to go to Harvard university. I think the property should be sold. It is worth between $6,000 and $7,000 an acre and there is 75 acres."

The committee asked J. L. Jacobs, its efficiency engineer, for a report.

Cost Records Lacking.

Then came the bureau of mechanics—131 employés who received $429,700 last year.

"That cost has increased nearly 100 per cent in the last three years," said Mr. Jacobs. "There is practically no supervision of these mechanics."

"O, yes there is," broke in Henry Zender, superintendent of public service.

"You can't tell the cost of any job they have done in the last year," replied Jacobs. "No cost records are kept. Take the painting of this building. Seventy-five cents of every dollar spent on it was wasted. It is absolutely a crime, not only to the county but to the labor unions. The county has spent $400,000 and has no record of what it has got for it."

Zender Protests Again.

"Couldn't one clerk keep a cost system?" asked President Cermak.

"The department has a clerk there now, but the clerk doesn't do anything."

"I wouldn't say that," protested Superintendent of Public Service Zender.

"I have been told by an old employé that a certain mechanic doesn't do an hour's work a day," volunteered Commissioner Busse.

"There are some of the men who cannot do a real day's work," admitted Zender. The committee decided to ask for bids from private contractors on certain work now done by the bureau of mechanics.

Probably the biggest exposé of the day relates to the clothes, coal, food and other supplies distributed to the poor. The amount requested for these supplies this year is $325,000. The amount spent last year was $337,090. Mr. Jacobs said his inquiry showed that the overhead cost of distributing the relief to the poor was 80 per cent of the cost of the supplies.

Figures Show Shrinkage.

"Our figures showed that an average ration cost the taxpayers $6.37," he explained. "Of that amount $2.87 was overhead and shrinkage and $3.50 was food given the poor. The $2.87 is 80 per cent of the $3.50. The wholesale cost of the rations was $97,079. The shrinkage, or loss, was $21,010, and the cost of distribution was $56,629. It would be cheaper for the county to buy its supplies at retail prices of a large department store which would deliver the goods to the poor families than to continue the present system. On the basis of the above figures the suggested system would save $53,000."

Mr. Jacob said there should be a "shrinkage" of 3 to 5 per cent, but that 80 per cent "shrinkage" is unreasonable. The budget as presented by the new bureau of public welfare [illegible] that the old system will be continued. The figures are on that basis.

The next item to cause comment was for election expenses in 1927. The first request was $750,000. That was cut by the controller to $320,000. The only election the commissioners could foresee for this year is the election of a drainage trustee to fill a vacancy. President Cermak urged that a bill be

THE SECRET OF THE SPHINX.

ISN'T THAT THE SAME PUP THEY BURIED AWHILE BACK?

LADY "LEGGER'S" CARGO NABBED BY EVANSTON COP

Evanston's supply of bootleg liquor was cut short late last night when a lady bootlegger and her companion were arrested as they were delivering a consignment of alcohol. They gave the names of Miss Madeline Jordan, 2857 North Neenah avenue, and Angelo Deciclia, 1144 North Western avenue, Chicago.

Policeman Henry L. White, colored, was off duty and passing the corner of Church and McDaniel streets, when he saw the man taking a 5 gallon can of alcohol from an automobile. He arrested the couple and found ten 5 gallon cans in the car, which according to the license number belonged to Clemens Parrino, 2507 North Oakley avenue, Chicago. Miss Jordan and Deciclia were held for government authorities.

RUMOR DECLARES H. F. M'CORMICK AND WIFE DIVIDED

New York, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—One of the New York morning papers—the American—prints a story alleged to be based on information from Paris to the effect that Harold F. McCormick of Chicago and his wife, who was Ganna Walska, the opera singer, are to be divorced. The article reports that Mr. McCormick left this city today for his home in Chicago, but there is no confirmation from him of the report.

However, the information is given that he was reported to have said in Paris that they were "through forever."

TWO CHICAGOANS HURT IN WRECK ON ROCK ISLAND

Avoca, Ia., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Three passengers were badly cut and bruised when the westbound Rocky Mountain limited of the Rock Island lines was derailed on a twenty foot embankment near Walnut, Ia., late tonight.

The three most seriously injured were L. E. Houak, 1421 Sherwin avenue, Chicago; George Adams, Omaha salesman, and G. M. Danty, Drexel avenue, Chicago.

Other passengers suffered minor injuries.

Boy Climbs Light Pole on a Dare; Falls to Death

Richard Nordell, 15 years old, 3973 Nora avenue, was killed yesterday by a 15 foot fall from the top of an electric light pole which he had climbed on a dare by his playmates. Richard's arm brushed against a live wire and the burning current caused him to lose his grip. The accident occurred at Fletcher street and Sarah avenue.

Arrest Actors, Promoters of Erotic Plays

They were all released on $500 bail pending further hearings.

Shows Are Closed.

Audiences were not interfered with, and many went home without knowing that they had attended the closing of the three shows, permanently, according to the plans of District Attorney Jacob Banton, Police Commissioner George V. McLaughlin, and Acting Mayor Joseph F. McKee.

The warrants charged the theatrical prisoners with "producing and participating in an indecent show" and with committing "a public nuisance."

It made no difference that "The Captive" and "Sex" were both passed some time ago under the voluntary play jury system which Mr. Banton formally discarded last Friday.

Only Law Counts.

Under the new dispensation, Mr. Banton explained, nothing counts but the penal law; the play jury was unofficial. These shows have caused complaints, and evidence to jusitfy prosecution of the complaints has been collected.

At the Empire the warning to prepare for arrest was communicated by the detectives to Gilbert Miller, producer, and George Kondolm, manager, of "The Captive."

To avoid distracting their attention from acting, it was agreed not to notify the members of the cast that they were to be arrested until after the performance. The company consists of Ann Trevor, Winifred Fraser, John Mildram, Helen Menken, Gail Kane, Arthur Lewis and Arthur Wonter.

Calls It Politics.

At Daly's theater during the second act of "Sex," C. W. Morganstern, who has been considering the production of "The Drag" in New York, declared that it was a breach of trust to close a play passed by the play jury eleven months ago. "It's all politics," he said. But he agreed to be on hand when the curtain fell and was then arrested.

At the Princess theater, where "The Virgin Man" has been playing to small audiences, Inspector Thomas P. Cummings conducted the arrests. He notified William Francis Dugan, author and producer, to prepare for arrest after the show with seven members of the company.

There was a flurry among the actors when the word spread behind the scenes, but it did not seem to surprise many of them. Dorothy Hall, one of the stars, had reported ill before the first curtain, but so had her understudy. So Miss Hall was compelled to be there, and was told she must go to court, together with Joseph Baird, Betty Alden, Paul Clare, Charles Horn, Virginia Smith, and Don Dillaway.

OFFER CENSOR PLAN HERE.

Crystallizing the recent discussions on the advisability of stage censorship, civic leaders of Chicago attended a meeting yesterday at the headquarters of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, at which an ordinance providing for such censorship was proposed and discussed. Mrs. Walter Seymour, president of the federation, presided at the meeting.

If adopted in the form suggested, the ordinance would compel producers to submit to Chief Collins the scripts and libretti of new productions.

New York Navy Yard Is Hit by $1,000,000 Fire

New York, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Damage estimated by navy yard authorities at $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 was caused by the fire tonight at the New York navy yard in Brooklyn. Three warehouses, containing quantities of vegetables, sheet metal, and five anti-aircraft guns, were destroyed.

BESIEGE BIRGER IN MACHINE GUN GUARDED CELL

Can't Get Out; Sheriff Can't Go In.

BULLETIN.

Marion, Ill., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Charles Birger was brought here from Harrisburg early this morning and lodged in jail. He will be taken to Mount Vernon, guarded by an armed motor outfit headed by Sheriff Turner of Saline county and Sheriff Coleman of Williamson county. He is to appear in court in Mount Vernon at 9 o'clock on habeas corpus proceedings.

Harrisburg, Ill., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—In a cell in the Saline county jail here tonight sat Charlie Birger, powerful gang leader of southern Illinois, defying the world to come and take him out. On Charlie's lap was a machine gun and Charlie's prowess with that weapon was what won him the colorful sobriquet by which he is known in Egypt—"Machine Gun Charlie."

Outside the jail in positions of vantage were Sheriff James S. Pritchard of Franklin county and several of his deputies. Sheriff Pritchard wants Birger on a charge of complicity in the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City and Pritchard said he was bound to have him.

Fears Volley From Cell.

But the sheriff couldn't get Birger without a probable volley from his machine gun and Birger wouldn't come out and a vast tenseness was added to the whole situation by the fact that Charlie must come out some time during the night to start for Mount Vernon, the seat of Jefferson county, in answer to a writ of habeas corpus sought by his own lawyers.

So there was Birger hugging his machine gun and swearing he would not be taken when he did start out. And there were Pritchard and his deputies swearing that he would be taken.

Birger remained in jail because he was determined he would not be taken back to Benton, seat of Franklin county, to answer the charge that he was implicated in the Adams murder. The gang leader said the plan to take him back was simply one to take him to his assassination by Shelton gangsters—and he did not propose to be assassinated.

A Power in Harrisburg.

Birger is almost a superofficial force in Harrisburg. This is his home town and they are strong as death for him down here. The good people and those not so careful of their conduct or reputations alike are his friends.

Admittedly a gang leader, he has always kept his gang and all others out of his home town—therefore the town is for him.

Which perhaps explains how he happens to have a machine gun ready to spit lead out of his cell.

Sheriff Pritchard of Franklin county made several demands for the gangster during the day, but he was told each time by Deputy Sheriffs Elmer Gibbons and Lon Travelstead that they could not surrender the prisoner in the absence of Sheriff L. W. Turner, who was in Springfield.

For a time, then, Pritchard went away—but in the evening he returned. He had been told that Sheriff Turner would be back at midnight and he prepared to make another demand for the prisoner then—and if he didn't get him to wait.

May Go to Mount Vernon.

"Just to wait, that's all," Pritchard said grimly. "If I should fail to get him—if they slip away from me somehow, I'll go to Mount Vernon and take him if the court will let me.

"What's this talk of his about being taken back to Benton to his death? Nothing of the sort can happen. Neither the Sheltons nor any other gangsters will take any man away from me. When Birger becomes my prisoner he'll be guarded night and day by a dozen armed men."

There seemed to be little question that Birger had the machine gun ready for use in his cell. Pritchard said he had seen Charlie sitting there as if waiting for something, the weapon over his lap. Local deputies admitted they had given it to him for protection—he had convinced them—they said—that a raid by Shelton gangsters might be attempted any time.

Sons See Father Killed by Bandit

Shot Down in Office; Young Slayer Flees

In the presence of two of his four sons and a girl cashier, Jacob Rosenthal, 49 years old, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by one of two armed bandits who invaded the offices of the Sheridan laundry, 5037 North Kedzie avenue, of which Rosenthal was the owner.

Rosenthal was leaning over the cashier's desk talking on the telephone when the two robbers entered.

Turning at the sound of footsteps, Rosenthal faced the muzzle of an automatic in the hands of the foremost robber, a tall, lanky youth of about 21. Closely behind the bandit leader stood his pal, a short, stout appearing youth.

Ordered to Hold Up Hands.

"Throw 'em up," demanded the bandit.

But without waiting for Rosenthal to obey the command the sons of the slain man said last night, the robber fired. The bullet struck Rosenthal in the neck and ranged downward through his body.

Rosenthal sank unconscious to the floor. The eldest son, Harry Rosenthal, 20 years old, seated nearby, sprang to his feet with a shout. Miss Olive Healy, 22 years old, 2700 Kewanee avenue, collapsed in a faint at her desk.

Both Robbers Flee.

Apparently alarmed, both robbers, not pausing to attempt a robbery, fled from the building, leaped into a waiting automobile, and escaped north in Kedzie avenue. Young Rosenthal, followed closely by his brother Samuel, 17 years old, gave chase on foot, shouting to nearby shopkeepers for aid. A third son, Morris, ran from a back room and joined the pursuers.

Rosenthal was taken to the Swedish Covenant hospital by a messenger of the Western Union Telegraph company, who happened to drive past, but he died on the way without regaining consciousness.

Within a few moments after the shooting two police squads, one under the command of Detective Sergeant Max Smith of the Summerdale station and the other led by Detective Sergeant O'Malley of the Albany Park station, were endeavoring to pick up the trail of the slayers' car.

Suspect Caught, Pal Escapes.

A suspect was arrested and his companion escaped last night when policemen touring the district at Irving Park boulevard and Lavergne avenue halted an automobile similar to the one used by the bandits. As the police ordered the men out of the car, one complied, but immediately the other threw his car in gear and sped away, the police firing several shots after him. The captured man carried a gun and at the station gave his name as Alfonse Isle, 118 Van Buren street. He is an ex-convict.

Several other suspects were also held at the Albany Park station. A discharged employé of the laundry was questioned but released.

Didn't Have a Chance.

"Dad didn't have the ghost of a chance," Harry Rosenthal told Lieut. Charles Egan. "I was sitting very close by, but I didn't even hear them order him to hold up his hands. It seemed to me he was shot the moment the robbers got inside the door. I don't believe my father ever realized they were really stickup men."

Besides his sons and wife, Rosenthal is survived by two daughters, Bessie and Mary, who had planned accompanying their father and mother on a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., today.

Edward Adams, colored, 2016 Walnut street, died yesterday at the county hospital of gunshot wounds received on Feb. 6 when he was shot by two colored robbers.

PUSH CONGRESS ACTION TODAY IN OPPOSITION

Politics Warming Up in Washington.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—The adjournment of politics is ended. The jockeying for the 1928 race has begun.

Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of the late Theodore Roosevelt and himself a potential candidate for President, attacked the Coolidge naval policy in an address delivered today. He said the administration's economy program was permitting the American strength in cruisers and other auxiliary vessels to fall below the 5-5-3 ratio fixed by the disarmament treaty.

Seek to Head Off Coolidge.

Democrats and insurgent Republicans in congress will offer in each house tomorrow a resolution declaring it "the sense" of each house that congress is against a third Presidential term.

Henry Ford called on President Coolidge, said prosperity was growing, that prohibition is a good thing, and that Mr. Coolidge is more popular throughout the country than ever.

Wisconsin insurgents refused to enter the regular Republican caucus in the house.

Over in New York, Nicholas Murray Butler, who also is a potential presidential candidate, said the Republican party should come out for repeal of both the 18th amendment and the Volstead act. He accepted the challenge of Senator Borah of Idaho to make liquor the issue in the Republican national convention.

MENTION NO NAMES

The Democrats and the insurgent Republicans of congress, in their resolution to oppose a third term, will not refer to any special occupant of the white house. They merely will say that no man should occupy the executive mansion at the other end of Pennsylvania avenue more than two terms. And they will not include in their resolution any reference such as "the present tenant, Calvin Coolidge." But it is apparent they hold that Mr. Coolidge will have served two terms at the end of his current four years.

In support of their idea, a precedent going back to the days of Grant will be invoked, and every effort will be made to force a vote in both senate and house.

Proponents of the plan busied themselves this afternoon in searching records of 1875 and established that on Dec. 15 of that year, the house passed such a resolution by a vote of 233 to 18, with 38 not voting.

Longworth Makes a Start.

Mr. Longworth who, beside being the husband of Alice Roosevelt, is speaker of the National House of representatives, made his start in an address before the Woman's Patriotic conference on national defense.

Mr. Longworth predicted that the house will accept the senate amendment to the navy appropriation bill providing for immediate commencement of construction of the three cruisers which the President desires abandoned.

Ridicules Administration Argument.

"The leading argument of those in the house who opposed any appropriation for the cruisers was that another limitation of armament conference might be held in the comparatively near future, and that, under the circumstances, we should proceed with no new actual building program," said Mr. Longworth. "To my mind, that argument refutes itself. I have not the slightest doubt that it was our commanding strength and generous willingness to make great sacrifices that brought about the successful results of the Washington conference.

"Today we are in no such position of superiority but rather in a position of inferiority. We must then take up the question of a new conference on the limitation of armament, not as a nation willing to make great sacrifices in the cause of peace, but as a nation begging others to make sacrifices themselves.

Influence Lies in Strength.

"In days like this, when it is regrettable, though undoubtedly true, that we have incurred the envy if not the hatred and enmity of most of the great nations, we cannot expect much of that sort of consideration in their councils as might be due to a liking for us or gratitude for service or sacrifices we have offered in the past.

"Our influence among the nations of the world not only for our own interests but for the interest of enduring peace must come from strength, not from weakness, from industrial and financial strength backed up by a competent military power, for the first two without the latter would be of no avail.

"That we may be secure at home, and that our influence may be felt abroad, we must have an adequate navy, and by adequate I mean a navy which shall measure up to the ratio agreed upon at the Washington conference. I hold that the American people believed, and had the right to believe, that we intended to live up to that agreement. Surely no foreign nation can complain if we abide by the terms of our contract. We have been more than just to the nations of the world. Let us be just to ourselves."

Mr. Longworth said that our army and navy are costing one-fifth of our total government expenditures, "an amount relatively small as compared with the military establishments of other nations."

Calls Navy Inadequate.

He said that he considers our army adequate, but our navy inadequate. The budget bureau has pared down navy appropriations, but the speaker said that congress is charged with the responsibility of maintaining adequate national defense and ought not to become the rubber stamp of the budget.

"We entered the Washington conference in a position of distinct superiority over all," Mr. Longworth continued. "We emerged from the conference in a position of exact equality with the greatest of the naval powers. Today, I grieve to say, we are in a position of distinct inferiority to Great Britain and not so far away from Japan. To me this lapse from our former high estate is nothing short of lamentable, if not humiliating.

"For the protection of our foreign policies a thoroughly adequate navy is vital at all times, for these policies are no stronger than our fleet."

COOLIDGE SATISFIES FORD

Henry Ford, who once sought the senatorship from Michigan as a Democrat, apparently is satisfied to keep Mr. Coolidge as tenant of the White House if Mr. Coolidge likes it after the extensive repairs, which soon will force him to vacate it temporarily, are complete.

Mr. Ford cast an appraising eye at the ceilings of the White House as he entered today. He would not admit he was prepared to begin quantity production of White House roofs, if that seemed necessary. His visit was, according to his explanation, merely for the purpose of saying "Howdy do." He smiled, after leaving the President's office, as he said he thought the President did not mind having him call, because he had nothing to urge and no favors to ask.

Sees Increasing Prosperity.

Mr. Ford then explained that he had told the President that the country generally is "solid as a rock" and that existing prosperity will not only continue but increase. He added that he considered the President "more popular with the people of the United States than ever before," but he refused to discuss the President's chances for renomination.

"President Coolidge impressed me as being in splendid health and in good spirits," Mr. Ford said. "He struck me as standing up well under the many duties of his office. I was happy to see that he was looking so well."

In reply to questions as to what they discussed during the few moments they chatted, Mr. Ford said they talked about nothing in particular. He added that they simply exchanged greetings.

Believes in Prohibition.

Asked for an opinion regarding prohibition, Mr. Ford readily replied that he firmly believed in prohibition, adding that the results have been so beneficial he hoped it had come to stay.

"Prohibition is a good thing for the country and it should be continued," he stated. "I am in a position to know that it has been of untold benefit to the working man. Surveys made in my own plant show this. The conditions among working men now compared with the period before prohibition are as different as is day from night.

BUTLER ANSWERS BORAH

New York, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, replied tonight to Senator William E. Borah's challenge to coöperate in presenting to the voters of the country, before the national conventions take place, the prohibition question as each views it. Senator Borah is a dry and Dr. Butler a wet. Dr. Butler answered the two questions that were asked him by the senator.

"You ask me two main questions," he said. "These are my answers: I am in favor, specifically and definitely, of the repeal both of the eighteenth amendment and of the Volstead act. It would make me very glad to have the Republican party, to which I have given such service as I am capable since early manhood, take that position.

Upholds All of Constitution.

"To your second question, I answer that I should not oppose the Republican party pledging itself specifically to the upholding of and enforcement of the eighteenth amendment so long as that amendment remains a part of the constitution, provided that the declaration be so drawn as to make it plain that this enforcement of the eighteenth amendment is always and everywhere to be accompanied by the like enforcement of the other provisions of the constitution, including particularly those contained in the first ten amendments, which constitute our national bill of rights.

"If to declare for the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment means its enforcement even in violation of the bill of rights and other fundamental laws of the land, I am against such declaration and against such policy."

Council Races Grow Hotter; Will Affect Mayoralty Fight

In nearly every disputed ward aldermanic candidates have aligned themselves with one of three mayoralty groups—Dever, Thompson, or Litsinger.

About twenty councilmen are expected to clinch their jobs with a majority vote, Feb. 22, nine being unopposed. This means that, although the election ends only a preliminary heat of the mayoralty race, it may definitely decide the control of the next council.

Various Leagues Are Busy.

For this reason the Municipal Voters' league and other groups are urging voters to give special attention to the aldermanic issues. A mayor with a council majority, as Mr. Dever now has, can accomplish progressive civic work, the M. V. L. points out, while a hostile council may block a mayor at every turn.

So far, in the aldermanic contests, Mayor Dever has the upper hand, all nine of the unopposed candidates being under his banner. Five or six other Democrats expect easy victories, but in probably fifteen wards, the battling promises to go to a ballot knockout.

Kaindl's Race Looks Easy.

Ald. Edward J. Kaindl [34th] also seems to have a setup, only one opponent, Philip Schultz, an officer of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, out against him.

Aside from these two peaceful sectors, however, the northwest wards show noisy campaigning, with the mayoralty issues uppermost.

Ald. Joseph Petlak [33d] is in a fight to beat the power of his former Democratic confrere, Congressman Stanley Kunz, who has put up George M. Roscynialski. Kunz, the Democratic ward boss, fell out with Ald. Petlak for supporting Judge E. K. Jarecki last fall and since then both have claimed the heavy Polish vote in the ward.

Strong Fight in 39th.

One of the hottest political scrambles in the city affects Ald. Frank A. Ringa [39th], who seeks a second term. Originally a Crowe-Barrett Republican, Ringa recently balked at indorsing Thompson and was thrown out by his organization. He then swung over to the Deneen camp and was indorsed by the Democrats, while the Thompson forces put up Charles S. Knudson, an attorney. Steve Adamowski, a brother of Ald. Max Adamowski, a Democrat, also is out to beat Ringa.

A dual battle looms in the 40th ward, where Ald. Christ A. Jensen, Democrat, may lose his seat after three terms, to John W. Chapman, Deneen candidate, backed by a strong independent following. Leo H. Lowitz has the Thompson support.

Five candidates are out against Joseph H. Smith [32d], a Democrat, the strongest, former Alderman J. Edward Clancy and Stephen Kolanowski, who ran a close race in 1925. Walter Ozimek, a Deneenite; Teofil Mindikowski, said to be for Thompson, and Michael F. Maher, former Democratic state legislator, are dark horses, all with potential strength.

These Seem Likely Winners.

Ald. Stanley Adamkewitz [31st] and Ald. Max Adamowski [38th] each have one opponent, and should win by fair majorities.

Ald. Adamowski recently broke with his organization, but returned to the fold. His opponent is Bruno D. Jasinski, a drug store owner, 1928 North Leavitt street.

DRUG STORE HER RIVAL, SHE TELLS COURT IN SUIT

Mrs. Frances R. Kritenbrink, 60, of 3516 Ogden avenue, yesterday declared in a suit for separate maintenance filed in the Circuit court, that for 28 years of her married life with John C. Kritenbrink, druggist, he never spent an evening at home, but lived 24 hours a day in his drug store.

Mrs. Kritenbrink was forced to carry three meals a day to him in the drug store, she testified. As she walked two blocks each way, she figured that she walked 4,791 miles to serve 29,583 meals to her husband. Kritenbrink disappeared two months ago, she said, and she now asks the court to force him to support her.

STILL STUDYING LAW BOOKS THAT FIT SMITH'S CASE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Further discussion of the legal questions involved in the contest over the seating of Frank L. Smith, senator designate from Illinois, took place today at a meeting of the senate committee on privileges and elections.

The committee will continue the discussion tomorrow, but without any certainty that action will be taken.

While no vote was taken it was stated that more than a majority of the committee were in favor of recommending the seating of Smith but that several of the members, including the Democrats, were inclined to the belief that evidence should be presented as to the facts in the case before a report was made to the senate.

Mr. Smith did not return to Washington, remaining at his home in Dwight, Ill., because of illness. He was represented today by Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom of Illinois, C. J. Doyle and James M. Beck.

Mexican Politicians Kill 5 in Attack on City Hall

[Copyright: 1927: By The New York Times.]

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 9.—Five persons were killed on Monday in a political fight in the town of Xala, Nayarit, according to El Sol, Timoteo Hernandez, president of the municipal council, and four of his companions were shot down by a band of rival politicians which rushed into the city hall.

STOCKS PLUNGE AS BEARS RAID RAIL MARKET

2,845,050 Shares Change Hands in Trading.

New York, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—A bear raid of singular daring, directed at the market's most vital spot, precipitated a break on the stock exchange today. In less than an hour the raid erased millions of dollars of security values, wiped out hundreds of speculators, and toppled over a speculative structure which Wall street was coming to regard as a menace.

That the market, in its most exposed position—the "little rails"—was about ready to collapse was made plain when a group of operators, timing their attack with precision, struck with dramatic suddenness just before noon.

Wheeling Hard Hit.

Singling out Wheeling and Lake Erie, which has been a market sensation for some days, as well as Western Maryland and other speculative favorites, these operators launched a selling movement that met virtually no resistance. Within five minutes Wheeling, which has been astonishing the street by the rapidity and breadth of its advances, was crumbling at breathless speed.

Other stocks of the "little rail" group proved equally vulnerable and as the decline in the leaders gained momentum the selling took on all the appearances of a "market panic." Within forty-five minutes the market value of Wheeling had been whittled down more than 35 points. Western Maryland had shaken 10 points from its price, while other issues, such as Pittsburgh and West Virginia, Bangor and Aroostook, and Chicago and Great Western were sinking so fast that tape watchers had difficulty in following them.

During the period of the widest break, the trading was of unprecedented volume. On the whole, it was one of the biggest markets in recent years, transactions totaling 2,845,050 shares.

Stocks Rally Again.

The break was of brief duration, and it was followed by a rally of vigor which wiped out a good part of the losses. The reversal of trend came about as suddenly as the break, but the advance was much slower. Many of the stocks, including the Wheeling and Western Maryland issues, recovered somewhat, but Wall street seemed to be convinced at the end of the day that the speculative bubble had been punctured.

The rally at the close carried Wheeling back to 90, Western Maryland to 29½, and Wheeling preferred to 87.

Highs and Lows in Rails.

	High Feb. 8.	Low Feb. 9.
Bangor and Aroostook	60¼	51
Chicago and Alton	10	7½
Chicago and Alton pfd.	13⅞	10¾
Chicago and Eastern Illinois	37⅛	35
Chicago and Eastern Illinois pfd.	51⅝	48½
Chicago Great Western	22	15
Chicago Great Western pfd.	33¾	25¼
Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul	15⅞	12⅛
Chicago Milwaukee and St. P. pfd	24½	20
Kansas City Southern	50	45
New York, New Haven and Hart.	53½	50½
New York, Ontario and Western.	31½	28
Norfolk Southern	46½	41⅝
Peoria and Eastern	28⅝	25¼
Pittsburgh and West Virginia	148	140
Texas and Pacific	63½	59
Wabash	60	55⅞
Western Maryland	42½	25
Western Maryland 2d pfd.	40½	28
Western Pacific	37⅞	35
Wheeling and Lake Erie	130	66¾
Wheeling and Lake Erie pfd.	93	79½

Many explanations for the break were put out. In one quarter it was said that the downrush was due to the action of the directors of the Wheeling and Lake Erie and the Western Maryland in arranging to provide stock for conversion. Application was made during the day to the interstate commerce commission to permit the issuance of $22,227,000 additional common stock.

H. S. COUNCIL ASKS CAPS AND GOWNS FOR ALL AT GRADUATION

Caps and gowns will be worn by all high school graduates next June if the resolution adopted at a meeting of the All Cook County Students High School council yesterday in the Straus building under the auspices of the American Citizenship foundation is acted upon.

Besides contributing to the academic spirit of graduation, the council members agreed that the uniform would reduce the cost of the affair by eliminating competition among students to appear in the finest clothes.

Wade Stanfield of Hyde Park was elected president of the organization and appointed a cap and gown committee of four, consisting of Albert Jacobson and David Rosenbloom of Marshall High school and David Goldberg and Louis Starks of Medill.

American Divorces in France Doubled in 1926

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Feb. 9.—According to the American consulate's figures 280 American couples got divorces in the French courts in 1926, as compared to 120 couples in 1925.

DEATH TANGLES DIVORCE DRAMA OF 58 AND 22

Co-respondent's Story Is Never to Be Told.

Domestic drama woven about a 58 year old husband, a 22 year old wife and a co-respondent who has been dead for a year, was presented yesterday before Superior Judge Harry A. Lewis in the contested divorce hearing of Mrs. Eva Crysler, 4907 Winthrop avenue, and George Crysler, 4732 Manor avenue, a $20,000 a year contractor.

The charge of the elderly husband that his home had been broken up by a youthful salesman who was killed in an automobile accident last May was believed to be unique in Judge Lewis' opinion. Thomas Farran, the co-respondent, died before proceedings were started by either husband or wife and his testimony in the case was never available.

Judge Decides Today.

The third act of the legal play will be staged today when Judge Lewis makes his decision. The aged husband provided the final lines for yesterday's performance when he declared earnestly to Attorney Matilda Fenberg, his wife's counsel, as they were leaving court:

"I still love my wife and I'll do anything to get her back. Anything."

The Cryslers were first married in August, 1921. Eight months later the young wife obtained a divorce, charging cruelty. She declared that Crysler had beaten her each week of their married life until she was black and blue. Finally, he chased her into the street while she was in her nightgown, she testified.

Weds Youth a Year Later.

A year later, Mrs. Crysler said, she married Farran in St. Louis. That was in May, 1923, and the following February Crysler came to their home and threatened to kill them both if she did not return to him, she said. He declared that Farran had a wife living and that her marriage to the salesman was illegal. Farran denied this, but Mrs. Crysler believed her former husband and remarried him without the formality of a divorce from Farran, she testified.

It is this second marriage which is now in dispute. Crysler claims it is illegal since Mrs. Crysler was married to Farran. The young wife asserts that the marriage is legal inasmuch as her previous marriage to Farran was void.

Fararn, the only person who could clear up the tangle, is dead and Attorney Fenberg today must rely on documentary evidence to prove that her client was married to Farran illegally and is the legal wife of Crysler.

LITSINGER SAYS BIG BILL MEANS BIG FEES BILL

Calls Thompson Nickname Apt from His Record.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Up in the Wilson avenue district, Edward R. Litsinger, the Deneen-Brundage pick for mayor, gave an illustrated lecture last night on the engaging theme "Why the Name 'Big Bill' Fits Bill Thompson."

A large, black lettered chart was hoisted on the stage of Arcadia hall in view of several thousand north side Republicans, and Litsinger gave an exposition, something in the manner of a travelogue, prefacing it with: "Here we see the reason Big Bill has the right name." The chart read:

BIG BILL—IN ACCOUNT WITH THE TAXPAYERS OF CHICAGO.

WALLER	$ 619,066.64
LYNCH	559,166.55
MERIGOLD	554,829.76
MESCE	467,917.84
LYONS	634,687.39
TOTAL	$2,835,668.18
CREDIT ACCOUNT.
MERIGOLD (judgment ordered)	$ 209,023.62
LYONS (judgment ordered)	432,053.38
TOTAL	$ 641,077.00
BALANCE DUE	$2,194,091.18

"Look it over," remarked Litsinger. "The name 'Big Bill' is right, isn't it? The Thompson administration's expert fee scandal alone is sufficient explanation of why the name 'Big Bill' fits so well, but it is only one of a number of things that made eight years of boodle and blunders at the city hall such a big bill of expense to every citizen and taxpayer.

A Challenge to Thompson.

"Big Bill says in his meeting today that Litsinger is the worst liar in Chicago. These figures are all on record. If Big Bill will appear on this platform and say these figures are off, I'll choke the figures down his Big Bill throat. Or he can sue me for libel tomorrw. If Bill wants to come with clean hands, should he not first return this $2,000,000 he owes the people of Chicago?"

Candidate Litsinger hopped to the Pageant of Progress, held during the "Throw away your hammer and get a horn" régime, and accused the promoters of attempting to salt away $500,000 of the profits.

"We all recall," he said, "how Chicago's $5,000,000 Municipal pier, owned and paid for by the taxpayers, was taken over by an army of Thompson city hall pay-rollers for the purpose of giving a commercial show participated in by city employés hired and paid to do work for the city. Space was rented out for commercial exhibits, privileges sold, and $500,000 collected by the privately organized Pageant of Progress corporation.

Suit Blocked Scheme.

"Public officials, headed by the mayor, using public property, collecting what should have been considered somewhat in the nature of public funds, attempted to hold out that half million dollars, but a taxpayer's suit for an accounting compelled them to turn the money over. This man who now wants to come back as mayor of Chicago had a conception of official decency that would permit him and his Pageant of Progress promoters to put over that sort of scheme.

"'Big Bill' tells us that things happened during his administration, such as the expert fee scandals, which 'came as a great surprise' to him. Chicago this year will spend more than $100,000,000 on municipal activities and corporate expenses. Do we want a mayor to whom such scandals as expert fees and the school board graft 'come as a great surprise' months or even years after every one else has learned of them?"

Other speakers at the Litsinger rally were: Edward J. Brundage, former attorney general; Francis L. Boutell, Ald. Arthur Albert, and former Adj. Gen. Frank S. Dickson. It was the curtain raiser for a series of fifteen Deneen-Brundage massmeetings to be held in the next twelve days. Senator Deneen is expected to be here to take the stump Saturday.

Thompson Makes Comeback.

Meanwhile Mr. Thompson, taking up Litsinger's earlier onslaught on the expert fee scandal, got into an imbroglio with Prof. Charles E. Merriam of the University of Chicago, former Hyde Park alderman and a leading authority on municipal government. At a noonday meeting Mr. Thompson said Litsinger was distorting the records.

"Litsinger has sunk into the slough of false criticism," he said. "The truth about the falsehoods on the experts is that when I became mayor I set the rate of expert real estate advisers at $50 a day.

"At the instance of Charles E. Merriam, a noisy, destructive member of the council, a committee began flying over the country investigating constructive programs of large cities. The committee came to the council and reported $50 was not enough. It was Merriam and his crowd that boosted expenses and not William Hale Thompson."

Prof. Merriam, when he learned of Thompson's statement, declared Bill was apparently mixed in his memory.

"I was never connected with any such committee," he said. "As a matter of fact, I spent two years trying to keep the experts' fees down.

"Apparently Mr. Thompson has got things all balled up. As I remember there was no such committee as he seems to think, and if there were, I certainly had nothing to do with it."

CHAMP CHICKEN THIEF CAPTURED; HIS SCORE? 4,203

Ernest Overcash of Naperville, Ill., said to be champion endurance chicken thief of all time, is under arrest by the Dupage county authorities.

His capture has brought great relief to the chicken realms of a half dozen counties west of Cook, for the prisoner confessed to Assistant State's Attorney Wynne Knoch at Wheaton that he had stolen 4,203 birds since Jan. 1, 1923.

Overcash says he sold them all to one Chicago commission house, according to Knoch, making his deliveries with such clockwork regularity that the commission men thought he operated a chicken farm west of the city.

Ernest was arrested last Thursday night while raiding the hencoop of Jose Schwartz of Naperville.

ASK ACCOUNTING IN AFFAIRS OF $4,000,000 FIRM

A bill asking for an accounting was filed in the Superior court yesterday against the Barrington Oil company, 29 South La Salle street, by Dr. R. G. Eaton, 6844 Crandon avenue, and Dr. I. G. Johnson, two of the stockholders. The bill, which also asks for an injunction to stop a proposed reorganization of the company, charges that the assets have apparently shrunk from $4,000,000, which was invested by stockholders, to $500,000.

A. R. Webb, head of the investment securities firm bearing his name, with offices at 76 West Monroe street, is named in the suit. He sold some of the company's stock in 1922 and 1923. The company operates wells in Oklahoma and southwestern Kansas.

Webb denied that he had handled the amount of stock charged in the bill and said that such stock as he did handle was bought and sold in the open market on customers' orders and not through a stock promotion campaign. Attorney W. R. Matheny filed the suit.

EVANSTON FINDS 48 NEW CASES OF MEASLES IN DAY

Forty-eight new cases of measles were found in Evanston yesterday, bringing the total number of cases in quarantine to 150, according to the records of the city's health commissioner, Dr. John W. H. Pollard.

Both Dr. Pollard and Roy Skiles, superintendent of schools in district 75, agreed that with the precautionary methods now being taken there is no necessity for closing the schools.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES FIGHT TO A DRAW OVER COOK CASE

The board of education became involved in heated argument yesterday when asked to sustain Supt. McAndrew's recommendation that Miss Genevieve Cook be transferred from her position as teacher in the Juvenile Detention home to the Cameron school. The vote was 4 to 4, so no definite action was taken.

Besides the obvious effort of one member to defeat the proposal merely to chagrin the superintendent, the question of whether or not the educational chieftains may rid the system of recalcitrant teachers in anticipation of favorable board action cropped out. Attorney Frank S. Righeimer stated informally that the superintendent is bound to await school board confirmation before removing a teacher, and that he had acted illegally in the Cook case.

The four who voted to uphold the superintendent were Julius F. Smietanka, Mrs. W. S. Hefferan, Edgar N. Greenebaum, and Theophilus Schmid. The opponents were John English, Mrs. Johanna Gregg, J. L. Coath, and James Mullenbach. The matter is expected to be reopened and, with the anticipation of a favorable vote from Charles T. Byrne, who was absent yesterday, the McAndrew side predicts victory.

U. S. DEFINITELY OUT OF COURT; 3 POWERS BALK

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—The United States is definitely out of the world court. Three major powers, including Great Britain, notified the state department today that they are not prepared to accept the American reservations unconditionally. The names of the other powers were not made public by the state department.

President Coolidge has announced publicly that if the other powers did not accept the American reservations, without change, the United States would remain outside the court. In the light of this pronouncement, administration leaders united in asserting today that the long efforts by the Harding and Coolidge administrations to make the United States a member of the tribunal of international justice have been made futile.

Follow Geneva Draft.

The three replies received today united in following the draft reply evolved by the recent conference at Geneva where the world court powers agreed not to accept the senate reservations unless certain changes were made. The fifth American reservation, concerning advisory opinions, was one of those not accepted.

President Coolidge had no comment today, but it was stated by White House officials that the President had not changed his mind following his Kansas City speech. At that time he said that unless all the nations adhering to the court protocol accepted the American reservations without change he would not submit that matter to the senate again.

Shortly after news of the British rejection reached congress, the senate, by a vote of 59 to 10, tabled a motion by Senator Trammell [Dem., Fla.] to discharge the committee on foreign relations from further consideration of his resolution calling for withdrawal from the world court.

IT WILL TAKE $1,000 TO WED IN KANSAS IF BILL IS PASSED

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Kansas lovers with a matrimonial inclination will have to start saving their pennies if the state legislature and Gov. Paulen approve the marriage eugenics bill which was brought back to life today.

Every couple applying for a marriage license would be required to prove they had $1,000 on deposit in a bank or invested "over and above debts, liabilities and exemptions," under an amendment attached to the bill.

Exemption would be allowed, according to Senator Butler's interpretation, for the couple which owned a farm or other property equal in value to $1,000. Conversely, if the couple was in debt $100, they would be required to show a deposit of at least $1,100.

REDS SPURN LEAGUE BID

MOSCOW, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Maxim Litvinoff, acting commissar for foreign affairs, today returned to the league of nations its invitation to Russia to participate in a conference to create an international union to help people stricken by disaster.

Alluding to the fact that Moscow already has refused to go to the Geneva disarmament and economic conferences, because they will be held on Swiss soil, M. Litvinoff declared that despite this league invitations continue to pour in on Moscow. "Hence," he added. "I am obliged to return this last invitation, my government categorically declining to consider itself invited to meetings on Swiss soil."

REBELS LOSING IN PORTUGAL, U. S. ENVOY SAYS

Heavy Fighting Keeps Up in Lisbon.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—All Americans and the legation staff in Lisbon were reported safe by Fred M. Dearing, United States minister, in a dispatch received by the state department late today. Mr. Dearing reported heavy fighting and constant firing as continuing in Lisbon. The Portuguese government apparently is victorious over the revolutionary forces at Oporto and appears to be slowly winning in Lisbon.

Secretary of State Kellogg will send warships to Portugal if necessary for the protection of American citizens. The state department said thus far no calls for assistance had been received.

Vice Admiral Guy H. Burrage, commanding American naval forces in European waters, has been notified and has full power to take such steps as the situation demands.

REVOLT EASING UP

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The censorship still is wrapping in mystery the actual revolutionary developments in Portugal. A few scraps of messages, however, managed to creep through to London tonight, indicating the situation is easier.

The British admiralty received through the British destroyer Windsor a radio from the British consul at Oporto saying, "All is quiet in Oporto at present." The Portuguese embassy in London received a cable from the minister of foreign affairs in Lisbon definitely stating the Oporto uprising had ended.

Insurgent Leaders Arrested.

"The revolution which broke out in Oporto on Thursday, Feb. 3, organized by some politicians who were removed by the military movement on May 28 of last year, was suppressed on Monday last by loyal troops, who entered Oporto, headed by the minister of war," the embassy cable said. "The revolutionary leaders were arrested Monday.

"The revolutionary movement at Lisbon is confined to only a few sailors, three companies of the republican guard, and a few civilians who are at the naval arsenal. The rest of the country is quiet. The army has given complete and solid support to the government."

Calls Trouble Serious.

On the other hand, other sources state the rebels again are gaining in Lisbon. A London Daily News cable dispatched this morning from Lisbon declares:

"Fighting has been going on here for forty hours and is continuing. All cable and wireless stations are under government control."

A later cable, dispatched from Lisbon at 4:45 p. m., says: "The government now claims to have the situation well in hand, although the revolution is of a very serious character. A general strike has been declared which is interfering with traffic, but wireless and cable services for commercial purposes still are in operation."

A London Daily News dispatch sent from the Portuguese-Spanish frontier tonight by a correspondent who was present during the last clashes between the revolutionists and loyalists at Oporto says there were about 200 dead on both sides, including officers, who fought with much heroism. The last battle was held in a blinding snowstorm.

At Lisbon the brunt of suffering fell on the civilians, who fled panic stricken from the capital, escaping in yachts, launches, and rowboats down the river Tagus. The government poured shells on Dona Maria bridge, the stronghold of the insurgents.

The towns of Devesal and Evoria also were bombarded for sixteen hours, destroying buildings, hotels and residences, with 100 deaths and more than 100 wounded.

See Federal Victory Near.

[Copyright: 1927: By The New York Times.]

VIGO, Feb. 9.—As the result of a further visit to the Portuguese frontier today, newspaper correspondents authoritatively ascertained the insurrection at Oporto has not yet been completely suppressed, as the rebellious troops are eentranched in the center of the city and the government does not wish to damage by gunfire such an important industrial and commercial quarter. It is generally believed the normal conditions will be re-established practically throughout the country during tomorrow or the day after.

JUDGE ACCUSED OF AIDING IN DRY TRAPS FILES DEFENSE BRIEF

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Investigation of the charges that Federal District Judge Frank Cooper of Albany, N. Y., encouraged and aided prohibition agents to entrap alleged liquor law violators was undertaken by the house judiciary committee today. The committee became involved in a controversy over procedure and after several hours adjourned without hearing any witnesses. It will meet again tomorrow.

Judge Cooper was present with his counsel, Elisha Hanson of Washington, and was given leave to file a brief citing a long list of court decisions upholding his right to impose heavy penalties on alleged rum runners who had been arrested by dry agents posing, with his knowledge, as rum runners themselves. Impeachment of Judge Cooper was demanded by Representative La Guardia [Rep., N. Y.] in a resolution based on disclosures made in the recent Andrews-Blair report of undercover enforcement activities.

The Cooper brief asserted that if the dry agents suspected that certain persons were trafficking in liquor they were justified in bargaining with the violators.

YELLOWLEY AIDS U. S. RUM INQUIRY ON 19 PHYSICIANS

"Investigation of physicians' handling of liquor prescriptions involves every hospital in the United States, in that every physician in some way is connected with a hospital," Prohibition Administrator E. C. Yellowley said yesterday, in speaking of the alleged mishandling of liquor prescriptions by nineteen physicians attached to the Edward Hines Jr. Memorial hospital in Maywood.

"This office attempts to check up on every liquor permit issued in the district," Yellowley explained. "Certain physicians connected with the hospital, who have had permits issued to them by the prohibition office to prescribe whisky in their private practice for medicinal purposes, are being investigated by the veterans' bureau, assisted by Col. R. W. C. Francis, superintendent of the Speedway hospital, and we have been assisting them."

Col. Francis said the investigation was ordered a week ago by Washington authorities. He said that those under investigation are civilian physicians connected only on a part time basis with the hospital.

MARIE REVEALS PLAN FOR CAPITAL BUILT BY YANKS

BUCHAREST, Roumania, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Queen Marie in a published interview says that while in the United States she discussed a scheme for the building of a new capital in place of Bucharest by American enterprise. Her wish is to transfer the capital from Bucharest for aesthetic reasons and in the national interest. She is said to favor Brasov [Kronstadt] in Transylvania, the geographical center of Roumania.

The queen says Americans are able and willing to carry out the project, but would require a lease of land for a determined period to cover expenses, but otherwise would impose no obligations.

"The world has been accustomed to consider Americans as shopkeepers," Queen Marie said. "I know them and their hearts, and I am convinced that with little effort on our part Americans with their practical spirit would come to our aid and work miracles in our country."

The United States is a country which must be seen to be appreciated, she added. The queen regretted having missed the Ford plant. Regret having been expressed that Roumania had no Ford factory, the queen replied: "It would not be difficult to have one; they only have to be asked and they would come."

HUNDREDS DIE AS NICARAGUA ARMY WINS REBEL CITY

Conscripted Boys of 12 Fight Brothers.

BY GERALD MARTIN.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Feb. 9.—While the city was rejoicing over the government troops' recapture of Chinandega a rumor spread that Ricardo Lopez Callejos, chairman of the cabinet, had been killed by Liberals. Señor Callejos' home in Chinandega was burned to the ground. President Diaz said he was certain Minister Callejos was safe.

There was hand to hand fighting in Chinandega throughout the day. Hundreds were killed and wounded on both sides. The hospitals in Managua are overcrowded. President Diaz admits 150 troopers were killed and 200 wounded on the Conservative side.

Boys of 12 Fight.

The battle field is a scene of desolation. Buildings everywhere in Nicaragua's third city are destroyed. THE TRIBUNE correspondent accompanied government troops this afternoon to the scene of battle, where he witnessed youths of 12 or 13 years of age, conscripted from farms and from stores, battling with out of date rifles under the Diaz colors against their brothers who held Chinandega.

Managua is practically deserted by the peons. Only the élite remain here to act as civil police if emergency arises. The president's office was besieged this morning by foreign business men requesting exemption for their employés from conscription.

Diaz Ready to Quit.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Feb. 9.—(AP)—President Diaz, head of the Conservative government, today announced he was ready to give way to some one else, if that seemed best to the United States.

"My interests, hopes, and ambitions," he said, "are only for Nicaragua, peace and progress and the friendship of the United States. If the United States should think it best that we give way to some one else as a means of furthering the best interests of Nicaragua, I should do so.

"So long as I am president, and under subsequent administrations, I think the United States marines should remain in Nicaragua. This is the only means of preventing revolutions and guaranteeing uninterrupted progress of the coast to coast railroad which I planned, paved highways, educational systems, allowing the Nicaraguans to realize their natural physical advantages and possibilities of development during peacetime.

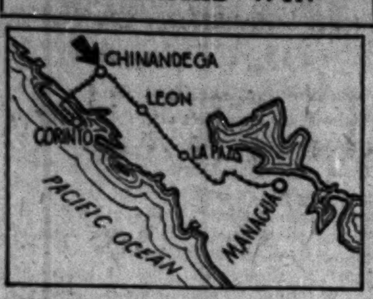
Capt. Wright Tells Son of Gladstone He's Sorry

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Capt. Peter Wright, who last week lost a libel action against Viscount Herbert Gladstone, who called him a liar, a coward and a foul fellow for making charges of immorality against Lord Gladstone's father, the great Prime Minister William E. Gladstone, has written a letter expressing regret to Lord Gladstone for the pain he had caused the latter's family by his references to the famous Victorian premier in his book, "Portraits and Criticisms."

FEDERALS WIN



Nicaraguan government troops are in control of Chinandega, third city of the nation, after several days battle with the liberal rebels. Hundreds were killed in the fight and a large part of the city was burned. The victory at Chinandega makes possible the reopening of railway communication between Managua, the capital, and Corinto, chief port on the Pacific ocean.

11TH HOUR STAY DELAYS HANGING OF SIX CONVICTS

A last minute reprieve, granted by Circuit Judge Arthur De Selm in Will county, yesterday postponed the punishment of six convicts who had been condemned to die at dawn tomorrow for the murder of Deputy Warden Peter Klein of Joliet penitentiary during a jail break at the prison last May 5. The court made the new hanging date March 4.

Judge De Selm acted after counsel for the six convicts, three of whom are Mexicans, assured him that a defense fund of $750 had been raised to take the cases before the Illinois Supreme court.

Charles Duschowski, one of the condemned men, yesterday repeated his story that Nathan Leopold Jr., Franks slayer, was involved in the prison escape plot. He said Leopold permitted himself to be confined in solitary purposely to be in position to aid the escape and that he informed the others that he had $8,000 in cash in which they would all share once they were outside.

TALK EVANSTON STREET WIDENING.

The proposed widening of Dodge avenue, Evanston, to eighty feet between King and Howard streets at a cost of $310,000 will be discussed at the meeting of the suburb's council Tuesday. The board of public improvements recently approved the widening.

BRITAIN TALKS TO CHINESE, BUT TROOPS MOVE IN

More "Defense Forces" Sail for Shanghai.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—(AP)—British troops and warships are speeding today to Shanghai, despite the fact that the Cantonese foreign minister, Eugene Chen, who offered strenuous objections to continuing negotiations with British Counselor Owen O'Malley at Hankow, if the British government's announced policy of dispatching troops to Shanghai were carried out.

Premier Baldwin in the house of commons yesterday gave assurances the British ships would not proceed to Shanghai unless an emergency arose, or unless the British representatives there advised their presence. Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, in the house today explained that the movement of the British troops from Hongkong to Shanghai was in accordance with the advice of the government's representatives in China. The responsibility of the troops, if they are landed, will be limited to the protection of the lives of British nationals.

Thus the British public has received new evidence of the rapidity with which the complex Chinese situation changes with this movement of the advance guard of the defense force. Whether the troops have been hurried north because of new threats to British interests remains obscure. The foreign office tonight professed ignorance of any sensational developments in Shanghai.

South Chinese Hit U. S. Treaty.

HANKOW, Feb. 9.—[U. N.]—South China made its first move to nullify American treaty rights when it notified the American consulate today that plaintiffs in legal actions henceforth must appear in Chinese courts unaccompanied by representatives of the American government. This was regarded as the first blow in an effort by South China to enforce its demand for abolition of special privileges to foreigners.

Reports Disorders in Yunanfu.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—(AP)—A local Chinese disorder at Yunanfu was reported to the state department today by the American consul, Cyril S. Myers, who said a plot against the Yunanese government had been discovered and that while negotiations for peaceful settlement were in progress, "fighting appears to be inevitable." Consul Myers said there were only eight Americans in Yunanfu.

Expects All to Spurn U. S.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Feb. 9.—Official information states all factions in China intend to spurn the American suggestion to neutralize Shanghai. The south will say such a procedure is incapable of good results, while Peking will not even reply. The Japanese foreign office describes the neutrality suggestion as an independent American action, not calling for Japanese backing.

Tsingtao advices say Gen. Chang Chung-chang is summarily executing many suspected red sympathizers, particularly students, who have returned from America. His unpaid soldiers are looting. The villagers in many districts are in a state of constant siege.

U. S. Plan Assailed in Italy.

ROME, Feb. 9.—(AP)—The proposal of the United States for the neutralization of the Shanghai zone is an "imperialistic gesture" intended to shift the center of the diplomatic negotiations on China from Europe to the United States, says La Tribuna, which usually speaks for the government.

REJECT WHITES' OFFER

BY JOHN POWELL.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

SHANGHAI, Feb. 9.—An unexpected result of Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg's suggestion for neutralization of the Shanghai area developed today when the Chinese Tax Payers' association rejected the foreign offer of three places on the municipal council of the international settlement to Chinese citizens. The taxpayers' association demanded that the Chinese be given nine members, thus halving the control with the foreigners.

Mr. Kellogg's proposal, which says America is willing to consider a proposition for revising the status of the international settlement, is thought to be responsible for the stiffening Chinese attitude respecting representation on the governing body.

Pay 80 Per Cent of Taxes.

Following the riots of May 30, 1925 the foreign taxpayers approved a scheme for the election of three Chinese to the municipal council, which now contains nine foreigners—two Americans, one Japanese, and six British. The Chinese then designated the offer as a "mere sop to the Chinese, who pay more than eighty per cent of the local taxes, but have no voice in the administration of the international settlement."

As a result of the action of the Chinese, the section was deadlocked for nearly two years, the foreigners continuing to have exclusive control and alleging the Chinese were unreasonable in demanding joint control.

Meantime, the Shanghai French concession, adjoining the international settlements, was reorganized, its municipal council granting the Chinese joint control, thus aggravating the situation in the international concession, where the Chinese population of approximately 1,000,000 has no voice in the municipal affairs.

British Push Troops On.

Although the Sino-British negotiations have been resumed at Hankow, it was announced today that the British second battalion of the Gloucestershire regiment, numbering 1,000 men, was sailing from Hongkong for Shaghai this afternoon, while the British first cruiser squadron, consisting of the Frobisher, Delhi, Dauntless and Danae arrived at Hongkong from Singapore.

The Italians also announced the dispatch of a cruiser with 1,500 marines to Shanghai, Premier Mussolini declaring simultaneously that Italy wholeheartedly suported the British position.

336 TOWNS JOIN MOVE FOR HOME RULE IN ILLINOIS

Favors Law for Optional Control of Utilities.

BY JOHN HERRICK.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Delegates from 336 cities and villages of Illinois, representing 70 per cent of the state's population, attended the convention of the Illinois Municipal league here today, and took steps to throw off the domination of the Illinois commerce commission and to form an alliance against the public utilities.

The league's executive committee approved legislation giving municipalities optional home rule over public utilities.

The full convention later listened to Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch of Chicago describe the need of such home rule as critical and advocate the bill recently presented in the Illinois house by David H. McCluggage of Peoria.

Hear Plea of Busch.

They listened, too, to G. T. Liddell, corporation counsel of Rockford, who proposed the formation of a committee to represent the league before the commerce commission, in order to offset the advantages of large resources and of limitless time to prepare evidence which the utilities now enjoy.

"As far as the municipalities are concerned, the present state public utilities laws are not working satisfactorily," said Mr. Busch. "They are not furnishing adequate protection. Virtually every municipality which appears before the Illinois commerce commission comes away dissatisfied. Though it has such a right, the commission initiates few investigations. It sits as a court."

Mr. Busch did not blame the commission, which, he explained, was overworked. He described the advantage, which a utility corporation enjoyed of enormous financial strength, of being able to hire the best lawyers and experts and of being able to spend months and years in working up its case for presentation.

One Side Has All the Money.

"The cities, on the other hand, are broke," declared Mr. Busch. "They have no money to pay lawyers $200 and $300 per day over a period of months. Nor are they given more than a few weeks to prepare their side. The result is that the utility furnishes the best evidence and the commission is bound to decide on the evidence. And on appeal it is the utility which presents the better record."

The corporation counsel referred to the effect the Supreme court decisions in the Atwood and Northern Trust company cases had had in taking from municipalities all control over safety measures and in placing jurisdiction in all cases involving the tens of thousands of grade crosings in the hands of the commission.

"To place such control in the hands of one body and expect that body to handle the cases effectively is as absurd as requiring one judge to handle all the litigation in Cook county," said Mr. Busch. "A grade crossing case, for example, could and should be handled by a city council or village board in two or three sessions."

Police Find Beggar by Day Is Gay Night Club Spender

New York, Feb. 9.—[U.N.]—Beggar by day and a night club spender by night was the rôle played by Michael Weiymere, detectives charge, until his arrest today for begging. According to the detectives, Welymore, who is 36, had a private suite at the Hotel Pennsylvania, where he took the profits of his begging each night and changed to semi-formal attire for an evening of gayety along Broadway. He was arrested today posing as a one-legged beggar outside a subway station.

Council Votes for Home Rule Ballot at Mayoralty Election

"Home rule over public utilities" adorned a new battle flag that flew over the Democratic mayoralty camp last night.

Mayor Dever hoisted it yesterday at a meeting of the city council when he pushed through a resolution aimed to submit home rule to a referendum at the mayoral election on April 5.

The proposed question, to be marked "yes" or "no," in substance will be: "Shall Chicago adopt article 6, section 85, of the Illinois commerce act, which provides for a partial transfer of utility control from the state commerce commission to municipal agencies."

McCluggage Bill Indorsed.

In connection with the resolution, calling for circulation of referendum petitions, the council indorsed the McCluggage bill, strengthening local control once it is obtained.

The movement throughout bore the Dever insignia. It was started by Corporation Counsel Busch. Ald. R. A. Woodhull, the mayor's floor leader, introduced the resolution. And Mr. Dever heads the committee to put it into effect. There was no denial when Ald. A. F. Albert, who fought the measure, termed it "a campaign issue, pure and simple."

"Why all this bunk about a referendum?" Ald. Albert demanded. "Any sane man knows the people of Chicago want home rule, and still you want to make it a slogan for another ballyhoo campaign."

Albert Defends Durso Bill.

The "honest and direct way" to proceed, he argued, would be to put through in the legislature the Durso bill, which provides for local control in transit matters.

"Do you think the Durso bill has a chance to pass?" asked Ald. O. F. Nelson.

"Yes, I do," retorted Albert. "We can go to Springfield and whip them on it. It will give us traction relief by July 1 and we won't get it for years otherwise."

In reply, Ald. Woodhull declared there is no hope for Chicago without support from downstate cities which have indorsed the McCluggage bill through the Illinois Municipal league. The Durso bill is all right, he said, but he pointed out that the city must take what it has a chance to get.

After a half hour of stormy debate, Mayor Dever explained in detail the advantages of the McCluggage bill. A vote a few minutes later was overwhelmingly for the Woodhull resolution.

What Changes are Sought.

Under the terms of article 6 as it now stands, the petitions for a referendum must bear the signatures of 25 per cent of the city's registered voters, or about 180,000. The committee assigned to circulate them is composed of Mayor Dever, Mr. Busch, Ald. Jacob Arvey, Guy Guernsey, Joseph McDonough, John Clark, and R. A. Woodhull, and Julius Rosenwald, Walter F. Dodd, Ernst Freund, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Henry P. Chandler, Victor Olander, and U. S. Schwartz.

Even if the proposal does win a majority of all votes cast, as required, and local utility commissions are set up, it was explained, their decisions may be appealed to the commerce commission for final action.

It is these features in the utilities act that the McCluggage bill seeks to modify. If this measure is adopted, it was said, municipalities may obtain the referendum by petition of only 2 per cent of the voters at any election and the appeal provision will be nullified.

BILL BARRING PISTOLS FROM MAILS SIGNED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—President Coolidge today signed the Miller bill barring pistols from the United States mails. Dealers, commissioned peace officers, the army, navy, marine corps, and watchmen sworn in as deputies or special police are allowed to receive weapons through the mails under regulations to be prepared by the postmaster general.

All other persons will be subject to a fine of not less than $1,000 or two years' imprisonment, or both, if found guilty of violation of the law. The act, which does away with the "mail order" pistol, is expected to make it much more difficult for gunmen to obtain weapons.

Brothers Held for Arson in Tailor Shop Blaze

Joseph Schiro, 357 Hills street, and his brother Michael, owners of the Modern Clothing company, Division street and Clybourn avenue, which was destroyed by fire Tuesday night, were formally charged yesterday at the Hudson avenue station with arson. They were released on $5,000 bonds each for their appearance in the Chicago avenue court today. After the fire, which caused a loss of $30,000, firemen discovered two empty cans of highly inflammable insect exterminator along with two spraying machines.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded, if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.—(Adv.)

COUNCILMEN FAIL TO GET ACTION ON FOUR YEAR BILL

Appear in Senate, but Are Disappointed.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Following an unsuccessful effort to resurrect from committee the bill aimed to give Chicago councilmen a four year term of office, Ald. Jacob M. Arvey, spokesman for those seeking the extension, furnished a new description of the Illinois senate.

"As a legislative body," he said with a laugh, "it's a great basketball team —waste basket, I mean."

He and Ald. A. J. Horan were on hand to witness the efforts of Senators John T. Denvir and Thomas J. Courtney to get the measure back on the floor so it might have a chance for enactment in time for a referendum on Feb. 22; and they confessed that the defense of the Barr senate organization was impregnable.

Lacked Three Votes.

Senator Denvir moved to recall the bill. He and other aldermanic sympathizers could count two more votes than they had on the first tilt, and a majority of those present, the roll call standing 23 to 20.

Thereupon an organization spokesman reminded Denvir that a senate rule required him to have 26 votes, a majority of the senators elected, to win his point. The bill was left in the municipalities committee.

Senator Richard J. Barr, whose leadership settled the issue for the time being, insisted that if the aldermen are sincere in contending that the four year term is a good thing for Chicago, they will attempt to work out an acceptable bill even if it doesn't benefit the members of the council to be elected this spring. He explained a willingness to join in the attempt.

To Consider Dailey Bill.

Upon the motion of the author, Senator John Dailey's resolution for the appointment of a special joint committee to reapportion the state in obedience to the constitution and on the basis of the census was made a special order of business for next Wednesday.

The house received in a bill introduced by E. A. W. Johnson of Chicago a measure which has the backing of the Cook county board. Drawn up by J. Scott Matthews, head of the Cook county Torrens systems, the bill would give the county power to institute suit to confiscate in cases where the taxes on real estate have not been paid for two years, and to take full title at the end of an additional two year period of grace.

A bill to amend the teachers' pension act, introduced by Representative James A. Steven of Chicago, would give teachers over 60 years of age and of twenty-five years' service the right to retire and receive a pension. The annuity would vary with the age on retirement, the rate for the age of 60 being set by the bill at $700 a year and increasing to $1,500 at the age of 70.

Two bills making it illegal for any person except peace officers and special police to possess machine guns, were introduced. One by Ralph H. Hoar of Elgin fixed a penalty of life imprisonment; the other, by W. B. Phillips of Mount Vernon, stipulated a penalty of from three to ten years.

TEXAN HELD ON RUM CHARGE.

Thomas P. "Preacher" Turner of Dallas, Tex., waived examination on charges of violating the prohibition act yesterday and was held by United States Commissioner Henry C. Beitler to the federal grand jury in bonds of $3,000.

LA FOLLETTEITE SPURNS G. O. P. OLIVE BRANCH

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Representative George J. Schneider [Rep., Wis.], one of the Wisconsin insurgent Republicans, responded to the peace overtures of the house Republican leaders today with a flat refusal to participate in the regular organization caucus scheduled for Feb. 21. While none would discuss his plans, it is expected that the other members of the Wisconsin delegation will take an equally defiant stand.

The La Folletteites were shorn of their choice committee assignments and seniority rights by the Republican majority as a punishment for following the late Senator La Follette in the third party movement in 1924.

The Rabbit and the Guinea-Pig.

Prof. Unna, a dermatologist of note (ask your doctor about him) was the first to discover the microbic and contagious nature of dandruff. His discovery was verified by Dr. Sabouraud of Paris, who with human dandruff flakes, caused a rabbit to lose its fur. It was further verified by Doctors Lassar and Bishop who took dandruff scales from a student who was losing his hair, and having made a pomade of them with vaseline rubbed the same upon a guinea pig and the pig became bald. These experiments prove conclusively that to save the hair DANDRUFF must be checked. Newbro's Herpicide was made for this particular purpose and even the first application will offer convincing proof of its unusual merit as a hair saver. It relieves itching of the scalp almost instantly. Begin its use to-day.

THIS IS WALGREEN'S FLU-PREVENTION WEEK

Guard against every possibility of "Flu!"—beware of Colds

COLDS—so easy to catch at this time of year—often develop into serious conditions if neglected. The alarmingly high number of "Flu" cases reported in recent weeks make it folly to regard colds lightly.

Get rid of them before they get under way—before they have a chance to cause harm.

Walgreen Co., in its endeavor to check the spread of "Flu," recommends NOZOL, a most effective protection. This recommendation results from NOZOL'S singular success last fall during Cold-Prevention Week.

NOZOL breaks up head colds quickly by clearing the nasal passages of harmful germs. In doing this it serves as stubborn opposition to the entry of "Flu" germs into the system.

The very low price of NOZOL and the invaluable protection it affords make it false economy to be without it.

SENATOR BORAH AS DEUCES WILD.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university recently offered two subjects for thought to the Republican party. One was that President Coolidge was too much of a traditionalist to consider a third term, and that of course it was impossible to think of his reëlection as anything other than the gift of a third term. Dr. Butler thought that the President would take counsel of his predecessors and that the Republican national convention would be obliged to seek another candidate.

Dr. Butler had been talking with the President shortly before he expressed this opinion, but if it had inspiration before the utterance it seemed to lack authority afterward. What emanated from the White House subsequently was a most profound silence. The silent man in the White House is the favorite American tradition of their President in a national crisis. In this case it is not indicated that it was the silence which gave consent. Dr. Butler may have been taking something on himself.

His other subject for thought was that prohibition could not be dodged in either party national convention for this election. It was, he said, the great political issue, and it had to be faced. The parties had to find their positions and occupy them, make their pledges, and go to the people with them.

Senator Borah regards this second topic as important. He may regard also the other subject as at least interesting, but we have not seen any comment he may have made on it. With respect to prohibition Mr. Borah wrote to Dr. Butler that he agreed with him in believing that the issue must be met. Mr. Borah is a dry. Dr. Butler is a wet.

"The Republican party," he wrote, "should unmistakably declare itself upon this question. The voters who make up the party should have an opportunity to speak. In order to achieve this the issue should be presented in the respective states and districts prior to the election of delegates so that delegates may be elected in accordance with the popular vote."

Senator Borah informed Dr. Butler that he would be glad to arrange such a campaign with him and with others who adhered to his view of prohibition to carry the issue into the states after March 4, when congress will end and the senator will be free to leave Washington.

We suspect that if the Republican managers could take Senator Borah and Dr. Butler into custody they would isolate them as if they had political smallpox. The party has given many indications that it is dry. It contains some prominent wets, such as Wadsworth of New York, Edge of New Jersey, and Longworth of Ohio. Nevertheless, it is by all apparent signs and doctrines dry, but also apparently addicted to the doctrine that prohibition is something a polite convention does not discuss. A Democratic national convention is always more open to a good fight. It yields to the attractiveness of one and disregards the consequences. If Mr. McAdoo and Mr. Brennan want another in the next convention they will not be denied it, if Mr. McAdoo can get into the convention. But the Republicans have a more prudent thought in their convention management. They do not believe that it is inherently desirable to take a party out of the convention hall in pieces.

When Mr. Borah proposes that the preconvention campaign be devoted to making prohibition an issue in every state and bringing in delegates instructed one way or the other he becomes again what he sometimes is in party councils, deuces wild. Prohibition is the great political issue before the American people, but even the Democrats do not know how to handle it. Their wets are confident and secure in their constituencies, but they have not been able to get their doctrines into the party platform, and there is no indication that they will have any better luck next time. The Republicans probably will be willing to make a casual point of the fidelity of the party to the country's laws and declare the party belief that all citizens should give their respect and obedience, but what the management does not want is Senator Borah's program of selecting convention delegates on the wet and dry issue.

Proposals for a political sounding of the American people on this question are all tinged with futility, valid as the issue is. Plans for a national referendum lack the machinery required to obtain such a vote. A nation-wide delegate campaign also lacks it. The people of the congressional districts are able to send members of the house representatives to vote for them, wet or dry, and the states can register their opinions in wet or dry senators, but when there is an attempt to get this national political issue into national political action in an election the attempt breaks down before it can get started.

AN AGRICULTURAL MART.

Mr. Hurley's inclusion in the plans for a centennial exposition of a great permanent agricultural building is to our mind the most commendable of the recommendations. It would be a strange celebration of Chicago's greatness that did not put agriculture to the fore. Chicago is the child of agriculture and transportation. Its roots are deep in the rich soil of the great valley and prairies. It is the greatest of the products of the western farm.

Col. Skinner, the able secretary and leading spirit of the American Dairy association, was the first to propose a "temple to agriculture" in Chicago, his idea being in essentials similar to Mr. Hurley's. Its revival is welcome and timely, and we trust that it will not be allowed to lapse. The great commercial, industrial, financial, and civic organizations of Chicago should see that it does not. Whatever the fate of the proposed centennial, the agricultural mart should be realized and established on the most liberal and permanent basis.

Mr. Hurley's conception is highly practical. The institution would be a most valuable addition to the educational facilities of the progressive farmer. It would offer opportunities for study of machinery and of business method. Agricultural colleges would find its resources an important adjunct. Farm organizations could use it for their central meeting places and it would serve as a great clearing house for ideas. At the same time it would impress the city business man and the city dweller with the importance of agriculture and its problems of progress.

ARE WE BREEDING THEM YELLOW?

Fielding H. Yost of Michigan football is quoted in a Liberty magazine article as saying: "Look over the records of Camp, Lamar, Bailey, Jones, Coolidge, Way, Heston, Booth, Bliss, Baker, Findlay, Ames. Then look over the lineups of the teams of today. The sons of old American stock aren't on the field; they're in the stands, in coonskin coats. They are too soft for the game their daddies played. They will not sacrifice and drudge and work for the honor and love of school. They are leaving that to the boys of foreign parents."

Twenty and thirty years ago the boys of families who were seeking new fortunes in the United States were not ready to go to college. The new fortunes had not reached the point which made it possible in many cases. The colleges and universities were not so large nor were the college populations. Now the new elements of American citizenship are in the schools.

The new stock affords good sturdy material. Mr. Yost has particular advantages for observation, but possibly he's more impatient than analytical. The old American stock does not exclusively furnish the student bodies and it is the best thing for the nation that it does not. Consequently it will not exclusively furnish the athletic material of the colleges and again it is a good thing that it does not.

Yost has an interesting lineup with Molenda, Oosterbaan, Friedman, etc. Walter Eckersall's all-conference team was Oosterbaan, Raskowski, Shively, Reitsch, Johnson, Wheeler, Friedman, Baker, Karow, Joesting. The melting pot was there, but not all the old stock was in coonskins in the stands. His all-American team was Oosterbaan, Wickhorst, Shively, Boeringer, Connaughton, Smith, Hanson, Baker, Kaer, Joesting, a fair cross section of the country's youth.

The Yale touchdown against Harvard was made by Sturhahn, the Harvard touchdown against Yale by Saltonstall. Saltonstall, for whatever it is worth, is of the eighth generation of the family at Harvard. If the old American stock has gone to adenoids, cigarets and vocal calisthenics, there's just as much reason for regret as there would be if the new stock couldn't make good. If twenty or thirty years can send a generation from the field to the stands because of character degeneration, then a similar period can send another generation there for the same reason. If the effect of American life is to take the sturdiness out of boys that will not be the consequence merely with the old timers.

Mr. Yost says that after a generation of college sports, including football, the old stock American boy is not what his father was, which seems to leave something for college sport and the directors of it to explain, if it is true. Has it been vainly imagined that part of the purpose of college sport was to teach a boy that even if he did not happen to be big as a house he needn't be yellow?

Editorial of the Day

THE PRICE OF THE "PERFECT CRIME."

[Davenport Daily Times.]

William N. Coffey, confessed slayer of his bigamous wife, is expected to be on his way within a few hours to the Wisconsin state prison, sentenced to remain there the rest of his life.

The wheels of justice were speeded when the Madison bond salesman and lay preacher waived all rights. Had he possessed the means to finance a defense, a plea of insanity would have delayed conviction for months at least.

This unctuous individual pays the penalty for failure to execute the "perfect crime." Many will regret that the Wisconsin law does not prescribe the sentence of death. A murder perpetrated in cold blood for mercenary purposes, particularly when the victim is a woman who has been decoyed into a bigamous marriage, warrants the most drastic punishment.

Sentimentalists oppose the death penalty on the same grounds that they protest the third degree, yet it was only the persistent questioning of the suspected slayer that brought out the shocking story.

We hold no brief for police methods by which, through cruelty, some sort of confession is wrung out of a mind crazed by torture. The third degree as applied to Coffey vindicates its use within proper limits. It was only through the relentless questioning that officers were able to punch holes in the defense which Coffey imagined to be air tight. Sufficient basis existed for the belief that the man had done away with the wealthy woman with whom he had so recently been joined in wedlock.

He could be held for an explanation of her whereabouts and, as the inquisition proceeded, discrepancies in his story developed. He first confessed that he killed the woman accidentally, and when that evasion failed, broke down and confessed the exact manner of her death.

Truth will out, and the more elaborated upon is a lie the more vulnerable it is to attack.

SOMETHING NEW FOR CONVALESCENTS.

THE Dutch have hit upon something new in the way of convalescent hospitals. They have been working the scheme now for nearly four years and they like it.

The Dutch are naturally a thrifty people, both at home and abroad, and the plan meets their approval because it is cheap as well as effective. It costs about one-sixth as much to care for a convalescent their way as it does to give him care in a hospital.

They are a solid, level-headed, practical people, interested in health and physical vigor. They and their relatives, the Danes, have about the lowest death rates in Europe. They have lower rates than the Russians to the east of them, the Germans to the south of them, and the Belgians and French to the west of them. They like the plan because it is effective as well as not wasteful.

In May, 1923, the Dutch Red Cross established a convalescent home in a corner of a public park in Amsterdam. The following September they established another on an old man-of-war, which was out of date for fighting purposes. Now they have an Association of Convalescent Homes in Public Parks, in which several such institutions are represented.

The first one, in Amsterdam, consists of a cheap wooden hut, built on the American "lean-to" principle. It is open on one side and has a veranda. Thirty occupants are accommodated. In addition to the patients' bed and sitting space there is an office, a kitchen, cloak room, bathroom and an isolation cubicle. The space is fenced off from other park space by shrubs.

The patients come from their homes in the morning and remain throughout the day. They are supplied with the foods their health requires at the several day meal times. A certain amount of time must be spent sleeping, or otherwise at rest. Exposure to sunlight for a certain period is a requirement. The home is visited daily by a physician, and there is a whole-day staff, consisting of a nurse, a kitchen maid and one other attendant.

When a home is made available for children of school age a teacher conducts open air classes. Milk and bread make up a good part of the diet, especially that of children.

The cost of maintenance is carried on in several ways. The park boards furnish the space, the city council makes an appropriation, the Red Cross is a source of funds, and individuals contribute. The patients pay as much as they can.

"OUR FILTHY PIGEONS."

A. W. B. writes: Please write in your column what you think of the filthy pigeons from a sanitary standpoint and also from the standpoint of damage they do to buildings.

Isn't there some law that could be invoked that will rid the city of them? Here's luck to the hawks.

P. S.: You know, I could actually offer that editor a bottle of whisky half filled with wood alcohol for offering fifty dollars to kill the hawk!

REPLY:

As you say, pigeons roosting under the eaves of buildings do not add to the cleanliness of the outside of buildings, nor that of the sidewalks. They occasionally stop gutters.

Birds spread some verminous insects. They are supposed to spread some diseases which attack lower animals. I think, however, that is about as much of a case as can be made out against birds and not all of it applies to pigeons.

IMPLIED RENEWAL OF LEASE.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—The lease I have on my apartment expired last May 1. Shortly before that date the property changed hands. When May first rolled around the owner did not insist on a new lease. Instead, he raised my rent, saying at the time that I could stay as long as I liked. Can I now leave the place by giving thirty days' notice? T. J.

It seems probable that you are subject to renewal by implication so that you cannot leave until the end of the year and then only upon sixty days' notice.

JUDGMENT FIRST.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My employer received a garnishment notice against my wages Jan. 15, 1927, from a credit store to whom I refused to make further payments because of incorrect statements, but they did not get a judgment against me. My employer has refused to pay me any part of my wages since Jan. 15th upon grounds of garnishment notice. I handed in my resignation Jan. 26th. Still my employer refused to pay me.

1. Can this credit store collect without getting judgment against me?
2. Can employer hold my wages after notice of my resignation?
3. Am I not entitled to at least $15.00 a week of my wages?
4. What steps must I take to get my wages in full or part thereof? H. M.

1. No. Service of a garnishment notice before getting judgment against you is improper. We suggest that you notify your employer that if he does not disregard this invalid notice and pay you, you will sue him for your wages and attorney fees, which an Illinois statute authorizes to be recovered upon suit for wage claims.
3. Yes.
4. See 2.

PERILS OF MOVING.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—What steps can a person take to recover the value of articles lost from a dray when household goods are being moved from one location to another in the city? The dray man claims to have no responsibility for the goods although he was told at the time he brought the articles in that some were missing. M. S.

He is liable unless he can show that the loss occurred without his fault. If the amount involved is substantial you should employ an attorney.

SOAP BY THE WHOLESALE.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—An importer imports some soap and jobs it through jobbers in packages under a trades name. They also job the same product in bulk lots of 100 pounds. Would it be lawful to buy in the bulk and repack in cartons of your own name and trade name? H. F. S.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

FEBRUARY 10, 1862.

WASHINGTON.—A dispatch directing Gens. Halleck and Buell to coöperate in the movements on the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers was sent from here about three weeks ago, a few days after Stanton's appointment as secretary of war, signed by President Lincoln and Stanton, but not by McClellan or any other military functionary.

FORT MONROE.—A lady who came by flag of truce said that Gen. Huger informed her that he had received a dispatch from Roanoke island stating that the federal forces had twice been repulsed there. The fight began yesterday forenoon and was still going on.

CINCINNATI.—A dispatch to the Commercial says Gen. Thomas' division is reported to have made a forward movement and will invade east Tennessee at three different points simultaneously. Gen. Carter goes through Cumberland Gap; Gen. Schoepff by the central route, and Gen. Thomas will cross at Mill Spring. They will advance immediately on Knoxville.

FORT HENRY.—The amount of property captured from the rebels when this fort was taken by Commodore Foote will exceed $1,000,000. Some reporters have sent their news from here under the changed title of Fort Foote. Although Flag Officer Foote is highly deserving of this honor, Gen. McClernand exceeded his power in attempting to change the name. It is still Fort Henry.

CHICAGO.—The lowest temperature for the last week was on Tuesday, Feb. 4, when the mercury fell to six above. The warmest day was Wednesday with 40 above.

CHICAGO.—The Rev. Samuel Wolcott, late of this city, was installed as pastor of the Plymouth church at Cleveland on last Wednesday.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

FEBRUARY 10, 1902.

PATERSON, N. J. — Twenty-six blocks of the city's best buildings in ruins, including practically every important public structure, five churches, scores of store and office buildings, and 500 residences and apartment structures is the result of a fire that started shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss is estimated at $10,000,000 and more than 1,000 families are homeless. Many are reported missing and it is feared some have perished. The flames started in a car barn and were swept across the city by a fierce northerly gale. Martial law has been proclaimed.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Eleven persons were killed and eight were seriously hurt in a fire which destroyed the Empire hotel. Guests who escaped in their night clothing were badly frozen.

CHICAGO.—For the third time in fifteen months fire attacked the Orpheum theater building in Washington street and this time seriously damaged it. It was rumored two women perished. Seven persons were injured. The loss was $75,000.

NEW YORK.—Fire destroyed pier G of the Lehigh Valley railroad with a loss of $250,000.

ELBERTON, Ga.—Fire destroyed nearly all the business section of this place, causing a loss of $100,000.

CHICAGO.—A street car at 69th and Vincennes avenue crashed into the flower carriage of the funeral procession of the nine members of the Trostel family killed in the Archer avenue explosion on Feb. 5 and three persons were injured.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

FEBRUARY 10, 1917.

BERLIN.—Passports for Ambassador Gerard and all his staff were delivered at the American embassy by the German foreign office. At about the same time the German government was officially informed by the Spanish ambassador that Count von Bernstorff will sail from the United States for Halifax on next Tuesday.

LONDON.—The number of ships reported sunk by German submarines yesterday was only six, the smallest number by far reported on any day of the blockade. This makes 71 vessels sunk since the new German order went into effect on Feb. 1.

WASHINGTON.—President Wilson and his cabinet decided that no "overt act" was committed by Germany in sinking the California and the Turino such as would warrant further action against the Berlin government.

NEW YORK.—Two steamships flying the American flag will sail tomorrow for a port in the war zone despite Germany's submarine warfare and the warning to American ships to keep out of the danger zone.

CHICAGO.—William Buford Carlile, for many years a prominent life insurance company official and identified with large financial undertakings, was nominated by President Wilson to be postmaster at Chicago. His selection came as a surprise to the Illinois delegation in Washington. Dispatches from the capital say that the appointment is a jolt for both Postmaster General Burleson and Senator James Hamilton Lewis. Mr. Carlile was born in Kentucky in 1870. Although a Democrat, he has never been identified actively with Chicago politics.

ON A PANTRY.

(For Virginia.)

Her pantry was her poem
And I saw how it could be,
What with earthenware and china . . .
A very poetry.
Crocks make an ideal epic
If you've ever seen them on
A pantry shelf a-sunning
In a warm midwestern sun.
Little crystal goblets
Like fat Bohemian men,
And gooseberries and currants
Compressed into a jam,
Are quick as any lyric,
As magic as a word;
A spoon can tell a story
Quicker than a sword.

Her pantry was a poem
One might be jealous of . . .
There's poetry in pewter

DAVID SORTOR.

LAST NIGHT, from 10:30 to midnight, was Linebook Nite over W-G-N. It was a splendid program and delighted everybody who had the good fortune to listen in. Dennis King was a magnificent Romeo in the Balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," and Miss Daisy Belmore's golden voice spoke lovingly the lines of Juliet. Snowshoe Al made a profound impression upon the voters in his first speech in the whirlwind campaign he is conducting for senator. Duke Bakrak was irresistible as a campaign manager, and George Carroll, Dorothy Aldis, and Billy D. read their poems with great feeling. Concialdi never sang with greater fervor than last night, and Isaac Van Grove was incomparable at the piano. And we must say that this Col. Con. was an extremely amusing announcer and made Bill Hay, the regular W-G-N impresario, worry about his job. (How did we manage to get such a splendid report on last night's performance when Hank put the column to bed at six o'clock? Ah, we had presence of mind. We wrote it yesterday afternoon.)

It Must Be Hard to Cheer for Him.

Dick: Are you sure that Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogogoch is the name of a village in Wales? Sounds to me more like the last name of one of Michigan's All American football team. KEYSTONE.

Norman, See Below.

Dick: Don't you think that a girl that can make better muffins than fudge is worth hanging on to? I claim she's a rarity in this day of jazz, flappers, shebas et al. Her Christmas present wasn't bad, Dick, but she didn't go wild over it and I'm worried. Here's a five spot for a Deluxer for her Valentine, but it won't be worth a hang to her if Dinny King doesn't autograph it for her. I told her I had a drag and it might be done, so don't force me into the Liah club. BIG HEARTED NORM.

NORMAN, you with the big heart, we have your five, we have Dinny's signature, but you forgot your address—what to do?

Maybe That's Why They Gave Her the Ax.

RHL: The tale is told of the English teacher in one of the schools here who, after a lengthy denunciation of the slang currently in vogue, turned to one of the pupils and said: "Barbara, you may now tell me in what year the Lady Jane Gray came to her death and HOW!" JAZBO OF OLD DUBUQUE.

A GANG LEADER in jail down in Harrisburg, Ill., had the presence of mind to take his machine gun with him into his cell and sits with it, all loaded and everything, in his lap. That's probably why gangsters use machine guns in Illinois instead of light field pieces or Big Berthas. You can take a machine gun right into your cell. Out in this neck of the woods home is where the machine gun is.

More Generalities.

Damn! I knew I had some other generality in mind. Here it is: Did you ever notice how full of negations is the speech and writing of any young person? There are all sorts of nos, nevers, and other unequivocal negatives. Only young people are able to say "no" after the grand manner. Only young people are able to renounce, even theoretically. They have, you see, so many alternatives in mind. As they grow older they cling and crawl, dissemble and equivocate. They have by slow process discovered one by one their painful limitations and are grateful for the few things that are left. DOROTHE.

Oh, My Gosh, We Will.

Dick: Me, too! Even if I do need a haircut, a marcel and a manicure, Dickie boy, the enclosed five dollars is going to buy one of those deluxe Linebooks in its swanky little gold box, and if you don't get Dinny King to autograph mine, too, I'll—I'll—I'll come up to your office and weep all over the place! I will! LUCIA.

THERE'S ANOTHER revolution in Portugal. We cannot find out whether or not this is the regular February revolution or whether it's the first of a special series.

What Price Story!

RHL: Aimee, at her Chicago premiere, thus stated: "Religion is dormant largely because the preachers themselves are not quickened to the value of the commodity they are trying to sell." Well, let it never be said that SHE wasn't "quickened" when she signed to write a series of sermons for fifty thousand dollars. RAZZO THE RAZBO.

He Was, Indeed, in Luck.

RHL: A Chicago gentleman complains that when he asked his wife for some spending money, after she had taken complete charge of their seventy-five thousand dollar bank account, she hit him over the head with a telephone, struck him with a paper weight, and fired two shots at him. It's a good thing he let it go at that or she might have lost her temper and done something real mean. J. O'D.

WHAT'S THE MATTER? President Nicholas Murray Butler declared last Monday that Cal would not be a candidate for President again on account of the third term bugaboo. We have been waiting ever since for Cal to send the marines to land on Nicholas Murray Butler's neck. R. H. L.

A REPLY FROM UNCLE SOL.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—In your editorial of today's issue you attempt to burlesque the practice or the policy of public officials who express themselves in ultra-warm terms toward those who trust and honor them. You seek to impugn the motives of the men who speak to their fellow-men in terms of affection, irrespective of whether they are moved to do so by grateful hearts or designing minds, and you seem to regret that, under such circumstances, "not enough people hurry down the next street." You make me (and, incidentally, some of the favored or unfavored sons of your own state) the theme of your homily.

You are in error in referring to me as having "put a sign over his office door, 'Uncle Sol, Your State Treasurer, Welcomes You.'" I did not conceive, order, pay for, or put up such a sign. A private citizen and friend—who is not of my faith, but who is dearer to me than many who are—conceived the idea of putting such a sign on the inner door of my office during the inaugural ceremony of our state officials, with the thought of removing it shortly afterward. So that in this instance, at least, the "warm sentiment" and the "broad sympathy" and the "ample nature" and the "warm heart" and the "noble purposes" were displayed by a private citizen toward a public official, and not by the official toward the citizen. But if the reverse were true, a sincere intent in that respect by those who seek to serve a citizenry whose government, in fact as well as in theory, should rest in their consent and love, can spell no ill either in your state or mine.

SOLOMON LEVITAN,
State Treasurer.

BEGGARS IN THE SUBWAY.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—The Illinois Central has done much for the safety and comfort of its patrons. I understand it built, owns and controls the Randolph street subway and the extension thereto, a great convenience. Why can not the railroad go a step further and eliminate the nuisance of the beggars who infest the subway, particularly during the rush hours when the passageway is none too wide to accommodate the hurrying throngs? A COMMUTER.

RADIO PROGRAMS HEARD WHILE TELEPHONING.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—While calling a firm whose offices are directly across the street from the Drake hotel, and while waiting for an answer to my call after the number had been given to the operator, but before she rang, I heard what was unmistakably a radio program. The same day while calling from a different office, but in the same building from which the first call was made, I had the same experience. In the latter case I had called an office located in the London Guarantee and Accident building, and, on this occasion, after giving my number, the operator did not ring it and so, for several minutes, I was able to listen to a jazz orchestra. This music came in clear enough, through the telephone receiver, so as I was able to distinguish several of the words given by the announcer at the conclusion of the piece.

Is there any technical or scientific verification of this statement?

GEORGE H. FRANCIS.

UP WENT THE BRIDGE.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Yesterday while a devastating conflagration was in progress, fire engines came dashing up Jackson boulevard. Just before they reached the bridge a boat came along and whistled. Up went the bridge, effectively blocking the fire fighters.

Millions of dollars are lost to this city annually through the asinine habit of allowing coalboats, mud scows and derricks to hold up traffic when they could crawl up and down the river at night instead of the busy hours of day.

A. D. NORTH.

LEIF'S GREATNESS.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—THE TRIBUNE editorial on Leif Erickson in connection with the naming of the new South Shore drive does not put his picture in the right frame.

Leif Erickson is mentioned as a Norwegian. He was born on the island of Iceland about the year 970. His father was a Norwegian and was married in Iceland, which was at that time a self-governing republic. In the year 986 the family went from Iceland to Greenland where they founded an important self-governing democracy on the southwest coast. They adopted the Christian religion, built several churches, and in 1126, being 310 years before the birth of Columbus, the settlement had about 3,000 people and the first bishop of Greenland, named Arnold, was appointed. The records of this Christian community are in the archives of the Church of Rome and do not depend on the Icelandic sagas for substantiation. The Greenland settlements thrived largely on fishing, trapping and trading with the natives in those parts. The black plague of the 14th century all but exterminated the Greenland settlements. The survivors were frightened and went towards the west, leaving cattle and other property behind.

They might have formed lasting settlements of white people on the Atlantic seaboard of North America if they had had the advantage of firearms, which just appeared in the world in time for the subsequent ventures of Columbus. From Norway to the western settlement of Greenland is about 1,700 miles measured on the polar circle. From there to Baffin Island's American shoreline is about 200 miles, which they easily sailed with fair breeze in twenty-four hours.

Four hundred years of daring activities in the Greenland settlements during the dark middle ages constitute the first chapter of American history. Leif Erickson flew the colors of the Republic of Iceland adopted for the Greenland republic; Columbus flew the royal colors of Spain. His name has been given to parks, buildings and public places. It is, of course, not only proper, but even just that Leif Erickson, representing the republics of Iceland and of Greenland, should be publicly honored in commemorating the discovery and settlement of America. SUNRISE.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—The outer drive is a Chicago affair, and it should be given a name in which every Chicagoan could take pride and delight. As I understand it, there will be many miles along its way where an unobstructed view of our beautiful lake will be had without old unsightly buildings or smoke to obscure the view of a glorious sunrise. What name could be more appropriate or beautiful than "the Sunrise road" or "Sunrise drive"? It should be dedicated on a summer morning with all Chicago out to see the sunrise. OLD RESIDENT.

8 NEW SCHOOLS ADDED TO 1927 BUILDING PLANS

Board Adopts 3-Story Type of Building.

Finding that an additional $4,000,000 may be applied towards the 1927 building program, the board of education yesterday included eight more elementary school buildings on its list of projects scheduled for completion this year.

With the adoption also of a three story type elementary school building to replace the present two story model, the way was cleared for actual construction to start on a large scale as soon as weather permits.

By approving the eight extra buildings, the board insured fulfillment of Supt. William McAndrew's building plan for 1927, which was regarded last summer as inordinate. It embraces ten elementary schools, four junior high schools, three senior high schools, and one addition to a special school besides many improvements to old buildings.

Sites for Eight Buildings.

The sites for the eight buildings concurred in yesterday are:

1. Newport and Central avenues.
2. Eighty-third street and Champlain avenues.
3. Montrose and Melvina avenues.
4. Pratt boulevard and Washtenaw avenue.
5. Rosemont avenue and St. Anthony's court.
6. Seventy-sixth and Lincoln streets.
7. Ninetieth and Elizabeth streets.
8. One Hundred and First street and Forest avenue.

Included also in yesterday's order was the direction to Business Manager John E. Byrnes to proceed with plans for construction of a gymnasium in the Harvard school, 7525 South Harvard avenue.

New Type Costs Less.

The three story type building was agreed upon after nearly a year's controversy. As adopted it specifies a unit consisting of seventeen class rooms, five special rooms, a gymnasium and an assembly hall. The main portion of three stories will be flanked by two story wings. According to Architect John C. Christensen, this type can be constructed at $5,000 a room less than the present type.

FARMERS BLAME STATE OFFICIALS FOR MILK CRISIS

With thousands of Illinois dairy farmers facing immediate loss of the Chicago milk market because of the state's failure to push the war on cattle tuberculosis, a meeting of the Pure Milk association, with more than 2,000 farmer members, was called for today by Will C. McQueen, its president.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, city health commissioner, on Tuesday announced that to keep the milk supply pure the city will bar all milk which does not come from cattle which have been retested for tuberculosis within six months of the last positive test, as required by law.

To Affect Thousands.

The ban already is on many herds, and within a few days, according to government figures, the total shut off will be 2,885 herds, containing 42,899 cattle, and located in Kane, Lake, McHenry, Cook, DuPage, Will and Boone counties.

When an effort was made to obtain the reason for the delay in the testing program it was learned that in each of the counties named only one veterinarian is at work. Those who could be reached yesterday declared they had too much work, and vainly had requested state officials to supply assistance.

Although the state officials, S. J. Stanard and D. W. Robison, have more than $500,000 with which to press the work, and were informed many times of conditions, they have failed to put an adequate force in the field, it was charged.

As a result, Illinois farmers stand to lose all they gained in having their herds tested six months ago. Herds which are not retested stand a chance of a new spread of infection, and the longer the retest is delayed, the more cattle will be lost, the farmers have been told.

Furthermore, the dairy farmers of Wisconsin, where the work has been pushed efficiently and forcefully, will push the Illinois farmers out of the Chicago market.

All of these matters will be discussed at the dairy farmers' meeting this morning, Mr. McQueen stated. He called to mind that Gov. Small a year ago had insisted on the state officials taking control of the work from federal veterinarians, who had waged highly successful campaigns in other states with great efficiency.

The number of herds in the various Illinois counties which are due for a retest and have not had it are given by the federal bureau of animal industry as follows:

County—	Herds.	Cattle.
Kane	390	6,453
Lake	707	10,647
McHenry	305	5,601
Du Page	450	5,214
Cook	401	5,628
Will	400	5,459
Boone	232	3,897
Totals	2,885	42,899

Nearly all the owners of these herds have been sending their milk to the Chicago market, it was stated.

Dr. J. R. Boyle, Will county, veterinarian at Joliet, stated yesterday that without a single assistant he had tested 17,500 cattle in the last year.

"Still I am swamped with more work than one man could possibly handle," Dr. Boyle said. "The state has known of our predicament, but not until yesterday did it even suggest a remedy. Now its officials say they will ask the county board to give me assistance. There has been no offer of additional veterinarians from the state department.

"There is also an enormous lot of book work which the county veterinarian has been forced to do."

"When the federal government, through Veterinarian John Lintner, had control, help was sent regularly to the coutny men," was the statement of Dr. D. C. Grinnell, veterinarian of Lake county.

Dr. W. A. Hahn, Kane county veterinarian, said the state interfered when his county had desired to hire more veterinarians, out of its own funds.

"The sums spent on retesting by the state are not large," Dr. Hahn added. "Delay means that many farmers face ruin."

Fear among farmers now is that the state legislature, informed that there is still $500,000 left of a $2,000,000 appropriation made two years ago, will not be inclined to grant another large sum. It is estimated that at least three or four million dollars additional should be provided.

WOMAN ROBBED OF $6,000 WHILE WALKING IN STORE

Rogers Park and central detail police last night were investigating the robbery of $3,500 in cash and $2,500 worth of diamonds from Mrs. Mary E. Shay, 6158 Winthrop avenue, while she walked yesterday morning in a downtown department store.

Mrs. Shay did not report the robbery either to the store officers or the downtown police, but went back to her home and told relatives, who then reported it to the Rogers Park station.

She said she was walking in a department store with the money and diamonds in her purse, that she was in several crowds and then suddenly noticed that her handbag, in which she carried the money and gems, had been snipped off the leather handle which she still held.

Mrs. Shay said the money and gems represented the parts of herself, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Florence Shay, and her daughter, Helen, in a brokerage deal that she was going to consummate with a man from Toledo, O.

STATE OFFERS 12 JURORS TO TRY FRANK McERLANE

Defense Hopes to Bar Stories of Gang Wars.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Leo Ulrich, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell by Judge William J. Lindsay.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Valparaiso, Ind., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Men who believe in the death penalty for murderers are not hard to find in this vicinity, but in addition to that they must be able to presume Frank McErlane innocent if they are to serve as jurors in his trial.

That was a difficulty facing the attorneys in Judge Harry L. Crumpacker's court today. The state of Indiana had found twelve citizens who said they would sentence McErlane to the electric chair if they find him guilty—and the state's lawyers had offered these twelve to McErlane's attorneys.

"Are you able to presume the defendant, McErlane, innocent now as you sit there and he sits there?" Attorney Ira J. Holmes asked the first juror, Charles Sheffield, a farmer.

Explains Duty of Juror.

"You know he is not required to prove his innocence, but that you must acquit him if the state doesn't prove him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt," the attorney further explained to Sheffield.

Previously Attorney Holmes, who comes from Indianapolis, and his colleagues, Attorney Joseph Conroy of Hammond and Attorney John Crumpacker of Valparaiso, explained that they feared only a prejudiced jury.

McErlane's record as a Chicago hoodlum, with a conviction as an accessory to murder, might convict him, evidence or no evidence, if the jury is permitted to hear of it, those lawyers said. The prosecutors have asked each of the prospective jurors if they knew Joe Saltis or ever heard of him.

Hope to Balk Gang Stories.

The defense counsel today were, as they talked to the jurors, explaining that Saltis is not on trial and that he has no part in the proceedings. They admitted they do not want the jurors to hear of the Saltis-McErlane gang of Chicago, which has been blamed for fifteen murders in Cook county.

Attorney Ralph N. Smith, special prosecutor, who, with State's Attorney Oliver Starr of Lake county and Attorney James F. McNeff, are the state's representatives in this trial, told each of the twelve jurors that John O'Reilly would be a witness.

"O'Reilly was convicted of the murder of Fancher and is serving a sentence of life imprisonment," Prosecutor Smith then explained.

"The law is that when two or more men go together to commit a crime and one of the men commits murder both are equally guilty.

'We claim that Fancher was killed in a holdup of a roadhouse and O'Reilly was convicted of the crime. Any one with him was guilty."

Two of the veniremen said they would mistrust O'Reilly's statements and they were excused. Others replacing them said they would weigh O'Reilly's testimony and rate it at its worth.

"You will not be prejudiced, either, against men who may come in here and say they were intoxicated at a given time or that they were at a cock fight, will you?" Attorney Holmes wanted to know when it was his turn to question the jurors.

Issues for Jury to Decide.

The state's case is that McErlane's automobile was used by the murderers, that he was seen in it immediately after the murder, and that O'Reilly confessed and implicated McErlane.

The defense has an alibi backed by about 15 witnesses that McErlane was with them at a cock fight at the Sag, near Chicago, when Fancher was slain.

Attorney Holmes, in his questions to the jurymen, said they must be extremely cautions of the testimony of an accomplice—meaning O'Reilly—and asked the jurors if they would become suspicious of McErlane if he does not testify for himself. He charged, also, in one statement that the present trial was a political issue in Indiana, and that Sheriff Ben Strong of Lake county was the cause of it.

ANDREWS SPONSORS NEW BILL TO PUT U. S. INTO LIQUOR BUSINESS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Creation of a government whisky monopoly, operating through a corporation controlled by the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of commerce, and the surgeon general, to manufacture and distribute future stocks of medicinal liquor, is proposed in a bill introduced in the house today.

The bill, introduced by Representative Hawley [Rep., Ore.], is sponsored by Dry Chief Lincoln C. Andrews, as a substitute for his earlier proposal to create a quasi-federal corporation. The first proposal was shelved by the house ways and means committee.

The new bill goes even further than the other bill to put the government into the whisky business. While it seeks to meet other objections to the original plan, it will meet the same fate, it was freely predicted tonight.

The corporation would be authorized to buy, lease, or build not more than two distilleries and fix the prices to be paid by the ultimate consumer to the retail druggist.

Doctor Cleared of Rival Physician's Plot Charge

Dr. Harry Heiss, 4753 Broadway, who was arrested following a complaint signed by Dr. E. C. Mitchell, 3179 North Clark street, who he charged had hired three men to slug him, was freed yesterday when arraigned in the Town Hall court. Dr. Heiss announced that he was going to sue Dr. Mitchell for $50,000, charging false arrest and malicious prosecution. Charges of assault against the three men will be heard on Feb. 25.

OLSON DEMANDS NEW POLICY FOR U. S. DRY AGENTS

Stresses Need for Search Warrants.

Edwin A. Olson, retiring United States district attorney, has sent a letter to E. C. Yellowley, prohibition administrator here, proposing new policies for arresting and prosecuting Volstead law violators.

The letter was a result of the dismissal of charges against A. C. Allyn, investment broker, and three others, following a raid led by Agent Frank L. White. The dropping of the case against Sam Geraci, charged with operating a still at 9342 St. Lawrence avenue, was another cause, Mr. Olson made a series of suggestions for agents.

Wants More Convictions.

This list, prepared by Assistant United States District Attorney Daniel Anderson, in charge of liquor cases, stated that stopping of violations was not as important as obtaining proper evidence so that all cases prosecuted would result in conviction.

Mr. Yellowley stated he had no controversy with Attorney Olson. The suggestions were:

Agents should not try to stop liquor violations, but obtain evidence against liquor law violators, sufficient to result in conviction.

In no cases should an agent enter a residence unless he has a search warrant.

Question all persons arrested, as frequently information may be obtained on which to gather evidence.

The number of violators prosecuted is not as important as that those prosecuted be convicted.

The persons profiting from the illicit traffic, and not the employés, should be dealt with by the law.

New Plan for Drug Stores.

In drug stores where there is a permit to handle liquor and a violation is discovered, Mr. Olson directed the agent should not make a complete search, but should leave another agent in the store until a search warrant is obtained.

In restaurants and similar places the agent, when buying liquor, was instructed to notice if the money was rung up in the cash register so that action might be taken against the owners.

Boy, 16, Shoots Stepfather; Sent to Juvenile Home

John Carfora, 16 years old, 516 South Sangamon street, was sent to the Juvenile home yesterday on a charge of attempting to kill his stepfather, Salvator Carfora, 48 years old. The boy shot him in the arm and leg because Carfora reprimanded him for not working, the stepfather said. The boy insisted his stepfather often had beaten him.

WOMAN PIONEER TO BE 100 YEARS OLD ON MONDAY

Mrs. Mary Ann Phillips, pioneer settler of Norwood Park, will round out an even century of life next Monday by celebrating her birthday anniversary and Valentine's day together as she has done for 99 years.

To her home on Phillips avenue, which was named for her as one of its first residents, will come her four sons, her twelve grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, and many old friends to wish her a happy birthday.

Born in Trowbridge, England, Mrs. Phillips came to live in Norwood Park in 1872. Her husband, William H. Phillips, died several years ago. Last year she left the old homestead on Phillips avenue and moved to the home of her son, Frank J. Phillips, who lives on the same street. Her other sons are William H. and Walter D. Phillips of Norwood Park; and James E. Phillips of Chicago.

JACKSON DETAILS PLAN TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC TIEUPS

Sends Outline to Illinois Highway Engineers.

David H. Jackson, president of the Lincoln park board, at a meeting of the commissioners yesterday made public the text of a letter to be sent to every highway engineer and county board chairman in Illinois, containing details of his plan to cure congestion of state highway traffic.

Under Mr. Jackson's plan provision is made for a viaduct over intersecting traffic arteries. Short lanes, jutting off either side of the viaduct, would be constructed to carry automobiles from one level to the other.

"A crossing so constructed will increase capacity of roads on busy days one hundred per cent more," the letter reads. "At the intersection of Devon avenue and Sheridan road in Chicago, where there is a stop light, drivers sometimes take twenty minutes to go a third of a mile. If the grades were separated they would go the same distance in one minute, escaping the constant, irritating stops.

Cost Now Is Less.

"All main highways will increase in congestion, while at the same time the corners at the chief intersections will be improved with costly buildings. Then the expense of separating the grades will be too great. Now they can be separated at a cost that will be only a fraction of the future expense.

"If you do not want the usefulness of the automobile interfered with by repressive measures such as stop lights and crossing police, then highways should be so constructed as to escape these nuisances."

An appropriation of $3,500 was voted by the park board to install a special type of glass skylight in the new building for small animals. The glass is expected to let in certain sun rays said to be needed in the prevention of tuberculosis.

Will Open Lagoon to Lake.

Steps will be taken to open the south end of the lagoon to the lake, it was announced. Stagnant water at this end is fast making it a first class tadpole hole, President Jackson said.

The board refused to reconsider its action in lifting a ban on tall buildings between Sheridan road and the outer drive from Belmont avenue to Diversey boulevard. Last month the limit was raised from 60 to 196 feet, over the protests of interested property owners.

SIX LINERS HEAL STORM WOUNDS IN NEW YORK PORT

New York, Feb. 9.—Special.]—Six wave tossed liners arrived today from the storm area in the north Atlantic. They were the Olympic, the Hamburg, the Bremen, the American Banker, the Aurania, and the Cameronia. Officers and passengers on all of them reported high seas and winds of hurricane velocity. On each of two of them a passenger had been injured.

The Hamburg caught the worst of the storm and was the only one of the three to report an injury to the boat—due to the breaking of portholes and windows.

Udo Bintz, a 22 year old Berlin business man, came ashore with his head in bandages. Last Wednesday while he was walking on the promenade, he said, a giant comber shattered the glass that incloses it, knocked him to the deck, and cut his head and ear. The ship's surgeon took three stitches in his ear and bandaged his head.

On Jan. 29, when the storm was tossing the Hamburg, a baby was born in the steerage. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rasteller, American citizens of Oak Hill, Kas., returning from a trip to Germany. The child was named Helga.

BOY CHASING HIS DOG CRUSHED BY TRUCK; MAY DIE

2 Children Are Killed by Autos.

Running into the street after his dog, 6 year old Herman Kandsky, 5442 Harper avenue, was knocked down by a truck yesterday afternoon. The wheels of the truck passed over his body. Anthony Garrity, 5538 Lake Park avenue, a passing motorist, took the child to the Illinois Central hospital, where it was said that he would probably die. James Gustafan, 2625 North Campbell avenue, the truck driver, was arrested.

Two other boys were struck by automobiles and killed during the day. The motor toll for the forty days of this year in Cook county was raised to 93.

Boy, 6, Killed by Bus.

Theodore Shugar, 6 years old, 1632 Butler street, Chicago Heights, was almost instantly killed when he was crushed by a bus of the Gold Star Motor Bus company of Chicago Heights. Peter Olthorass, the bus driver, told police the boy ran into 16th street at Hanover street, Chicago Heights, darting in front of the bus. The driver swerved the bus, but the boy was crushed by a rear wheel.

Henry Richter, 11 years old, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Richter, 254 North Park avenue, Park Ridge, died of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at Park and Mechnan avenues, Park Ridge. The boy had been playing with another boy in the street and ran into the side of the car. James Kupka, the driver, was released by police on $10,000 bonds.

Pedestrian Seriously Injured.

Morris Lieberman, 45 years old, 1805 South Hamlin avenue, was seriously injured when he was struck by an automobile driven by Edwin Lowe, 4203 North Kedvale avenue. The accident occurred at Van Buren and Market streets.

ITALY SMASHES BANKS' HOPES FOR STABILIZED LIRA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Feb. 9.—Revaluation rather than stabilization of the lira, conforming with Premier Mussolini's speech at Pesaro last summer, was reaffirmed as the government's definite policy at the council of ministers' meeting yesterday and today to study Italy's financial situation.

It was said this revaluation will proceed very slowly, but there is no intention to wipe out the old paper lira in favor of a new gold currency.

This definite announcement will come as a blow to the hopes of the Milan industrialists and bankers, leaders of whom told THE TRIBUNE correspondent a fortnight ago that they hoped the government would stabilize the lira at approximately twenty-five to a dollar.

PROMISE POSER FOR DEFENSE IN FORD SUIT TODAY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Carefully guarded documentary evidence which, it is asserted, will clear up the "mystery" of why Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in 1925 suddenly placed at $31,000,000 "jeopardy assessment" against the former minority stockholders in the Ford Motor company will be introduced before the board of tax appeals tomorrow.

Counsel for the nine appellants, who are appealing against the additional tax assessment on the ground that the government has collected all the taxes actually due as the result of the sale of their stock to the Ford family in 1919, expressed confidence tonight that tomorrow's hearing would produce the most surprising evidence yet uncovered.

Subpoena Revenue Men.

David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue and his chief assistant, C. R. Nash, have been subpoenaed and will be questioned tomorrow.

The appellants stress the fact that five years elapsed before Secretary Mellon acted. The levy came shortly after Senator Couzens had severely criticized the internal revenue bureau.

"Flivver" Joke an Asset.

Even the jokes about the Ford were pronounced of value to the Ford Motor company by George Lindsay, vice president of the Moody Investment service of New York, when he was placed on the stand.

Alexander W. Gregg, general counsel for the revenue bureau, won an important point, when, under cross-examination, Mr. Lindsay admitted that he would have hesitated about paying $10,000 a share for the Ford stock in 1913 unless assured Mr. Ford was to remain with the company.

HELD ON BURGLARY CHARGE.

Alexander Gilliard of St. Paul was held in $10,000 bonds yesterday on a charge of burglary. He was formerly employed by Gus Mann, proprietor of the Rainbo Groote, 117 South Dearborn street, where a safe was opened and $1,702 taken.

CITIES' SEWAGE CALLED PERIL TO LAKES FISHERIES

U. S. Official Tells Harm Done by Pollution.

Fisheries of the great lakes are in grave danger, due to the pollution caused by large cities which pour their sewage into the lakes, according to Lewis Radcliffe, deputy commissioner of the United States bureau of fisheries.

Mr. Radcliffe's testimony on the subject was given recently before a congressional subcommittee on appropriations, headed by Representative Milton W. Shreve [Rep., Pa.], and was made public here yesterday by Col. Robert Isham Randolph, Chicago engineer.

Fishery Interests Complain.

Chairman Shreve had summoned Mr. Radcliffe because complaints from many congressmen and from "practically every fishery interest on the lakes" had been received by the committee.

"We have realized for some years that the fisheries of the great lakes were in grave danger," Mr. Radcliffe testified. "Conditions rapidly have grown worse in recent years, until now even the fishermen realize that unless something drastic is done the fisheries are gone.

"One of the difficulties is the question of pollution. In the case of Lake Erie, starting from the western end, there are great centers like Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Ashtabula, and Sandusky pouring waste into the streams and through the streams down into the lake.

Sewage Ruins Spawning Beds.

"While the physical condition of the waters is still such that fish may live in them, it [the sewage] has made a deposit over the bottom which is absolutely ruining many of those areas for the spawning of fish. Those fish are bottom spawners, and the eggs are laid on the bottom."

Proponents of the Chicago drainage diversion have shown that this city, sending all its wastes down the drainage canal, is guilty of no pollution of the lakes. And they argue that if the diversion were stopped, as these eastern cities demand, Chicago's sewage would pollute the lower end of Lake Michigan so grossly as to destroy all aquatic life.

NICHOLS ORDERED TO TESTIFY IN EXPERTS' SUIT

Circuit Judge Hugo M. Friend yesterday issued an attachment for Charles M. Nichols, assistant real estate expert under the Thompson administration, ordering the sheriff to bring Nichols into court this morning to testify in THE TRIBUNE's suit to recover fees from the experts.

The hearing has been delayed for two weeks because of Nichols' reported illness. Physicians were sent by the judge to examine the expert and they reported that a court hearing could safely be held in Nichols' home without injury to the sick man's health. But Nichols' wife refused to allow the hearing and Attorney Weymouth Kirkland, representing the complainant, finally asked for the attachment ordering the witness to appear in court.

Nichols is the last witness to be heard before THE TRIBUNE completes its case.

RAID FASHIONABLES' DICE GAMES ALONG FLORIDA'S GAY RIVIERA

Miami, Fla., Feb. 9.—(AP)—The fashionable Silver Slipper club and Hardie's casino, famous along Florida's "Southern Riviera," were raided by county officers in an anti-gambling crusade today.

Six arrests were made and an array of gambling devices was seized.

The third place visited was the Evelyn Nesbit Supper club, newly opened at Hialeah by the former wife of Harry K. Thaw, but the nocturnal merrymaking had terminated abruptly and the club was in darkness.

The first raid was at Hardie's casino at Miami Beach, where Robert Carton, J. E. Kelly, Robert Thompson and M. Fishman were arrested as operators of gambling devices which were in operation and surrounded by a hundred or more players when the officers entered. The participants complied hurriedly with the order to leave. A roulette outfit, a black jack outfit, two dice games and a dice "bird cage" were confiscated.

Swooping down on the exclusive Silver Slipper, the deputies captured M. E. Benson and Robert Turner as operators of the gambling devices there.

The raid was conducted during the height of the evenings' festivities, while the orchestra was playing a Black Bottom number for a specialty dancer to the accompaniment of cheers and applause. In the din and confusion in the gilded parlors, the officers made their arrests while astonished guests in evening clothes scampered out.

The six men were released on bonds.

ASKS IF ANY ONE ON COUNTY JOB DOES ANY WORK

Commissioner Stunned by Waste of Funds.

rushed to Springfield to prevent this election, and the committee cut the election item down to $200,000.

Judges Under Fire.

On two items totaling $46,000, with which to employ extra judges from outside counties, Expert Jacobs said: "You have 20 Superior court judges and 20 Circuit court judges. Some do a fair day's work, but some don't."

"You are going to get into hot water," opined Harry A. Newby, a new commissioner who is a lawyer.

"I'm just giving you the facts," replied Jacobs. "State's Attorney Crowe will be in here pretty soon with a lot of statistics on crime. There are eight or ten judges assigned to crime and you can phone the Criminal court building this minute and you will not find more than four working."

"Are you charging that the judges are loafing, too?" asked Commissioner Wilson.

"I am saying that certain judges do not do their duty and that if they all did a reasonable amount of work there would be no need for getting in outside judges," replied Jacobs. "In our investigation we found a case of a country judge who was paid one day's allowance by the county for hearing some motions, and then went over to the Municipal court, for which he also received an allowance."

It was at this point that Commissioner Gibson inquired: "Who in hell on the county pay roll does work?"

The committee will have its sessions today in the Bridewell following the breaking of ground ceremonies for the new jail and Criminal court building on the Bridewell grounds.

DELAY INQUEST ON DEATH OF 1 IN OFFICE DUEL

An inquest into the death of Andrew Gryzyn, who was shot and killed during a pistol duel with Stanley A. Hoffman in the latter's real estate office at 3360 Milwaukee avenue on Tuesday, was continued yesterday to permit further investigation.

Hoffman, who was shot three times and seriously wounded in the duel, is in the Swedish Covenant hospital, where it was reported last night that he was out of danger. The coroner's jury voted to continue the inquest until Hoffman could testify.

Tribune Help Wanted Ads
bring scores of skilled workers immediately!

THE experiences of the advertisers who testify here illustrate two features that make Tribune Help Wanted Ads so valuable to employers:—they bring more applicants, and the employes they attract are of the better kind.

Mr. Robert C. Byers, 360 N. Michigan Avenue, advertised for Male and Female Help in The Tribune. So many people answered that his unusually large office could not hold them.

Mr. W. E. Block, 1439 W. Austin Avenue, finds that he secures first-class, experienced mechanics through Tribune Want Ads.

You, too, can select employes whose qualifications are equal to the positions you desire to fill. Let a Tribune Help Wanted Ad solve YOUR help problem!

"One Wednesday morning we ran an ad in the male and female help wanted columns of The Tribune. Thursday night, the time specified in the ad, so many people called in response that our office, which easily accommodates 600 people, could not hold them."

360 North Michigan Avenue.

TRACE ALLEGED BRIBE MONEY IN DAUGHERTY CASE

Bank, Broker Accounts Produced in Trial.

New York, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Through a maze of figures and the testimony of an array of many witnesses, in the trial of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty and former Alien Property Custodian Thomas W. Miller, United States Attorney Buckner traced today $39,000 of alleged bribe money to a brokerage account of Miller in Wilmington, Del.

He also produced interest coupons purporting to show that $100,000 more of the same kind of money was held in the Midland National bank at Washington Court House, O., to the credit of Daugherty.

Follows New Plan.

Mr. Buckner was continuing his new plan of spinning a web of evidence from the circumference toward the center; of building first an "inferential" case, which will stand only if he is able to establish, by later proof, the materiality of his opening claims and earlier testimony.

From his swift moving parade of witnesses and from some fifty government "exhibits" of a documentary nature, Mr. Buckner brought out how his office had traced a large part of the alleged bribe money into the hands or accounts of either the two living defendants, Daugherty and Miller, or the two alleged co-conspirators in the indictment, Jess W. Smith and John T. King, both of whom are dead.

Both Charged with Conspiracy.

The government charges that Daugherty and Miller in 1921, while the former was a member of President Harding's cabinet and the latter was a government official, conspired to defraud the government.

PUT SLIGHT TO SOL LEVITAN UP TO ZIMMERMAN

SOL LEVITAN.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—The state assembly today put directly up to Gov. Zimmerman the onus of deciding the controversy between State Treasurer Sol Levitan and C. B. Ballard, state superintendent of public buildings.

Without a record vote, the assembly passed a resolution condemning a letter sent by Ballard to Levitan as "highly improper and a reflection on the honesty and integrity of the Jewish race."

The letter was sent demanding that Levitan remove a sign in the treasurer's office which said, "Uncle Sol, your state treasurer, welcomes you." The Ballard letter characterized the sign as an advertisement for a "Jewish fire sale."

The assembly referred the matter to Gov. Zimmerman, asking him to take any action "he sees fit."

TAKE SUSPECT TO SCENE OF KILLING; HE CONFESSES

Conscience proved the master of George Young of Fox Lake, Ill., yesterday when State's Attorney A. V. Smith took him back to the cottage in which he killed Frank Grund. Young confessed. He said that he fractured Grund's skull in a drunken brawl.

Young had been held for several days, during which he maintained that Grund had been killed by a fall down a stairway. When he was taken to the cottage yesterday he said Grund had boasted that he was stronger than Qoung, and that they fought.

Warrants charging liquor violations were taken out against several others from whom Young admitted they got their liquor; and Taylor Clark of Fox Lake, who was present when the murder was committed, was charged with being an accessory after the fact.

COURT DELAYS CROARKIN TRIAL UNTIL MONDAY

Deciding that it would be inconvenient to call before Monday a special venire from which to pick a jury to try Harold J. Croarkin, slayer of 6 year old Walter Schmith, Chief Justice William J. Lindsay yesterday continued the trial until that day.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe and his special assistant, Joseph F. Savage, pressed for an immediate trial. The defense counsel, Michael J. Ahern and Thomas D. Nash, presented a long affidavit in which they pleaded for a continuance until March 1.

The affidavit set forth that funds for the employment of alienists would not be available until the defendant's father, Peter Croarkin, could mortgage his $35,000 home.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to comb or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid Arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid Arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you may have. This simple remedy never fails.

Elmer Applauds the Harpsichord of Music's Past

Modern Radio Meets Old Masters' Instrument.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

The ancient harpsichord—the grand piano of Scarlotti, Bach, and Mozart—met the modern radio last evening, to our great enjoyment—from WJZ, New York, through KYW, 8 to 9. The harpsichordist was Wanda Landowska. The instrument she played is an exact replica of the harpsichord used by Bach.

The program otherwise was of the usual type with vocal solos and orchestra selections, but I don't know where more pleasing entertainment was sent out in any program of one hour's length.

But that harpsichord—its quaint silvery little tones, its sweet violin-like rather than bell-like tones, its innumerable happy overtones! Then, at times, I was reminded of a tenor piano; at other times the instrument seemed like an old fashioned summer organ—if this is construed in terms of respect. Anyhow ,it was charming, fascinating, and productive of great musical beauty.

* * *

In the annual banquet program of the Kymry [Welsh] society of Chicago, at Hotel La Salle, WMAQ, 9 to 10, we also had something of the atmosphere of the world of yesterday. In the Welsh music there are no discords. Everything is melodious—a bit quaint also, but the melody is smoothly flowing always. It was pleasing to hear the familiar voice of the Rev. Richard B. Hughes as the toastmaster and microphone master.

For all those who were in a happy mood the Arabian Nights Entertainment, W-G-N, 8:45 to 10, was a revel in orchestra music played with entrancing charm. For the writer the insertion of the piece titles was an additional source of enjoyment.

* * *

Just a word in admiration of the recital by Bernice Helme, pianist, WMAQ, 8:15. She and Louis Victor Saar were once again heard in duos—these being compositions or arrangements by Mr. Saar—to the credit of both artists.

At 11:45, W-G-N—R. H. L.'s Line Book night—Dennis King reading the immortal lines of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" balcony scene—and Daisy Belmore, in the character of Juliet, responding to her Romeo. What music in words like these!

RADIO BILL SHOWS A MAJORITY, BUT FINAL TEST WAITS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Supporters of the conference report on the radio bill again showed themselves to be in the majority in the senate today, but continued unable to bring the measure to a vote.

An appeal from a ruling by Vice President Dawes was tabled by a vote of 41 to 34. This represented the strength of the two groups. The Vice President overruled a point of order made by Senator Howell [Rep., Neb.] against the conference report.

Senator Howell contended that the conferees had exceeded their authority by eliminating matter which was identical in both the house and senate bills. When Senator Howell appealed from the ruling of the chair Senator Dill [Dem., Wash.], who is in charge of the bill, moved to table the appeal, and it was on this motion that the test of strength occurred.

WLIB PROGRAM

Edward Barry who, with more than 3,000 students taking his radio lessons, is declared to have the largest piano class in the world, will be heard tonight at 7:30 o'clock in a fifteen minute recital over WLIB, the Liberty Weekly station on the Drake hotel. Mr. Barry has selected for his numbers tonight, "Perpetual Motion," by Weber; "Waltz in E," by Chopin; "Rondo a Capriccio," by Beethoven, and "Serenade," by Sinding.

Mr. Barry's pupils extend from the Atlantic to the Rockies, and from Canada to the gulf. Some of them are aged persons who, earlier in life, were deprived by circumstances from following a natural bent. Many write in expressing their elation over progress made.

In his recital work, Edward Barry has won a niche all his own on the radio, listeners having come to recognize the technique which he has developed with the needs of the microphone in mind.

Report Weideling May Be New Evanston Chief

Although unconfirmed by Mayor Charles H. Bartlett, reports that George Weideling, former warden of the Cook county jail, may be chosen to succeed William A. Wiltberger as chief of the Evanston police force, were current yesterday. Chief Wiltberger will be replaced before April 19, Mayor Bartlett has announced. Others mentioned for the post are Dennis McEnery, acting chief; Capt. Charles Paasch, and Lieut. Carl Ekman.

Blames Mother-in-Law vs. Lipstick for Mate's Anger

Objections of her mother-in-law to her use of the lipstick broke up the married life of Mrs. Helen Moore Swanson, 3018 Sheffield avenue. That's what Mrs. Swanson charged in a divorce bill filed yesterday in the Circuit court against Buster H. Swanson, painting contractor at 3472 North Clark street. Mrs. Swanson said her husband sent her to Florida some time ago and then informed her over long distance telephone that he was through with her.

ROMANTIC COP GETS MORO SHEIK SINGLE HANDED

Brings Harem, Too, to Sulu Jail in Flivver.

BY L. B. JOHNSON.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

JOLO, Island of Sulu, P. I., Feb. 9.—Riding in a Ford car and accompanied by one Filipino policeman, two Moro chiefs and five women, Datu Tahil, leader of the latest Jolo revolt, drove up to Gov. Carl B. Moore's house in stately fashion today and formally surrendered. Tahil was thin and nervous after his nine days in the hills while the constabularly sought him, but he retained his dignity.

Disentangling his legs from his retinue in the Ford, Tahil descended, advanced slowly to Gov. Moore and kissed the latter's hands. Gov. Moore read him a lecture in the Moro language and sent him to jail. Tahil's retinue remained with the governor, pleading for mercy for their fallen chief.

Still Popular with Ladies.

One of the women who accompanied him turned out to be Tahil's second wife, who is also a sister of his first wife. His first wife was killed in the battle of Bagsak in 1919, but her sister decided to take a chance with Tahil. Subsequently they were divorced. In his recent misfortune, however, wife No. 2 decided to return to Tahil, and apaprently she is on the best of terms with him now, having completely supplanted in his affections Tarhata Kiram, niece of the sultan of Sulu and a former University of Illinois co-ed. She wept while pleading for clemency from Gov. Moore.

Another Moro woman in the party was Tahil's stepmother, a fine looking gray haired old Moro woman, who added her pleas to those of the rest.

A Go-Getter Cop.

The real hero of Tahil's surrender, however, was a Filipino municipal policeman. This man achieved fame some years ago by running away with one of the wives of the sultan of Sulu. The happy pair fled to British North Borneo, where they spent their honeymoon until the sultan had restocked his harem, and then returned and set up housekeeping in Jolo opposite the sultan's palace.

It is learned from Gov. Moore that the constabulary had vowed vengeance on Tahil, saying they would take him dead only. Tahil's hiding place was known to the authorities for several days past, but Gov. Moore was reluctant to see the constabulary get him, as he preferred to capture him alive. Gov. Moore, therefore, sent the Filipino municipal policeman at midnight last night to bring Tahil in.

Gov. Moore, Col. Luther Stevens, commanding the constabulary; Clayton Douglas, superintendent of schools, and THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE correspondent, all heavily armed, waited on Gov. Moore's porch until early this morning, when Tahil arrived. But there were no fireworks, only water works.

COOLIDGE PLANS FOR PHILIPPINES WAIT ON WOOD

BY WALTER WILGUS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MANILA, P. I., Feb. 9.—Press dispatches from Washington that President Coolidge will await consideration of a Philippine plebiscite for independence and other Philippine affairs until Gov. Gen. Wood is in a condition to confer with him personally is expected to revive many conflicting rumors regarding Gov. Gen. Wood's health.

THE TRIBUNE learns from medical officers familiar with the case that Gov. Gen. Wood is by no means "finished" and with reasonable care they give him many years more to live. They state his general condition is so good as to permit him to remain in office during the remainder of President Coolidge's term or longer.

Physicians, however, have advised him to postpone his visit to Washington until the weather is warmer, as he has been in the tropics continuously since 1920.

Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup

Better than ready-made cough syrups and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or clarified honey. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and it is splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, which has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MEXICO ARRESTS REVOLT AGENTS IN ARMY CAMPS

Kill Priests in Jail, Dodgers Charge.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 9.—Arrests of revolutionary propagandists in towns of the federal district continues. Five arrests were made in Tacayauba. The prisoners were accused of distributing dodgers, urging Catholics to refuse to recognize the Calles government.

Circulars were again distributed this morning, accusing the government of summarily executing priests in the military prison. The circulars admitted the names of the executed priests were unknown. A week ago the government denied similar statements, saying all priests sent to military and other prisons in this city were uninjured.

This propaganda is reaching every city, town and village in Mexico, it is said, and is intended to form a counter to the propaganda which the Mexican Federation of Labor and other pro-government organizations are making in behalf of President Calles. The alleged propaganda agents even enter the police courts and the barracks of the federal soldiers, where several were arrested yesterday. The commander of the troops in the federal district today issued orders to arrest distributors of dodgers of whatever kind in the barracks.

Son of Ex-President Flees.

Gen. Manuel Gonzales, son of Manuel Gonzales, president of Mexico from 1880 to 1884, and credited with being the intellectual head of the insurrectionary movement against the Calles government, is reported after hiding two weeks to have escaped from Mexico two days ago by way of a gulf port.

The government is encouraging the formation of local troops from among the agrarians to counteract the revolutionary movements in the states of Guanajuato, Jalisco, Colima, Queretaro, and Michoacan.

It was said that more than half the encounters lately with religious revolutionists were fought by state troops.

A second battle was fought yesterday between federal troops and rebels under the guerrilla leader, Anastacio Vidales, with heavy losses on both sides. A running battle was also fought near San Geronimo, state of Guerrero.

Rebels Fight from Trenches.

In a battle near Chilar, state of Guanajuato, rebels entrenched in the foothills, fought for two hours, after which they retreated to a nearby canyon.

It was reported from the president's office today that President Calles was willing to open direct negotiations with the American oil men with a view to finding a basis for a settlement of the controversy. It is asserted here that former President Obregon attempted to reach a working agreement, on instructions from President Calles, with the oil men while he was in Los Angeles, but the latter refused on the plea that the United States state department did not favor reopening oil negotiations with the Mexican government.

HAUGEN BILL WINS IN FIRST TEST OF FAVOR IN HOUSE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Debate on the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was begun in the house today as its consideration continued in the senate.

Supporters of the legislation won the first skirmish in the house with the adoption by a vote of 216 to 146 of a special rule providing for twelve hours of general debate followed by the reading of the bill for amendment. The affirmative votes included many who are expected to vote against the bill on the final roll call.

The house debate revealed that one group favored the McNary-Haugen bill, another either the Crisp or the Aswell substitute measures, while a third opposed all legislation.

Haugen Bill Farmer's Choice.

Representative Williams [Rep., Ill.], in asking support of the McNary-Haugen bill, said that it is the measure upon which the principal farm organizations have agreed after years of study. No farm organization, he said, has approved the Curtis-Crisp bill.

Senator Wheeler in the senate debate charged that it is the purpose of the Coolidge administration "to submerge agriculture to industry." He referred specially to Secretaries Hoover, Mellon and Jardine as hiving an attitude unfriendly to the farmers. He declared that "the industrial, commercial and financial forces have dominated the agricultural policies of the last two administrations and have prevented effective action on behalf of agriculture.

Signs Corn Borer Bill.

"We must see to it as far as it is possible that there is no industrial peasant class in America and likewise no agricultural peasant class such as has existed and still exists in Europe today."

Senator Gooding described the present condition of agriculture pointing to enormous losses of recent years. There have been 3,000 bank failures in agricultural states in the last six years, he said, while during the same period deposits in banks in industrial states have increased greatly.

President Coolidge today signed the bill authorizing the expenditure of $10,000,000 in coöperation with the states in the eradication of the European corn borer.

Mr. John J. Hauprich, 2239 Winona Street, had a buyer for his radio set by noon of the day his Tribune Want Ad appeared.

Tribune Want Ads made satisfactory, almost immediate sales for these users. You, too, can sell successfully by advertising to the quick-buying readers of The Tribune Want Ad Section.

"My ad offering a Dodge touring car for sale brought 19 replies in two days. I picked the third caller to interview, because his address was directly on my way to the loop the next morning. He bought it at once at my price and allowed me to use it two more days for an emergency which arose."

C. O. McCALL, Brookfield, Illinois.

"My ad in the Barter and Exchange column brought results far beyond my expectations. By noon I had a satisfactory buyer for my Atwater Kent radio set, and completed the sale that day."

"LIFE IS SELECTION"

...said Ralph Waldo Emerson

(He might have been talking to the national advertisers of to-day)

Millions would be saved in advertising if every advertiser would say this: "I can't reach everybody. What people are worth reaching first?"

Put it this way. In any community or neighborhood, who sets the pace—the drones, drifters, time wasters—or the smaller number of people, each of whom has a definite purpose in life?

The question answers itself. Wise selection is the problem: how to cull out the alert-minded, time-saving, successful men and women from the mass.

EMERSON SAID: "Life is selection, no more . . . The work of the gardener is simply to destroy this weed, or that shrub, or that tree, and leave the other to grow. The difference between house and house is in Wise Omissions."

It is because of Wise Omissions that The Literary Digest reaches so many people of influence.

Let's apply that.

EDITORIALLY. The essential news of 5,000 American and foreign periodicals, digested, condensed. The moving, thinking, achieving world in weekly panorama! Science, art, the interweave of nations, the drama or book that changes the fashion of thought, the new theory that shatters. In a few pages, a few minutes, there unfolds a full, true expression of the modern, high-speed, concentrated interests of successful people. No trivialities. No waste. Wise Omissions.

CIRCULATION. For eleven years, The Digest has concentrated on telephone subscribers—for the telephone and The Digest are the natural selections of the alert in mind. Those who read The Digest read advertising — for advertising has induced them to become subscribers. Great effort is made to interest those who are mentally alert. By editorial contents The Digest makes its widest appeal to time-saving, culture-avid, go-ahead people. No effort is made to add to The Digest's list of readers those of inactive mind —they would not like The Digest anyway. Wise Omissions.

FOR THE ADVERTISER. Wise Omissions! There is scarcely any other compensation more satisfactory to advertisers than the knowledge that people of good taste and sound judgment buy their products and buy them regularly.

The four million alert-minded men and women at every income level who find their mental hunger best satisfied by The Digest are those who form judgments, express them, and make them effective.

A dollar spent in advertising to these 1,400,000 families brings the most far-reaching results. Hundreds of advertisers have proved it. For, when you talk to people of purpose first, you talk through them to many millions more.

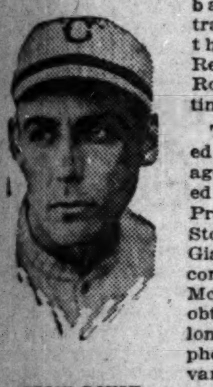
GIANTS TRADE KELLY TO CINCINNATI FOR ROUSH

BILL TERRY TO PLAY FIRST FOR M'GRAW'S CLUB

Fans Think Reds Got Edge in Deal.



EDDIE ROUSH.

New York, Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Long George Kelly, New York's first baseman, was traded today to the Cincinnati Reds for Eddie Roush, hard hitting outfielder.

The deal, started three months ago, was completed in the office of President C. A. Stoneham of the Giants after the consent of John J. McGraw had been obtained over the long distance telephone from Havana, Cuba.

McGraw at once placed his O. K. on the trade, and within fifteen minutes after Garry Herrman and Lou Widrig of the Reds had entered Stoneham's office the transaction was complete.

Among the trades of the year this takes second rank only to the famous swap when Rogers Hornsby came to the Giants.

Did Reds Get Best of Deal?

In baseball circles the opinion was that the Giants had taken the worst of it. They gave up a fairly young first baseman and a .300 hitter for an outfielder who is thirty-six years old and beginning to fade.

On the other hand, the Giants gave up one of their two first rate first basemen in exchange for a center fielder who may make the New York outfield. With Kelly and Bill Terry on his hands, McGraw calculated that he could spare one of them if it filled in a weak spot which has annoyed the Giants since George Burns was traded to Cincinnati in 1922.

Hendricks Is Elated.

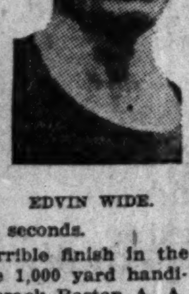
Manager Jack Hendricks of the Reds was elated over the trade. He plans to play Kelly in center field, keeping him in reserve for first and second base.

"Kelly is the best all around ball player in the National league," Hendricks said. "I have always liked him. He can play first base, second base, and the outfield."

The players involved in the trade are holdouts. Roush is demanding another three year contract at $19,000 a year, which the Reds refuse to pay him. Kelly had declined to sign the contract offered him.

Considering Roush the best center fielder in the National league, McGraw has been after him for many years. Eleven years ago he was a Giant, bought from the Newark club of the Federal league. Although McGraw liked his young center fielder, he traded him to Cincinnati on July 20, 1916, along with Christy Mathewson and Bill McKechnie in exchange for Buck Herzog and Wade Killifer.

Wide, Swedish Runner, Wins in U. S. Debut



EDVIN WIDE.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—Edvin Wide, famous Swedish runner and conqueror of Paavo Nurmi, made his American debut here tonight and raced to a hollow victory in a 2,500 yard event which featured the Newark A. C. meet, held in conjunction with the National Interscholastic championships in the 113th armory.

Starting from scratch, Wide lapped a field of four rivals to win in 6 minutes 28 4-5 seconds.

Lloyd Hahn's terrible finish in the last half lap of the 1,000 yard handicap run gave the crack Boston A. A. miler a victory. A crowd of 5,000 cheered the Hub flyer as he sped over the finish line triumphant from scratch over a large field in 2:16 4-5.

Among Hahn's vanquished rivals was Ray Dodge, Illinois A. C. middle distance star, who started from scratch with the winner. Dodge finished ten yards back of the victor after a spectacular bid for victory which he carried up to the last turn. In third position was Loring McMillan of Union college, who started with a handicap allowance of twenty-five yards.

Ray Schalk to Look Over Rookies at Early Camp

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

URBAN FABER.

Too many ambitious fellows hopping around a big league ivory plantation cause confusion in the mind and eyes of the manager, and Ray Schalk, the 35 year old White Sox chief with the 21 year old face, wants none of that.

Hence certain men will be exempt from the first week of work when the pale hose inaugurate training operations the morning of Feb. 28 at their Shreveport, La., headquarters.

Thus Schalk will be able to cast a critical eye over the new men who have been gathered in from near and far as possibilities for big time employment. Thirteen athletes fall into this class, not counting Aaron Ward, the former Yankee, and Roger Peckinpaugh, the one time Senator.

Veterans to Report Late.

Schalk said last night he will let the old timers escape a week of drill. Among them will be Falk, Mostil, Sheely, Barrett, Kamm, Lyons, Faber, Ted Blankenship, and possibly Ward and Peck. Of course, there is no law compelling the holdovers to remain away from camp and one or two of them are liable to be so anxious for work that they'll appear Feb. 28 instead of March 7.

The thing to worry about, as Schalk sees it, is one more good pitcher and one or two infielders who can hit. He thinks he may turn up with the needed flinger in Bert Cole, the ex-Tiger southpaw; Elmer Jacobs, the former National league journeyman, or Joe Brown, a Pittsburgh castoff who was acquired from the Oklahoma City club. The needed infield strength will have to come from Peck, Ward, Hunnefield or Berg.

Faber Confers with Schalk.

"Red" Faber, survivor of the fast dwindling race of spitball hurlers, whose 38 years entitle him to the rating of grandpa of the Sox troupe, isn't going to lose any time getting his aged whip into useful shape. Faber, who commutes between Milwaukee and Cascade, Iowa, in the winter months, came to town yesterday, met Manager Schalk at Comiskey park and announced he was leaving Sunday for Hot Springs, Ark. He may remain there until about Mar. 3.

Schalk told him he didn't want him to become lonesome at the spa, so ordered Peckinpaugh to go through a similar preliminary siege of work. Peck will play shortstop if his legs hold together and Schalk wants to make sure that the old timer starts off without any physical handicaps. Ward, the second sacker, also may be added to the Hot Springs "boiling out" squad.

BOY KILLED IN FIGHT DURING BASKETBALL TILT

Dies in Principal's Office.

Bayonne, N. J., Feb. 9.—[U.N.]—A fist fight between two players on opposing basketball teams on the floor of the Junior High-Vocational school was followed by the death of John Tompko, 19, and the arrest on a technical charge of homicide of Benjamin Parrish, 18. The pair exchanged blows during a game between two town teams. Tompko fell unconscious and was carried into Principal Edward Berman's office, where he died.

Federal League Organizer Dies of Heart Attack

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 9.—[U. P.]—William T. McCullough, organizer of the Federal league and otherwise connected with "outlaw baseball," died suddenly in a hospital here today. Death followed a collapse in a downtown office building late today. Previous to his connection with the Federal league, McCullough organized the old United States league.

Ruth Ordered to Sign or Keep Out of Training Camp

New York, Jan. 9.—[Special.]—Col. Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, today fired the first gun in the war of the Ruth contract when he declared that the Bambino would not be permitted to report at the St. Petersburg training camp until he had signed on the dotted line.

This statement also goes, the colonel emphasized, for Herb Pennock, his pitching ace and a confessed holdout, and any other Yankees who are not satified with contract terms.

RUTH RETURNS CONTRACT.

Hollywood, Cal., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Babe Ruth, champion home run hitter, has returned his contract to the New York Yankees unsigned and if no better terms are offered him he is ready to quit baseball.

This was the declaration of Ruth tonight in answer to reports from New York that Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, has ruled that Ruth would not be permitted to report to the Florida training camp until he had signed a new contract.

"The only contract offered me by the club has been for one year at the same salary as that I have been paid the last three years—$52,000 a year," said Ruth.

MYERS-CALLAHAN BATTLE PROMISES TO BE PUNCHFEST

Dorfman and Rychell Will Open Show Tonight.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

MUSHY CALLAHAN.

Five fights, featured by the appearance of Mushy Callahan, the world's junior welterweight champion, who meets Spug Myers of Idaho in the banner event, will be staged by Promoter Jim Mullen in the Coliseum tonight. The first bout will go on at 8:15 o'clock and the doors will be opened at 6:30.

The card looks like one of the most interesting of the season. It is made up of fighters who already have appeared at local shows and their ability is known. The bouts will be presented in such a manner as to hold the interest of the crowd, as the show will open with the ten rounder between Sammy Dorfman of New York and Ray Rychell of the stockyards. This contest will be followed by the Peters-Quong affair and then will come Miller and Hill, My Sullivan and Len Malody, and Callahan and Myers in order.

Callahan Has Punch.

In Callahan the fans will see a fighter who will remind them of Mike Gibbons and Packey McFarland when these clever fighters were at the peak of their careers. Mushey, who is a Hebrew and whose correct name is Morris Scheer, has a typical Gibbons left hand in that he spears his opponent four or five times without returns. Callahan can hit harder with his right hand than either Gibbons or McFarland, and some fans expect him to hammer Myers into submission before the end of ten rounds. Myers, however, is a stiff body puncher and will be throwing punches all the time.

Callahan won the junior title from Pinkie Mitchell of Milwaukee in Vernon, Cal., on Sept. 21, 1926. In addition to beating Mitchell, the 140 pound titleholder won a ten round decision over Ace Hudkins of Omaha and Jimmy Goodrich, the former world's lightweight champion. He knocked out Russie LeRoy in three rounds, and disposed of Pal Moran in the same number of sessions.

Miller Has Good Record.

Myers fought a ten round draw with Billy Petrolle at the last Coliseum show, and he stopped Billy Bortfield in four rounds. He has won decisions over Lou Paluso and Frankie Schaeffer, but dropped a close decision to Ace Hudkins. The weight for this fight will be 141 pounds and the welterweight title will not be at stake.

Ray Miller, the west side featherweight, has been picked by the fans to stop Johnny Hill, the Filipino who recently won a popular decision over Joey Sangor of Milwaukee. Ray gave a great exhibition of his ability by winning over Eddie Shea and Manager Sam Pian stated he will go even better tonight.

Peters Battles Quong.

Fists will fly when Ernie Peters, the local Indian flyweight, meets Harry Soo Quong Bill, the Chinaman of Des Moines, Ia. This pair met recently at the Standard club and the Chinaman had Peters on the floor in the first round. Ernie came back strong and in the closing rounds had the Chinaman in a bad way.

Myron "My" Sullivan of St. Paul, who was the hit of Mullen's last show at the Coliseum, will clash with Len Malody of Portland, Ore., in the other six rounder. Sullivan is a product of the amateur ranks and has been schooled by Tom and Mike Gibbons. He is a clever and a straight right hand puncher.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

BY DON MAXWELL.

When Tyrus R. Cobb signed a contract yesterday to play with Connie Mack's team the curtain dropped on the last act of the most ludicrous burlesque ever played by organized baseball.

Tris Speaker signed his papers several days ago. Clark Griffith's club was the party of the second part.

The clouds are showing the silver lining. The sun is shining through. Cobb and Speaker will play ball.

And they'll not only play ball but, with the exception of Babe Ruth, they'll each get more money for playing than any other ball player in the American league.

Somebody must be laughing.

Cobb's contract is estimated to call for more than $50,000 and slightly less than $75,000 for one year's play. Tris Speaker is reported to have twisted a big roll of greenbacks out of Griffith's hands. Cobb and Speaker, if reports are true, will get more money out of baseball this year than they ever got before either for playing or managing.

The American league bosses ought to enjoy that. Most of them are too winded by the chase after Cobb and Speaker to speak.

Last September the astute American league club owners met in secret session in Chicago and voted to toss Cobb and Speaker out on their necks. They couldn't afford to let Cobb and Speaker stay in the league. Holy men can't afford to let unholy men work for them. The American league was sacrificing money for honor. Baseball must be kept pure. Cobb and Speaker had violated a sacred trust. Tears.

◆

Four months later the astute bosses of the American league are paying Cobb and Speaker the highest salaries in baseball.

The two men who left the stage in scene one to be stoned return to the stage in scene two the rulers of the city.

◆

The plight of the Cleveland and Detroit clubs is particularly touching.

It is taken for granted that they wanted to get rid of Cobb and Speaker. They certainly acted the part. The club owners raised no cry of protest when Cobb and Speaker were led to the execution.

Ordinarily when a baseball club gets tired of one of its players or managers it sells him, or trades him, or asks waivers. Cleveland and Detroit didn't try to realize a cent on these two players. They indicated that they had to lose them and that it wouldn't be fair to dupe some other club. Big hearted.

◆

The clubs did this at great discomfort. Even the city councils passed resolutions condemning them. When a baseball club gets in so bad with the fans that the city council takes notice the club owner feels sick.

With all this great self sacrifice, what has been the result? Cobb and Speaker, instead of being forced out of baseball, are getting the highest pay in the league.

The clubs lose Cobb and Speaker without a cent of profit and two rival clubs get them for nothing save their salaries. Detroit and Cleveland find the two men they shoved out in the winter playing against them in the summer.

If that was a smart way for Cleveland and Detroit to get rid of Cobb and Speaker, the smart way to save paper money is to toss it on a bonfire.

◆

Baseball fans probably realize by this time just how brainy the owners in the American league really are.

Baseball players probably realize just how safe their reputations are in the hands of the owners. In September a reputation that isn't worth a nickel, in February may be worth $75,000 a year.

DENTON DEFEATS COPULOS, 50-31, IN CUE TOURNEY

Scores Yesterday

Denton [6] defeated Copulos [5], 50 to 31 [40].

Thurnblad [6] defeated Hall [6], 50 to 46 [48].

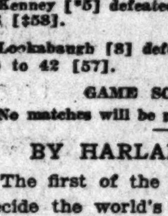
Kenney [*5] defeated McCourt [*3], 50 to 33 [‡58].

Lookabaugh [8] defeated Campanioni [4], 50 to 42 [57].

GAME SCHEDULE.

No matches will be played today.

BY HARLAND ROHM.



EARL LOOKABAUGH.

The first of the "big" matches to decide the world's three cushion billiard championship brought a paradox last night for the play slowed up and the pace grew faster. Tiff Denton and Gus Copulos, respecting each other's ability, took no chances and sighted their shots with more than usual care, but when they did play, the balls rolled true. Denton won, 50 to 31, in forty innings.

Denton was getting his counts in clusters, scoring one run of six, two of five, three of four and two of three. He ran off a dozen marvelous shots and time and again the gallery held its breath as his cue ball twisted about the table until somebody broke the silence with a stage whisper "Jiminy, what a SHOT!"

Denton Scores in Clusters.

Tiff got under way quickly but after counting 13, failed to score again for eight innings, while Copulos forged ahead to stand three points up. Then Denton excused himself to change from the shoulder binding tuxedo coat to a jersey playing jacket and he was away. In the next eight innings he scored 18 points. Again he slowed up for a time but finished with another burst of sixteen points in six innings, his last count being an unfinished run of six.

In the first evening match Arthur Thurnblad outfinished Allen Hall after the St. Louisan had led most of the way. Hall, more or less serious for once, got off to a fast start, winning the lag and scoring six. He followed it with three in the second inning and one in the third, but Thurnblad slowed him up with safeties.

Thurnblad Overtakes Hall.

Hall scored one in the fifth and on his second was counting on the red ball frozen to a cushion. The referee gave him the shot, but Hall walked back to his seat saying he had hit the ball before the cushion and refusing to take the point. Thurnblad made the longest consecutive run of scoring innings of the tournament when he counted in eight straight frames, including one run of six. He took the lead for a short time, but Hall soon caught up and they were tied at 44 in the forty-fourth inning. After a couple of blanks Thurnblad counted three in the forty-seventh and three in the forty-eighth to win.

Earl Lookabaugh played amazingly good billiards yesterday afternoon for just twenty-seven innings, and then he fell into a slough of despond from which he recovered barely soon enough to defeat Raimundo Campanioni, 50 to 42, forty innings later. In the preceding match Len Kenney shot his best game of the tournament to count out the veteran Charles McCourt, 50 to 33.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

DEMPSEY'S STATUS.

JACK DEMPSEY'S attack of blood poisoning may determine the question whether he attempts a comeback against Champion Gene Tunney. It is a certainty the illness will weaken the former champion and delay his plans for resuming training.

Those who saw the affair at Philadelphia would want to feel sure that Dempsey was not only in tip-top condition but also had improved in hitting and ringcraft before giving him another chance against the present champion. His enforced layoff would militate against those necessary qualities.

Unless Dempsey were going into battle on his former reputation the wisest course would be a preliminary battle or two either against aspirants for the title, if he was fit, or setups if he merely wanted to sharpen his judgment of distance and take no chances.

Jack's long absence from the ring undoubtedly counted against him in the City of Brotherly Wallops. Tunney is now engaging in vaudeville while his prospective challengers are fighting. That will not help Gene's chances.

There has been such magic in Dempsey's name that he still would draw a good gate against Tunney, even without doing the things he ought to do to further success. But it would not be as good a gate as if the cash customers had seen Dempsey in a bout before another Tunney fight—unless, of course, Dempsey was polished off in the first bout.

Cobb Puts Name on Dotted Line of Athletic Contract

Visiting Connie Mack in the tower of Shibe park, where the veteran manager plans his pennant campaigns, the Georgia Peach lost no time in placing his signature to the contract that binds him to the local club for a year.

Tonight the former Detroit manager, happy in the prospect of another good year before he quits playing baseball, was traveling to his Georgia home.

The salary Cobb will draw was not announced.

CHARLEY M'VEIGH.

Chicago's Blackhawks pounced on the Ottawa Senators for a 5 to 3 victory in a National Hockey league game at the Coliseum last night. Ottawa's team was clearly outclassed. The Hawks outskated and outpassed the leaders and on defense showed better form. The Senators seemed handicapped somewhat by the small rink. More than 6,500 fans saw the match.

Chicago jumped off in front in the first period, scoring two goals in the last minute of the session. For the first nineteen minutes of the period the Hawks raced at top speed and fairly rained shots at the Ottawa goal. Three times the puck was driven against the Senators' net, but each time Referee Ritchie called offside play and the shots weren't allowed.

Fraser Opens Scoring.

Just after nineteen minutes had passed the Hawks launched a big offensive against the Senators, who were one man short, Adams having been sent to the penalty box. Five Blackhawk players massed in front of Ottawa's net and Fraser finally took a pass from MacVeigh and scored.

Immediately the teams lined up again and another face off was made. Fraser, playing out of his usual defense position on the forward line, took the puck on a dash up the rink and scored, faking a pass that drew goalie Connell out of the net and then skated in with the puck. The time of the goal was 30 seconds from the face off.

Each team gained a goal in the second period. Ottawa's point came 20 seconds after the period opened, when Frank Clancy netted the puck on a high shot driven from center ice. The puck hit on Goalie Lehman's skate and skipped off into the net before the Chicago goalie could kick the rubber out.

McVeigh Races to Goal.

Rabbitt McVeigh scored the Chicago goal, racing up the rink on one of his spectacular charges, skipping and dodging his opponents until he was within the Ottawa defense line. Then he faked a shot to the right and crossed Goalie Connell by driving the puck home on the left side of the net.

Two Chicago goals and two Ottawa goals appeared in the final period, but the Hawks were out in front to stay and they defended their lead. McKay and Wilson tallied for Chicago, while Finnegan and Denenny scored for the Senators.

Following the pro contest the Chicago Athletic association sextet defeated the Lake Shore A. C., 5 to 2, in an amateur game. Lavelle of the C. A. A. starred with four goals.

CARDS BEAT MILLERS

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 9.—[Special.]—The Chicago Cardinals defeated Minneapolis in an American Hockey association game tonight, 2 to 0. The Cardinals counted after 14 minutes of play in the opening period when Lessard passed out from behind the net to Brydson, who slipped the disc by Tiny Thompson into an unprotected corner of the net.

Brydson's tally in the final period gave the Cards a safe margin. Brydson took a pass from Graham close in and shot the puck into the net.

Tourney Opens Tuesday; Continues One Week.

The schedules for the semi-final round robin tournaments of the City High School Basketball league were arranged yesterday afternoon in the office of E. C. Delaporte, director of physical education, attended by representatives of the 16 teams which have qualified in the sectional races.

The games will start next Tuesday and will be completed one week later. The final games between the light and heavyweight winners in these tourneys will take place shortly afterwards.

One Playoff Needed.

Four schools—Harrison Tech, Marshall, Lane Tech, Morgan Park—have both their teams entered in the semifinals while Parker also may fall into this group if its lightweights win the playoff this afternoon at Calumet High school with the Bowen lights for second place in the south division. This is the only tie, and as a consequence the semi-finals are held earlier this year than in preceding years.

The schedules were arranged so that the games will be played in pairs. All lightweight games will start at 7:30 with the heavyweight contests following immediately.

Teams Well Balanced.

The semi-finals are well balanced and it is difficult to pick probable winners. Englewood heavies and Morgan Park lights have a slight edge in the south-central division while Lake View and Marshall heavies and Lane Tech and Harrison Tech lights are the more formidable in the north-west semifinals. The schedules:

NORTH—WEST.

Feb. 15—Harrison lights vs. Hibbard lights at Schurz; Harrison heavies vs. Lake View heavies at Schurz; Marshall vs. Lane Tech [both teams] at Crane.

Feb. 18—Harrison vs. Lane Tech [both teams] at Schurz.

Feb. 19—Marshall lights vs. Hibbard lights at Schurz; Marshall heavies vs. Lake View heavies at Schurz.

Feb. 22—Harrison vs. Marshall [both teams] at Crane; Lane lights vs. Hibbard lights at Loyola; Lane heavies vs. Lake View heavies at Loyola.

SOUTH—CENTRAL.

Feb. 15—Morgan Park lights vs. Tilden lights at Calumet; Morgan Park heavies vs. Englewood heavies at Calumet; Lindblom lights vs. Parker of Bowen lights at Tilden; Parker heavies vs. Phillips heavies at Tilden.

Feb. 17—Morgan Park lights vs. Lindblom lights at Tilden; Morgan Park heavies vs. Phillips heavies at Tilden; Tilden lights vs. Parker or Bowen lights at Calumet; Englewood heavies vs. Parker heavies at Calumet.

The coaches also prepared a list of approved officials for the games.

GORMAN, FARRELL DIVIDE HONORS IN SARANAC RACES

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Charles Gorman of St. John, N. B., Canadian champion, divided honors today with Oneil Farrell of Chicago in the opening events of the international outdoor amateur speed skating championships.

Each won first and second places in senior events and both victories were upsets.

Gorman was regarded as almost a sure winner in the 400 yard dash, but the Chicago flyer passed him within two yards of the tape. Farrell, favored to win the mile, was unable to overcome the lead established by the Canadian champion when he sprinted away from the pack at the beginning of the last lap.

Henry Nelson, Farrell's teammate, was not up to the form he showed last week at Detroit when he took honors in the national championships. Valentine Bialis of Lake Placid, defending champion, placed third in the mile.

Cut American Derby Purse to $25,000

BY FRENCH LANE.

The American Derby will carry an added value of $25,000 when it is renewed at Washington Park on the third Saturday in June.

Robert M. Sweitzer, president and general manager of the Illinois Jockey club, yesterday sliced $75,000 off what was the richest turf stake in the world last year.

It was the $100,000 race, attracting only a mediocre field, and won by E. R. Bradley's Boot to Boot, which brought a good part of the financial embarrassment to the owners of the new Homewood course last season.

"We are going to play sentiment against gold in renewing the Derby this year," Sweitzer said. "There was a time when the glory of winning an American Derby overshadowed its monetary value. Perhaps that condition still exists. We'll test it this year and I'm satisfied our Derby field at the new value will be more representative than the one of a year ago."

Bob Describes Forest Camp Candle Holder

BY BOB BECKER.

The motor camper, the permanent camper who parks himself in one place for a season, and the occupants of log cabin camps can use the most modern types of lighting equipment when they live in the woods, as weight and size of lamps and lanterns do not bother these outdoor fans. But the canoe camper—who must keep the poundage down on a long paddle and portage trip—hesitates to tote along any heavy or complicated equipment for camp illumination. On practically all of our trips hand flashlights, candles and campfires comprised our equipment for turning the north woods into a gay white way.

To make a candle holder take your clasp knife or small axe and cut a young sapling—about two inches in diameter. Trim it so that one end is pointed and then cut it down to a length desired. Gash the blunt end with your knife and then cut a strip of birch or other bark about ten inches long and two inches wide, double it to make a loop for candle, and wedge it into the gash in the stick. This will act as a vise to hold the bark, which in turn pinches the candle. By ramming the sharp end of the holder in the ground you have a serviceable candle holder for your tent.

MOTOR TOURIST FLOOD TURNS TO MEXICAN ROADS

BY J. L. JENKINS.

April 4 is the date set for the first touring foray to be made by United States motorists into the picturesque depths of old Mexico. Thousands of trail followers are expected to follow the lead of the pathfinding motor van during the spring and fall seasons when the first practicable highway route from Texas to Mexico City will be opened to Yankee cars.

The initial Mexican trip is being arranged under the direction of Gov. Dan Moody of Texas by the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, and will take the Texas delegation as far as Monterey, Mexico, over the newly completed Neuva Laredo-City of Mexico highway. More than 100 cars are expected to make up the American motor van. The trip is considered important as a promoter of good will between Mexico and Texas, as well as one of the most interesting touring features of the year.

RICHARDS HINTS TILDEN MAY JOIN RANKS OF PROS

Says Triumvirate Rules Amateur Tennis.

New York, Feb. 9.—(AP)—A prediction that "Big Bill" Tilden will join professional tennis ranks before the close of 1927 "because of financial circumstances" was made today by Vincent Richards in summing up for a New York newspaper his conception of the "truth about tennis."

The former Davis cup star, now a member of C. C. Pyle's professional troupe, asserts that "Tilden, despite his technical amateur status, has been making a good living out of the game for the last eight years," and directs these charges at the United States Lawn Tennis association:

"That the United States Lawn Tennis association is dominated by a small clique led by Julian S. Myrick, chairman of the Davis cup committee; Holcombe Ward of New York, and Dr. Sumner Hardy of San Francisco, both of the executive committee.

"That the U. S. L. T. A. has permitted $180,000 to accumulate in its treasury for no apparent reason, while the players have received inadequate traveling allowances.

"That hostility to professionalism on the part of the Myrick-Ward-Hardy combine was the real reason for the exclusion of Richards, Howard O. Kinsey, and Mary K. Browne from the 1926 rankings."

LEECH DISCOVERS ONE BUSINESS IN DECIDED DECLINE

BY HARPER LEECH.

A manufactures' census bulletin released yesterday revealed one American business in a decided decline. You'll not be surprised to learn that in two years the number of establishments making saddlery and harness fell off by 45.6 per cent, and the number of men so employed shrank from 6,617 to 4,564. Not surprising, but some of us somehow can't help regretting it, although we know it's for the best—the price of progress.

Here are some rather interesting figures on the changes in American occupations originally worked out by M. Z. Jones of the department of labor.

Contrary to general impression, there were more apprentices per million of population at the census of 1920 than were reported at any census year since 1860.

The number of blacksmiths per million of population has been dropping steadily from 1850 to 1920—from 4,308 to 1,847.

Brick and stone masons have been reduced by nearly one-half in proportion to population since 1850. Coopers have been reduced in the same period to one-tenth of their 1850 proportion to population. Machinery not prohibition did it. The last census report on tight barrel stock showed an increase from 1923 to 1925.

Wagon makers were most numerous in proportion to population in 1870, since which time they have dropped to 80 per cent.

There were 1,323 wheelwrights for every 1,000,000 Americans in 1850, only 35 in 1920.

Draymen, hackmen, and teamsters were 7,092 per million in 1900, by 1910 they had dropped to 4,826, with only 498 chauffeurs per million on the job. In another ten years the chauffeurs had increased 500 per cent.

Here are figures on sailors. When American sailing ships outsailed the world in 1850 3,044 of every million Americans were sailors or deck hands.

The low point, 506, was reached in 1910, with a slight increase to 519 in 1920 as the result of war time shipbuilding. The figures show the increased carrying power and lower labor costs of ships more than they disclose the relative decline of the American merchant marine—because in tons there has of course been no absolute decline over that period of time. The destruction of the marine by the Alabama, Sumter, and other confederate cruisers is, however, clearly disclosed by the drop from 2,142 in 1860 to 1,470 in 1870.

In the figures of occupational change the rise of new industries and the increasing output of goods per individual are faithfully mirrored for 70 years. Social changes are just as evident—the increase of bakers and the decline of domestic servants, the multiplication by 25 of the relative number of plumbers to population disclose what's happening in the home.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Revival of activity and strength in the oil shares, presumably based on gasoline price advances in the northeastern states, featured the erratic price movements in today's curb market. Cumberland, Prairie and Illinois Pipe Line all advanced 3 1-3 to 4 points. Imperial of Canada moved up more than 2 and most of the others improved fractionally.

Rand Kardex crossed 72 to a new high on the announcement of a merger with the Remington Typewriter and other companies, but later lost all its gain. The warrants, after touching a new high at 650, broke to 555. Remington Noiseless Typewriter touched a new peak at 39.

Motors moved within narrow and irregular limits. Baking issues held steady, but most of the radio and coal shares lost ground.

A return of strength to high grade investment securities gave the bond market a firm undertone. Mortgages of a number of the so-called merger rails continued to move forward, but later lost their gains, some of them closing with material losses. St. Paul convertible 5s and Erie convertible 4s D were particularly susceptible to this softening.

Rand, Kardex 5s carrying stock warrants, jumped 5 points to 165, a new high, and furnished the feature of the industrial division. Other corporation liens were generally steady. Warner Sugar first 7s also touched a new peak at 106, but subsequently dropped back, holding a net gain of more than a point. Public utilities were steady.

5½% Convertible Gold Debentures

Dated February 1, 1927 Due February 1, 1977

Interest payable February 1 and August 1. Redeemable on the first of any month on 60 days' notice at 105 and interest to and including February 1, 1932; at a premium decreasing ½% for each five-year period thereafter to and including February, 1, 1972; thereafter at 100½ and interest to and including February 1, 1976, and thereafter at 100 and interest. Coupon Debentures in $1,000 denomination, registerable as to principal only. The New York Trust Company, New York, Trustee.

TAX PROVISION: The Company will agree to pay interest without deduction for any present Normal Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2% per annum which it may be required or permitted to pay thereon or retain therefrom.

For further information regarding the Company and these Debentures, attention is called to the letter of Mr. J. I. Mange, President of the Company, copies of which will be furnished on request and from which it will be noted among other things that:

Company: Associated Gas and Electric Company, incorporated in 1906 under the laws of the State of New York, and its affiliated interests own, control or operate properties rendering electric power and light, gas, water and transportation service in territories having a population estimated to be in excess of 2,300,000. The present operating properties render public utility service to over 435,000 customers in more than 1,000 communities located principally in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Illinois, New Hampshire, Maine, Connecticut, Vermont, Ohio, South Dakota, Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana, and also in the City of Manila, P. I.

Earnings: For the twelve months ended November 30, 1926, consolidated net earnings of the Company and subsidiary and affiliated companies, irrespective of the dates of acquisition, after deducting all operating expenses, maintenance, taxes (except Federal Income Taxes) and amounts applicable to minority common stocks, were, before provision for depreciation, over twice and, after provision for depreciation, over one and three-quarter times the annual interest on this issue of Convertible Gold Debentures and the prior annual interest and dividend charges (less credit for interest during construction) on such bonds and preferred stocks of subsidiary and affiliated companies as are to remain outstanding upon completion of this financing. The balance after deducting such prior annual interest and dividend charges was, before provision for depreciation, equal to over four times the annual interest on these Debentures. For the purpose of the foregoing calculations, the interest charges on the outstanding $12,527,707 perpetual convertible debentures and option warrants of the Company have not been considered but for such purpose they have been treated as if converted into preferred stock.

The following statement showing earnings and other statistics of all properties now included in Associated Gas and Electric System, irrespective of the dates of acquisition, illustrates the substantial and uninterrupted growth of the properties.

	Earnings		Kwh.	Consumers
Dec. 31	Gross	Net	Sales	Electric	Gas, Water, etc.
1921	$20,595,193	$ 6,433,557	282,514,860	178,725	102,500
1922	21,910,359	7,981,959	322,510,845	196,554	108,211
1923	24,451,127	9,611,306	388,566,189	226,920	111,612
1924	26,196,782	10,487,146	428,813,328	257,371	116,860

Over 85% of the gross operating revenues for the twelve months ended November 30, 1926, were derived from electric and gas operations.

Purpose of Issue: Over $20,000,000 of the proceeds of this issue will be used to further simplify the capital structure of the Associated Gas and Electric System through the payment of indebtedness incurred in retiring bonds of the Company and bonds and preferred stocks of subsidiary and affiliated companies and through the retirement by redemption, purchase or otherwise of various other indebtedness and preferred stocks with interest or dividend rates of 5½% or more, ranking senior to this issue. The balance of the proceeds will be used to acquire additional public utility properties or securities deriving their income from such properties, no benefit from which is reflected in the above earnings statement, for new construction and for other corporate purposes.

Conversion Privilege: These Debentures will be convertible, on terms and conditions to be set forth in the Indenture, on the first day of any month after February 1, 1928, up to and including February 1, 1933, at the option of the holder on ten days' notice into units consisting of two shares of Class A stock and one share of Common Stock, as said classes of stock are from time to time constituted, of Associated Gas and Electric Company on the following basis:

For the first	$10,000,000	Debentures surrendered for conversion, at	$110	per unit

" " "	5,000,000	" " " " "	135	" "
" " last	5,000,000	" " " " "	140	" "

Capitalization and Equity: The consolidated capitalization of Associated Gas and Electric System (as of November 30, 1926, after giving effect to important financial changes to January 15, 1927, the issue of these Debentures and the contemplated retirement of indebtedness of the Company and indebtedness and preferred stocks of subsidiary and affiliated companies but exclusive of the participating stock of Clarion River Power Company) consists of $104,964,933 subsidiary and/or affiliated companies funded debt and preferred and common stocks; $12,527,707 perpetual convertible debentures and option warrants; this issue of $40,000,000 5½% Convertible Gold Debentures and also 2,364,404 shares of Preferred, Class A, Class B and Common Stocks. Current market quotation for the Preferred, Class A and Common Stocks, and the estimated value of the Class B Stock, all of which are junior to these Debentures, indicate an aggregate value for these stocks of more than $80,000,000.

These Debentures are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of legal proceedings by our counsel. It is expected that temporary Debentures will be available for delivery on or about February 28, 1927.

Hogs were again on the toboggan, going down mostly 5@10c, with top 20c below high point Tuesday. General average dropped 5c at $11.95, standing as low as any time in four weeks. Trade started in dull and decidedly weak, but finished strong at high time of the day. Price range narrowed somewhat, with best 150@200 lb averages topping at $12.25. Big packers' droves averaging 250@265 lbs cost $11.84@11.87. They started in bidding $11.75, but later paid up to $11.90 for mixed butchers. Shippers took 8,000, being unusually liberal for midweek. Receipts were estimated late at 17,000, with quality good. Today's probable receipts are 42,000, including a good many directs.

Strength appeared in the cattle market, although plain quality held top prices down again, best weighty beeves available stopping at $12.50. A string of 64 from Nebraska averaging 1,456 lbs reached the top, with a few 1,370@1,516 lb averages up to $12.50. Long yearlings averaging 1,161 lbs at $12.25 equal the highest for that weight in two weeks.

Range of cattle prices is wider than a week ago, bulk of good beef cattle selling within a range of $8.75@11.50, against $9.25@11.60 the previous Wednesday. Butcher stock ruled steady to strong.

Lamb prices broke unevenly, 10@35c, in face of dwindling supplies, practical top falling to $13.25, with bulk of slaughter lambs at $12.35@13.10, choice 98 lb averages at the inside price. One short deck of 84 lb fed westerns sold to a city butcher at $13.35 late. Unfavorable reports from the dressed lamb trade was the weakening influence and tended to spread prices, medium and light selling in a wider range. Aged and yearling sheep were firm. Feeding stock held generally steady.

LARGER TRADE IN COTTON

Marked strength in the spot cotton markets with an active demand, combined with talk of farm relief legislation, has resulted in a larger outside interest developing in futures, and with short covering prices advanced sharply. The close was at net gains of 7@15 points here, while New Orleans was up 6@11 points and New York 8@12 points.

Further rains were reported in Texas, which is delaying seeding of spring grains, and it is expected that the land will go back into cotton in consequence, despite the strong efforts being made to curtail the acreage. A large spot house was a good buyer of futures at New York and considerable price fixing was reported. Demand for low grades is active, with the buying orders coming from all countries. Southern spot markets were 10 points higher, with Houston 13.80c, Galveston 13.90c, New Orleans 14c, and New York 14.25c. Government weekly weather report said wet weather impeded field work, and some cotton is still standing in the fields in northeastern portions of the gulf states. Prices follow:

New York, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Drastic correction of some recent speculative excesses in the so-called merger rails featured the highly confusing price movements in today's stock market. Prices started upward with a rush, broke wide open around noon, and then made irregular recovery, with a few issues taking their best prices in the last hour of trading. Business was in enormous volume, the day's sales falling just short of 2,859,000 shares, the largest of any session since last March.

Other than the fact that the Wheeling and Lake Erie and Western Maryland railroads had filed applications with the interstate commerce commission for permission to issue additional common stock to take care of conversions, there was little in the day's news to account for the bewildering movement of prices.

Merger Rumors Denied.

Official denials of a few of the many merger rumors in circulation, such as the one that Atchison was seeking control of the Chicago and Great Western, and banking and brokerage comment anent the fact that several issues were selling out of line with their earning power may have influenced the sudden selling movement against those issues, which originated with bear traders.

Wheeling and Lake Erie common opened 5 points higher at 105, collapsed to 66¾, rallied to 95, and eased to 90. The preferred dropped from an early high of 90 to 79½ and then snapped right back to 87, up 4 points on the day. Western Maryland common broke from a high of 41 to 25 and rebounced to 29½, off 10 points net, while the second preferred dropped from 40⅝ to 28, and came back to 33, off 5¼ points net.

Some Rails Touch New Peaks.

Early in the session new high records had been established by Chicago Great Western, Reading, New Haven, Missouri Pacific preferred, Wabash, the St. Paul issues, and Chicago and Eastern Illinois preferred, but most of them lost ground on the day.

Toffenetti from the Newton & Hoit company of the first floor store and basement at 225 South Wabash and all of the second floor at 221-25, except space used by the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee, comes the announcement that one of the largest restaurants of its kind in the country is contemplated. It will accommodate 500 patrons at one sitting.

The lessee announces that he will spend $150,000 in alterations to the property just acquired. Joseph Ludgin will be the architect. There'll be three dining room units, all to be artificially cooled. The total floor area will be 15,220 square feet.

The lease is for twenty-one years from May 1, 1927, and calls for $18,492 rental the first year; $20,000 annually for two years, and an annual rental of $21,000 for three; $21,492 for three, $22,500 for three, and $22,992 for nine years. L. L. Sachs & Co. were brokers. The lessee operates three loop Triangle restaurants.

The seven acres of land at the southeast corner of East End avenue and 73d, once occuied by the Wanderers' club and more recently by the South Side Tennis club, have been sold by the latter organization to a syndicate for a reported $190,000.

Morgan L. Fitch of the Charles Ringer company, took title for the new owners. The same concern was broker. William A. Rogan was attorney for the club and John Chadwell for the buyer. The property is to be subdivided. The South Side Tennis club is to liquidate, according to B. B. Shaw, secretary.

Torrens Transfers Gain.

First and Refunding Mortgage 4½% Gold Bonds

Due May 1, 2037.

NOT SUBJECT TO REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY.

Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 registerable as to principal and exchangeable for fully registered bonds. Registered and coupon bonds interchangeable upon conditions as stated in the indenture. Interest payable June 1 and December 1.

The issuance and sale of these Bonds are subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

We are advised that these Bonds are a legal investment for Savings Banks under the laws of New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, California, Minnesota, Wisconsin and other States.

For further information regarding the Company and this issue of Bonds, reference is made to a letter dated February 9, 1927, from S. A. Lynde, Esq., Vice-President of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company, copies of which may be obtained from the undersigned, and from which the following is quoted:

"The purpose of the sale of these Bonds is to reimburse the treasury of the company for expenditures heretofore made for additions, betterments and improvements to the Company's property subject to the lien of the First and Refunding Mortgage and for the payment of $6,545,000 principal amount of matured prior lien bonds and for other corporate purposes.

The First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds are secured by a lien on all the Company's lines of railway owned at the date of the mortgage and their equipment and appurtenances, including the very extensive and valuable terminals of the Company in the cities of Chicago and Milwaukee and in other cities which it serves, together with all other property thereafter acquired by the use of bonds secured by the First and Refunding Mortgage. The Company's lines of railroad aggregate 8,383 miles first main track on 1,221.09 miles of which the First and Refunding Mortgage is a first lien, while on the remaining mileage, said equipment, etc., it is or will be subject, in so far as such bonds have liens on the several parts thereof, to $216,023,000 Prior Bonds (including $4,355,000 General Mortgage Bonds which may still be issued for other than refunding purposes), for the refunding of which a like face amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds is reserved. The Company covenants not to renew or extend any of the Prior Bonds. The Prior Bonds for which General Mortgage Bonds are reserved may be refunded by the use of either General Mortgage Bonds or First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds. The Company's $7,371,000 5% Debentures of 1933, included in the above mentioned Prior Bonds, are entitled to share, to the extent required by their terms, in the security of the General Mortgage and the First and Refunding Mortgage. The entire funded debt, other than Equipment Trust Certificates, of the Company outstanding in the hands of the public after the issuance of these $20,572,000 First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds will amount to $251,255,200, equal to only $29,972 per mile of first main track.

The Chicago and North Western Railway Company serves the important territory between the Great Lakes and the Missouri River Valley, and to the west thereof its lines extend into the states of South Dakota, Nebraska and Wyoming. The lines of the Company connect such important centers as Chicago, Illinois, Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin, Des Moines, Sioux City and Council Bluffs, Iowa, Omaha and Lincoln, Nebraska, and Pierre, South Dakota. At Council Bluffs, the Company's lines connect with those of the Union Pacific System, thus forming an important link in a through passenger route to the Pacific Coast.

For the year ending December 31, 1926, the gross income of the Company applicable to the payment of rentals and interest on funded debt amounted to $25,000,542.03, while the rental payments, interest on funded debt and other deductions for that year (other than Federal income taxes) amounted to $12,580,700.75.

The First and Refunding Mortgage 4½% Gold Bonds are secured by a mortgage dated May 1, 1920. The total amount of bonds which may at any one time be outstanding under this mortgage is limited to an amount which, together with all outstanding prior debt of the Railway Company, as defined in the said mortgage, after deducting therefrom the amount of all bonds reserved to refund prior debt at or before maturity, shall never exceed three times the par value of the then outstanding capital stock of the Railway Company.

In addition to the $20,572,000 bonds which you have agreed to purchase, $15,000,000 of 6% Bonds secured by this mortgage have been issued and pledged as part security for the Company's $15,000,000 Ten Year 7% Secured Gold Bonds maturing June 1, 1930 and $15,250,000 of 5% Bonds are issued and outstanding in the hands of the public.

Application will be made in due course to list these bonds on the New York Stock Exchange."

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE ABOVE BONDS, SUBJECT TO ALLOTMENT, AT 95% AND ACCRUED INTEREST TO DATE OF DELIVERY, TO YIELD ABOUT 4.74% TO MATURITY.

The undersigned reserve the right to close the subscription at any time without notice, to reject any application, to allot a smaller amount than applied for and to make allotments in their uncontrolled discretion.

The above bonds are offered if, when and as issued and received by the undersigned and subject to the approval by any public authorities that may be necessary of the issuance and sale of the bonds and to the approval by their counsel of all legal proceedings in connection therewith. Permanent bonds will be delivered against payment in New York funds for bonds allotted.

Sustained by the Uplifting Arm of the Giant, Electricity

Men's minds may finance, plan and manage, but still all industry depends for its existence on the brute forces of Nature. Coal, oil, water, steam—all are important. But more important, more powerful than these, is electricity, the force most tractable, most easily controlled and most ready for use at all times.

The constantly increasing use of electricity for power purposes has added greatly to the revenues of Electric Power and Light Companies and made their securities more and more desirable investments.

$1,500,000 Principal Amount of these Bonds have been sold in Europe

Company: The International Railways of Central America, organized in New Jersey in 1904 to acquire previously existing lines, operates 597 miles of railroad in the Republics of Guatemala and Salvador. The road comprises the principal railroads in the two republics and in Guatemala extends from the Atlantic Coast to the Pacific Coast via Guatemala City. The Company carries over its lines substantially the entire production of the United Fruit Company, within the region served by the railroad. Over 75% of the total revenue of the Company is received in United States dollars or in gold. The executive and operating officials are practically all Americans of long railroad experience.

Diversified agricultural products constitute the bulk of the Company's freight traffic, which produces about 80% of the gross revenues of the company. Of the total freight revenues coffee contributes about 15%, bananas about 15%, and miscellaneous items of freight 70%. The Company has now in course of construction 197 miles of road which will shorten considerably the trade route from the Pacific Coast region of Salvador to the United States and Europe.

Security: These bonds, in the opinion of counsel, will be secured by direct mortgage upon all the lines of railroad, equipment and other physical properties of the Company, subject only to $18,416,666 mortgage bonds outstanding (exclusive of bonds to be pledged under this mortgage and $1,350,000 are security for this issue), for the refunding of which bonds will be reserved under this mortgage. These bonds will also be secured by $3,475,000 principal amount of the Company's first mortgage 5% sinking fund gold bonds of which $2,125,000 will be pledged under this mortgage and $1,350,000 are security for notes of the Company to be pledged under this mortgage. The book value of the property, less depreciation, according to the Company's consolidated balance sheet, as of November 30, 1926, was in excess of $65,000,000. The Company has no equipment trust certificates outstanding and all equipment of the road will form part of the security for these bonds.

Upon completion of the additional 197 miles of road now under construction, the first lien and refunding mortgage will be a direct mortgage, subject to the mortgage bonds above mentioned, on 743 miles of railroad together with all equipment and other physical property owned by the Company. An additional 51 miles of road are owned free and clear by a subsidiary, over 99%, of the stock of which is pledged to secure the first mortgage bonds of the Company.

Upon the retirement of underlying bonds, additional first mortgage bonds of the Company will be pledged under the first lien and refunding mortgage. The Company agrees that by May 1, 1941, this mortgage will have pledged thereunder over 45% of such first mortgage bonds then outstanding.

Purpose of Issue: The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be applied in part toward financing the construction of 197 miles of railroad in Guatemala and Salvador, the completion of which is expected in 1928, and in part for other corporate purposes. A substantial growth in freight tonnage should result from the opening up of this new mileage which will traverse a rich agricultural section and permit a large amount of tonnage to be transported by rail to Eastern Ports of Guatemala for shipment to the United States and Europe.

Earnings: The consolidated income accounts, as certified to by Messrs. Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co., for the calendar years 1924 and 1925, and as reviewed by them for the calendar year 1926 (December estimated), were as follows:

	1924	1925	1926
Railway Operating Revenue	$5,120,572	$6,097,011	$6,866,496
Operating Expenses, Maintenance and Depreciation	2,816,024	3,677,562	3,957,831
Net Operating Revenue	$2,304,548	$2,419,449	$2,908,665
Other Income	103,804	284,956	284,927
Net Earnings (before fixed charges and Federal Income Taxes)	$2,408,352	$2,704,405	$3,193,592
Total annual interest on secured funded debt, including this issue			*1,392,523
Balance for amortization, other interest, Federal Taxes, Dividends, etc.			1,801,069

*Not including interest on obligations to be pledged as collateral for any secured funded debt nor interest on bonds of this issue to be in company's treasury.

Of the above interest $670,000 is not chargeable to current earnings, as it represents interest on obligations for lines now under construction. Such interest is chargeable to capital account as a part of the cost of the new property in accordance with interstate commerce commission procedure. Net earnings of $3,193,592 for the calendar year 1926 were equivalent to over 2.29 times the total annual interest requirements of $1,392,523 as shown above. Such net earnings, after deducting the annual interest and sinking fund which will be payable upon completion of the present financing on obligations prior to this issue are equivalent to more than 4.5 times the maximum annual interest charges on these $7,500,000 of First Lien and Refunding Mortgage 6½% Gold Bonds.

Since 1916 railway operating revenues have increased from $2,575,619 to $6,866,496 and net income from $1,430,612 to $3,193,592.

Of the total funded debt to be outstanding upon completion of this financing approximately $11,500,000 will be represented by investment made and to be made in road now under construction, from which no earnings are now being derived. It is expected that this new trackage will be completed during 1928, subsequent to which earnings of the road should be materially increased.

Territory Served: Guatemala and Salvador, located in the Northern part of Central America, have a combined area (61,000 square miles) greater than the combined area of New York and Massachusetts, while the combined population of 4,200,000 is equal to that of the State of Massachusetts. Both countries are rich in agricultural and other natural resources, coffee, sugar and bananas being the principal export products. Guatemala in 1925 absorbed about one-third of the total imports and shipped about one-third of the total exports of Central America. Total foreign trade of Guatemala in 1925 was over $53,000,000, an increase of more than 100% over that of 1921. Salvador foreign trade in 1925 was over $33,000,000, an increase of 97% since 1921. Both countries have shown material progress in recent years from an economic, political and commercial standpoint.

Bonds are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us, and subject to approval of our counsel. Legal matters will be under the supervision of Messrs. Sullivan & Cromwell. It is expected that temporary bonds, or interim receipts, will be ready for delivery about February 18, 1927.

The following summary is based upon a letter of Mr. Alexander Smith, President of Abitibi Fibre Company, Limited:

THE COMPANY: Abitibi Fibre Company, Limited, has acquired all the properties and assets of the Mattagami Pulp & Paper Company, Limited, as a going concern. These properties, located at Smooth Rock Falls, Northern Ontario, include a complete plant of modern reinforced concrete construction with a manufacturing capacity of 50,000 to 60,000 tons per annum of high grade sulphite pulp, to which bleaching equipment with a capacity of about 30,000 tons per annum was added in 1926, and a complete hydro-electric development with an installed capacity of 9,000 h.p., which supplies power for current needs.

The Company holds a Crown timber license from the Province of Ontario covering approximately 840 square miles of timber lands on watersheds in the neighborhood of its plant, in addition to about 125 square miles of timber areas on the same watersheds owned in fee simple—a total of approximately 965 square miles estimated to contain not less than 3,000,000 cords of spruce pulpwood. This amount assures an ample supply of pulpwood for the Company's requirements.

SECURITY AND ASSETS: These Bonds will be secured by a Deed of Trust and Mortgage, constituting, in the opinion of Counsel, a first mortgage and charge on all of the Company's assets, present and future, specific as to real estate, plants, buildings, equipment, timber areas and other fixed assets, and a floating charge as to all other assets.

Freehold Timber Lands and Crown Timber Limits, as appraised.............	3,000,000.00
Working Capital..	1,347,978.83
Total Assets..	$9,806,197.74

EARNINGS: Net earnings of the properties acquired, available for interest, after deducting all operating charges, maintenance and repairs, but before depreciation and Dominion Taxes, as certified by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co., have been as follows:

Year ended December 31, 1925..............................	$534,611.31

Net earnings for the year 1926, reflecting only in part the operation of the new bleaching plant, were, therefore, over 2.9 times the maximum annual interest charges of $240,000 on these Series "A" Bonds to be outstanding.

SINKING FUND: The Trust Deed will provide for annual sinking fund payments commencing November 1, 1928, estimated to be sufficient to retire over 61% of these Series "A" Bonds prior to maturity, the minimum annual payment being $90,000.

OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT: Abitibi Power & Paper Company, Limited, one of the largest newsprint manufacturing companies in Canada, has purchased all of the issued Preferred and Common stock of the Abitibi Fibre Company, Limited, whose plant and properties are situated in the same territory, assuring efficient co-operation between management of the parent company and its wholly owned subsidiary, and permitting the most economic development of the combined resources of the two companies. It is the intention of the Fibre Company, as and when economic conditions warrant, to develop the property as a newsprint operation, for which power and wood conditions are peculiarly favourable.

All legal matters in connection with this issue of bonds are subject to the approval of Victor E. Mitchell, K.C., D.C.L., of Messrs. McGibbon, Mitchell, Casgrain, McDougall & Stairs, of Montreal, on behalf of the Company, and Messrs. Kilmer, Irving & Davis, of Toronto, and Messrs. Hyde, Hennings, Thulin, Westbrook and Watson of Chicago, on behalf of the Bankers.

We offer these bonds for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us, subject to the opinion of counsel.

65 MILLION RAND AND REMINGTON MERGER IS MADE

BY O. A. MATHER.

And now comes a $65,000,000 merger of concerns manufacturing office equipment. It will embrace the Remington Typewriter company, the Rand Kardex bureau, the Dalton Adding Machine, the Baker Vawter Looseleaf Ledger, and one or more other companies.

Plans for a new holding company to consolidate these interests were approved by the Remington directors yesterday. It will be known as Remington-Rand, Inc., and will have about $15,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock, $6,000,000 of 8 per cent preferred, and 1,300,000 shares of no-par common. It is intended to pay $1.60 annually on the common, beginning with a quarterly dividend of 40 cents about April 1.

Basis of Exchange.

The Remington company is one of the largest typewriter manufacturers in the world. The Rand Kardex is a large manufacturer of office equipment. Remington first preferred stock will receive $115 a share in new first preferred and Remington second preferred will get $115 in new second preferred. Remington common will receive 4½ shares of new common.

Rand Kardex first preferred will receive new first preferred, share for share, and all classes of Rand Kardex common will receive 2 shares of new common. Dalton preferred will be exchanged on the same basis as Remington preferred and Dalton common will receive half a share of new first preferred and one share of new common.

Industrial Reports Cheerful.

"Increasing specifications on contracts and expanding operations mark the first quarter of February in steel," the Iron Age says. "Fewer deep cuts in quotations are now uncovered and stabilization of prices seems to be under way, though not yet accomplished. The January ingot output, 3,807,000 tons, was nearly 10 per cent above Decembr, and while it was by a like percentage under January, 1926, February a year ago fell off from January, while signs now are for broadening activity. Chicago mills are operating close to 85 per cent, or higher than mills farther east. Structural steel inquiries are numerous."

Record Cotton Textile Sales.

January sales of standard cotton textiles reached a record volume of 386,315,000 yards, according to the Association of Cotton Textile Merchants of New York. Sales exceeded production by nearly 70 per cent and stocks were reduced nearly 10½ per cent. Stocks on hand on Jan. 31 totaled 221,306,000 yards. Mills of the Consolidated Textile corporation are running at 95 per cent of capacity.

Increasing competition in the building material industry is forecast by President Sewell L. Avery of the United States Gypsum company in his annual report. Prices of the company's products declined 4 per cent last year, but this was more than offset by decreased manufacturing costs. But Mr. Avery expects this year to prove satisfactory. The stockholders yesterday ratified a $10,000,000 increase in the common stock, bringing the authorized issue up to $25,000,000.

Statement of Condition.

Net income for 1926 was $8,375,747 after all charges, equal after preferred dividends to $11.35 a share on 687,875 common stock outstanding after payment of a 35 per cent stock dividend on Dec. 31. This compares with net income of $8,414,117, or $15.45 a share on 506,915 shares in 1925. After payment of cash dividends of $3,115,000 and stock dividends of $3,567,000 in 1926, the year's surplus was $1,692,000.

The balance sheet as of Dec. 31 last shows current assets $15,929,887 and current liabilities $3,068,737, compared respectively with $16,042,507 and $2,881,030 at the close of 1925. Total surplus is $18,804,981, against $16,789,971 a year before. Plants, etc. are carried at $34,962,977, against $28,605,460 on Dec. 31, 1925.

THREE RAILROADS SEEK AUTHORITY TO ISSUE STOCK

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Three trunk line railroads sought the interstate commerce commission's permission today to make new issues of common stock which the carriers claimed would not represent any increase in their outstanding capital, but would alter their financial structure.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie asked approval of an issue of 227,276 shares of new common, which would be exchanged for a like amount of outstanding preferred and prior lien stocks, in order to correct a shortage of its common shares.

The Western Maryland proposed to do almost exactly the same thing in the issue of 100,000 shares of common stock to be exchanged for second preferred stock in the railroad at the option of holders.

The Erie is seeking to carry out its agreement with holders of series D bonds, which are convertible into common stock at the rate of $50 per share. The company asked permission for an issue of 392,542 shares of new common stock.

ALL GRAINS ARE SHARPLY LOWER ON LIQUIDATION

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Liquidation was on in the grain markets and prices declined sharply with numerous stop loss orders uncovered on the way down. Wheat declined 1¾@2c from the finish of Tuesday, with May touching $1.40 on the break, and the finish was within a fraction of the bottom at net losses of 1⅜@1⅝c, with May $1.40¼@1.40⅝, July $1.33⅞@1.34, and September $1.31⅝. Corn lost ½@1c, with May 80⅝c, July 84c, and September 86⅛@86¼c. Oats were off ⅞@1⅛c, May being 46c and July 46⅜c. Rye rallied 1c from the inside figure, but lost ⅞@1c for the day, with May $1.06⅞@1.07 and July $1.04.

Wheat Breaks Sharply.

Weaknes in wheat in Liverpool, which failed to respond to the strength in America on Tuesday, with snow in western Kansas and parts of Nebraska, where moisture has been badly needed, led to free selling of futures by commission houses, and ran the market into stop loss orders, and sellers of bids were forced to protect themselves on the way down. Buying against bids and short covering checked the break. The most effective selling was headed by Jackson Bros.

There was an absence of the aggressive support in wheat that has been in evidence of late, and sentiment was somewhat more bearish. The pool was credited with selling futures at Winnineg, and there was also pressure there from several professionals who have been on the bull side of late. The close was ⅝@1c lower. Buenos Aires opened unchanged, but closed weak and 1@1½c lower, with March $1.26½ and May $1.28.

Local Longs Sell Corn.

Local traders who have been on the buying side of corn of late were free sellers and found support lacking until May had declined around 1c from Tuesday's finish. Buying against bids and short covering checked the decline. Good rains were reported in Argentina, which will be highly beneficial, but the Buenos Aires market was little affected and closed unchanged with March 63⅜c and May 64⅛c. Eastern cash demand failed to show any improvement.

Tired longs were on the selling side of oats and with stop loss orders prices declined to a new low on the present downturn. Local sentiment more bearish, due to the continued slow cash demand. Country movement reported as smaller.

Liquidation on stop loss orders was on in rye early, but later persistent buying by houses with seaboard connections caused a sharp rally. A little export business with the continent was reported at the seaboard, but foreigners are apparently disposed to go slow in taking hold until the question as to whether Germany will remove the import duty has been settled.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Bearish sentiment predominated in all grains after the close, and a majority of local operators were inclined to look for lower prices. Conservative traders, however, expressed the belief that the technical position has been improved by the sharp break with wheat off 3⅛c, and corn 2c from the high of last week, and advised caution on the short side on breaks

◆

It was the gossip of the trade that part of the selling of wheat yesterday was profit taking on a line that was bought around the recent low point. There was also selling by a local operator who was protecting bids, which added to the heaviness of the market.

◆

A leading Winnipeg wheat exporter who has been bullish of late was credited with being a free seller in that market during the day, and has taken the bear side for a turn.

◆

Seaboard wheat handlers figure that it will be six weeks before the Liverpool wheat market will commence to show independent action. Readjustment between Chicago and Liverpool is regarded as certain, as the spread of less than 7c between the May deliveries is regarded as entirely too narrow.

FOREIGNERS SELL LARD

Houses with foreign connections were on the selling side of lard and with pressure from packers, presumably hedging against purchases of loose, and the weakness in grain prices declined readily and closed at the bottom at net losses of 12½@15c. Cotton oil interests bought early. No improvement was shown in the shipping demand, and the trade looks for a good increase in stocks to be shown in the semi-monthly statement. More activity was shown in meats, with commission houses on the buying side, and ribs gained 15@20c, with bellies unchanged. Two cars of ribs were reported sold by an Indiana packer at 16⅛c. New York cleared 96,000 lbs lard and 431,000 lbs meat for export. Hog market was 10c lower but closed firm. Prices follow:

The Southwest Public Service Company

First Mortgage 6½% Gold Bonds
Series A

To be dated March 1, 1927 — To be due March 1, 1937

Interest payable September 1 and March 1, in Chicago and New York. Coupon bonds registerable as to principal. Redeemable on 30 days' published notice, on any interest date before March 1, 1932, at 102½; thereafter at a gradually reducing premium.

Mr. F. W. Woodcock, who is to be President of the Company, summarizes his letter to us as follows:

Business: The Southwest Public Service Company will be organized as a Maryland corporation, to render retail and wholesale ice and cold storage service in the southeastern section of Kansas and the northeastern section of Oklahoma, including 43 cities and towns with a population of 79,600.

Competition: The plants operate without active competition in the towns served. The properties in Oklahoma operate under licenses from the Corporation Commission of that state and have the same degree of protection from competition as the transportation, transmission and other public utility companies.

Security: These bonds are to be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct first mortgage on all of the fixed assets of the company. Appraisal by independent engineers shows a value of the properties to be acquired, including fixed assets, considered collectively, as of September 30, 1926, of $1,500,000.

Earnings: Consolidated income of the properties, as prepared by Messrs. Haskins and Sells, Certified Public Accountants, was as follows;

Operating Expenses	239,333	215,352	235,781
Net income available for interest, depreciation and Federal Taxes	$234,449	$160,697	$177,435
Annual Interest requirements on $900,000 Series A Bonds (this issue)	$ 58,500

Such net income for the nine months ended September 30, 1926, was $196,405. Profits totaling $584,100 were distributed in cash during the period of three years and nine months ended September 30, 1926.

Ownership and Management: The Company is to be controlled by Consolidated Public Service Company and the active management and operation of the properties are to be under the supervision of Messrs. Day and Zimmermann, Engineers, together with local interests with more than 20 years' successful experience in the management of ice properties.

We offer these Bonds for delivery if, when and as issued and received by us, subject to the approval of legal proceedings by our counsel, Messrs. Cotton & Franklin, New York, except as to titles to property, which are to be passed upon by Messrs. O'Meara & Silverman of Tulsa, Oklahoma. It is expected that delivery will be made on or about February 17, 1927, in the form of temporary bonds or interim receipts.

The City of Santiago, founded in 1541, is the capital and chief city of the Republic of Chile. Its population at January 1, 1926, was 611,000, having more than doubled since 1900. The assessed valuation of property in the city in 1925 was approximately $280,000,000. The notes constitute the direct obligation of the municipality, which has no other external debt. Total debt, including this issue of notes, was equivalent at December 31, 1926, to less than $2,600,000.

The proceeds of this loan are to be used for the repayment of floating debt, chiefly incurred for the purchase or construction of public works.

The Republic of Chile is on a gold basis, the Chilean peso having a gold parity of $0.12166 and being currently quoted at about this rate. The Banco Central, the Chilean bank of issue, at November 5, 1926, had total reserves equaling over 100% of its outstanding obligations of every nature to the public.

These notes are offered when, as and if issued and accepted by us and subject to the approval of counsel, Messrs. Sullivan & Cromwell and Messrs. "I have always used The Tribune Want Ads to rent our apartments. The result has been that we have not had a vacant apartment for twelve years, and only once have I run an ad longer than three days."
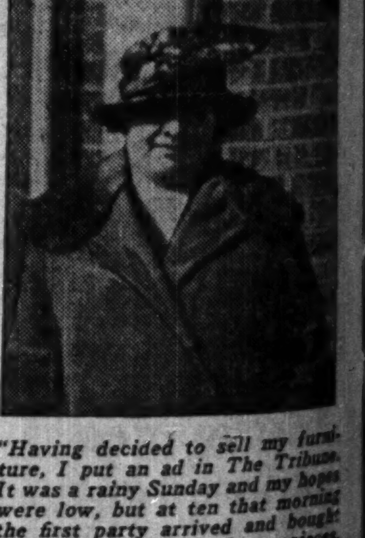
JOHN G. HOEGER,
832 Lafayette Parkway.



"Having decided to sell my furniture, I put an ad in The Tribune. It was a rainy Sunday and my hopes were low, but at ten that morning the first party arrived and bought practically all of the larger pieces. During the next few days the remaining ones were sold. The Tribune has always been my medium for successful advertising."

Starring Dulcie Jayne

By Virginia Tracy.

SYNOPSIS.

Cornelia Marsh, employed in the scenario department of Hertzog's motion picture studio at Fort Lee, learns with sorrow that Henry Horner, the head of the department, has been fired by Lyman Hertzog, son of the owner of the studio. Every one knows that Lyman is jealous of Henry because he is in love with Dulcie Jayne, the star of the studio, but Dulcie seems to prefer her director, Daniel K. Leland. Mr. Hertzog suggests to Lyman that they feature Leland as an actor as well as a director. Lyman quarrels violently with his father and the latter has a stroke of apoplexy.

INSTALLMENT XVII.

JOHNNY-ON-THE-SPOT.

Mr. Horner started to walk out. Lyman leaned across his path.

"You're going. But I'm staying. And things have kind of changed, Henry, kind of changed! I can buy something better than trick fans, now. I got the right of way, now. And anything else I want I can get, I guess. I'll be Johnny-on-the-Spot, you see. And you won't. Get me, Henry?"

His shortish, thick-set figure still leaned in front of Mr. Horner, his outthrust face moving from side to side, as if tempting Mr. Horner to slap it.

"She showed you how much use she had for your presents! Her kisses come too high for you all right!" Suddenly, in a little puff of elation and rage there seemed to blow out of Lyman the words, "No more fans, you damned freshie!"

Mr. Horner's muscles did not tighten, but his childish lips lengthened and thinned. Unfortunately, as he stood looking at Lyman with a kind of blank intentness, his free hand absently, but neatly, folded up the subscription list. "Gimme that!" shouted Lyman and made a snatch. Mr. Horner put the list in his pocket. Still more unfortunately, Lyman lifted his book and struck Mr. Horner with it.

So that the blow might reach Mr. Horner's face, Lyman had sprung, true to his slogan, above and beyond his normal reach, and his jump landed him on Mr. Horner's chest which, for the fraction of a second, he seemed trying to bite; his dumpy, expensively clad feet kicked viciously at Mr. Horner's long legs. Then he was still; held in a vise.

One of Mr. Horner's long, slim legs had clutched round both Lyman's; one of his large, slim hands held both Lyman's sturdy wrists. His other arm tightly encircled Lyman, supporting him in that altitude, quite a way up his own person, to which Lyman had ascended. Thus held aloft, Lyman for a moment thought seriously of spitting, but abandoned the project, frightened by his paralysis within that grip of steel. The book with which he had struck Mr. Horner fell to the ground.

"You oughtn't to get this way, Lyman."

"You oughtn't to get this way, Lyman," said Mr. Horner, pacifically. "There must be nearly five inches between us. Besides, though I guess people don't realize it much, I do—really—know how to fight. I admire you're asking for it, but it wouldn't be decent, hardly." Looking up to explain, he added, as though he had at last reached a rational ground of complaint, "I don't exactly know what to do with you, either!"

Lyman, offering no solution, demanded to be set down.

"Well, I guess I'll have to. It's only natural I should feel I ought to stand you on your head out in the water cooler. But that'ud be a little bit too showy with your father not here." Carrying Lyman to his father's doorway, "You struck out with lots of pep," said Mr. Horner, reassuringly. "The way you want to feel is, you only just need a little instruction."

He slid Lyman to his feet on the further side of the door and shut it. His eye, seeking to avoid the scenario department, passed over it toward the hall. Then a quick look of pain worried his face. "Leland!" he called. "Dan! Wait!"

For the great Daniel K. was turning past the conjunction of corridors toward Mr. Hertzog's own door. At Mr. Horner's call he shifted his course toward the scenario department, still under convoy of a palpitating and triumphant little blue tug that flew a golden banner. He slanted an expressive thumb toward the inner office. "Had a phone Hertzog wants to see us both for the final arrangements on 'Passion Pride.'"

"He means himself," said Henry Horner, somewhat obscurely. "Don't go in yet." He swallowed. "It's not what you think. And I—I've made Lyman extra sore. He had me where I couldn't help it. I couldn't help it, really!" he insisted almost passionately to Leland.

"Why should you help it?" demanded the rich, ruthless little voice of Dulcie Jayne. "What's the matter with you, Henry? What if he is sore?"

"I'll be gone. I don't matter. But——" He turned apologetically to the scenario department. "And perhaps I've made it rockier for the rest of you. You ought to know right away. Mr. Hertzog's awfully sick. He got unconscious while Nathan was taking him home—apoplectic coma, the doctors say. He's better, but he can't attend to business for months—danger of paralysis, isn't it, Nathan? When he can be moved they'll take him out of this climate for the winter." He cleared his throat. "Mrs. Hertzog was only able to get hold of Lyman just as his father was coming to." Henry Horner's eyes went back to Leland's again. The two men looked at each other with a disregard of the startled girl between them, which had the curious result of making the very breaths they drew seem to center upon her. "He made Lyman general manager. Lyman's left here in full charge."

The silence turned from ice to lead. The stunned eyes of the scenario department sought the floor. Cornelia's rested vaguely upon a scarlet object almost at her feet. Then this object took form for her and her mind registered its proper title.

The jacket of Cornelia's suit fell from her hand, and when she had picked it up again there was no longer any scarlet object on the floor. The scenario department had a rule against taking books home for special review without permission. But nice customs curtsy to movie queens. Even when they don't know it. For the scarlet object was a copy of a popular novel which had dropped from Lyman's hand. And the novel's title was "Heart of Fire."

* * * * * *

The great moment of Mrs. Marsh's day was due at about a quarter past seven, P. M. For then she would hear Cornelia's key in the lock and, looking up, would see her young daughter standing in the doorway; standing modestly, excitedly blooming and smiling—home from school, back from college, even from publishers' offices, bearing all the prizes, wearing all the honors, getting such wonderful reviews! A slender girl, with nice clear hazel eyes and such a pretty dark fluffiness of bronze hair! A little fussily fastidious, perhaps, about her delicate, sheer collars and cuffs, and strangely different from that child she had, well, blended out of a while ago—that little Princess Royal, who used to be carried to parties and stood on marble topped tables to speak bits of Cleopatra and Juliet with papa.

To have disentangled these two creatures, the girl and the child, was surely all that could be expected from any one mother. It would be a little too much if you asked Mrs. Marsh to perceive a third figure, whose slenderness had become spareness, the dark brown of whose fluffy hair was smeared dull with gray and the clear hazel of whose eyes was faded with reading two or three novels a day and practicing continuity in the evenings. But whose fastidiousness about her collars and cuffs was even fussier! A middle-aged maiden lady coming home like all the rest of Hertzog's five-dollar-a-day readers—O, no, Mrs. Marsh would never catch a glimpse of any such person in the doorway!

Seventy-five members of the Borrowed Time club of Oak Park met in their twenty-fifth anniversary celebration yesterday at the First Presbyterian church and passed on the torch from the past to the future.

As the setting sun glanced through the stained windows of the church and rested on their white heads they listened to the voice of the club's founder, "Father" E. F. Robbins, talking to them from his old harness shop at 127 Lake street, and singing a verse of his favorite hymn, beginning:

"Father" Robbins has been dead for seventeen years and the old fashioned Edison record on which his voice was recorded was made in 1905 when he was 89 years old by Philander W. Barclay.

"I was born in First street, New York City, on the 20th of June in the year of our Lord 1816," said the voice of Father Robbins. "This was very near the place where George Washington took leave of his army officers after the Revolutionary war. My father had a furniture wareroom on Broadway when Gen. Lafayette paid his last visit to this country. I was the oldest of four children and labored on a farm with my uncle, Col. Julius Chapman, during summers for seven years and went to school during the winters.

"The schools were opened with prayer and scriptures. Scholars were required to bow to teachers on entering and leaving school and also bow to persons passing the schoolhouse while they were at play. The people were social and kindly disposed in all the relations of life, a most blessed condition of things."

The voice of "Father" E. W. Heard, talking in 1905 at the age of 93, was also heard distinctly in the church. He, too, sang a hymn, the familiar one about the "fountain filled with blood, drawn from Immanuel's veins."

In answer to the past the living members of the club gathered around the machine and made a new record to be heard, perhaps, 25 years from now. They sang two verses from America, and Sergt. John K. McBain, old Indian fighter, told a story of Lincoln and something of the winning of the west.

The members of the club die at the rate of from 12 to 20 a year. Any one can join who has passed the age of three score and ten and wishes to gather socially once a week. They can't agree on religion, so they bar that from discussions. When a member dies the survivors pass in single file before his casket and drop a white flower there.

President Walter N. Lenhart led the anniversary program. Churches, clubs, and civic organizations responded, and the Oak Park municipal quartet sang. The Rev. William A. Carver read a poem, "My Borrowed Time," and the Rev. R. B. Favoright made the address of the day.

Miss Kneisel Found Worthy Famed Name

In listening to the Marianne Kneisel string quartet for the first time at Kimball hall last night, one caught something more than the echo of a famous name. Marianne Kneisel, the daughter of the late Franz Kneisel, is, one imagines, firmly grounded in the same musical principles that made her father one of the notable figures of his day; her quartet played much the same sort of program that his was in the habit of doing. At the same time, she is something of a personality in her own right, though too good a musician to permit herself to overshadow the modest but seemly attainments of her three associates, Elizabeth Worth, Lillian Fuchs, and Phyllis Kraeuter.

The program began with Haydn's Quartet in D, continued with two briefer works, Gliere's Theme and Variations and the scherzo from a quartet by Robert Kahn, and ended with Dvorak's "American" Quartet. The performance of the organization was a performance of gentle grace, of excellent intonation, of exquisite tone, of intelligence.

It was seldom forceful—for that matter string quartet music is infrequently constructed for forcefulness—but it was often persuasive because of its tranquil kindliness and musical good manners.

Candy Declared Aid to Sylphlike Figure

If you're going in for reducing, ladies, by all means put candy first on the list of things you may eat.

Such is the revolutionary advice of H. R. Wilson of St. Louis, who expounded his ideas on the topic before the convention of the Midland Confectioners' association at the Palmer house yesterday.

Candy, contended Mr. Wilson, has been the victim of a whispering campaign conducted across the bridge table and over the teacups these many years, and for which there is only the excuse of ignorance. For, he explained, candy is rich in carbohydrates, which are energy builders. And the woman who starts reducing by exercising and drastically restricting her diet needs just such concentrated energy without bulk as candy in the diet provides.

The Inquiring Reporter

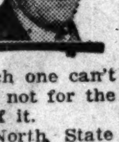
Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question C. B. McConnell, 3926 Conn street, Gary, Ind., was awarded $5.

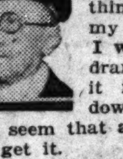
The Question.

How has prohibition affected your desire or ability to obtain liquor?

The Answers.



S. L. Fishman, 4332 Van Buren street, sales engineer.—I'll admit it has affected my desire very much. I was a teetotaler before prohibition, and at that time a chemist and working for a brewery. It follows psychologically that one wants that which one can't get—in this case, for me, not for the drink but for the sport of it.



A. R. Tressler, 1236 North State street, realty.—It has not affected my desire for liquor, nor do I think it would affect my ability to get it if I wanted it. I never drank liquor, but since it is peddled in the downtown buildings it would seem that any one wanting it could get it.

Miss Vera Simester, 2313 Jackson boulevard, receptionist.—I have never had any desire to obtain it. Prohibition has done much to do away with the evils of strong drink The 18th amendment has been in effect only a few years, and it will take many years before the good effects will be appreciated.

Albert Habich, 105 North Clark street, real estate.—I quit patronizing saloons a good many years before the prohibition law went into effect, so it has not made any difference as to my desire to obtain liquor. The problem of whether or not liquor is a good thing was, for me, decided permanently then and there.

William Arthur Johnson, 424 St. James place, character analyst.—It has not affected me. Broadly speaking, people can be divided into two divisions, one having strong will power and moral courage, the other being affected by conditions and environment. The former are in the majority and are not affected by the liquor question.

$95,000 Is Asked to Finance Work of Travelers' Aid

For the first time in its history the Travelers' Aid society of Chicago will make a direct appeal to the public for funds to carry on and extend its work. This was decided at a meeting of the society executives held in the Union League club yesterday afternoon, when the week of March 6 was set for an intensive drive. The sum sought is $95,000.

In making the announcement E. H. Scott, president, explained that more than 80,000 travelers arriving in Chicago last year had been assisted in various ways by the society workers posted at the railway stations, and this without charge. The work, he said, had grown to such an extent that it was becoming impossible for the present limited staff to cope with it, and extra workers were urgently needed.

At present, he explained, the revenue of the society, derived from private subscriptions and occasional gifts, permitted of the stationing of but one worker at a time in each station.

Of the 80,000 assisted last year, he said, more than 11,000 were unable to speak English, 3,354 were children traveling alone, about 5,000 were strangers to the city who had failed to meet friends or relatives, more than 2,000 were physically handicapped and some 200 or more were runaways, who were picked up and returned to their homes.

Hitherto, said Mr. Scott, the society had relied upon private gifts to finance this work, but now it was felt the time had come when the citizens should be asked to contribute to a service that redounded to the credit of the city as a whole. Relatively, he said, the sum asked was small, compared with the service rendered.

THEATER

"THE RAGGED EDGE":

Play, in three acts, by Francis Langer in a translation and arrangement by George Abbott and Marion Gering: made known in Chicago (by the Chicago Play-Producing Company and the firm of Brady & Wiman) February 9, 1927, in the Princess Theater, with this cast:

Francis, a waiter	Robert Ames
Anna, a street-walker	Wanda Lyon
Tony	John E. Hamilton
Backus	David Landau
Urban, a builder	R. D. Barrows
His wife	Mari Worth
Her maid	Enid Romany
An ex-judge	Frank Sylvester
A cabaret-manager	Derick Wulffe
A wealthy patron	W. R. Gregory
A police-inspector	Malcolm Dunn
A policeman	Griffin Crafts

Tidings from the Princess are not nearly as propitious as local pride would prefer. True, the Chicago Play-Producing Company delivered, at five dollars per caput, a comely, an eager, and a hopeful audience; and young Mr. Brady and young Mr. Wiman delivered a cast and some trappings that evidenced a willingness to spend money. But Mr. Langer's play was not an ingratiating nor a reasonable document: at least, it was not in last night's version, which, however, was more than likely a faithful make-over into English of the original; and Mr. Gering's staging and direction were a good bit of a mess after all reasonable timeout had been deducted for the traditional flurries of a première.

There is a faint odor of Molnar's "Liliom" in the episodes of "The Ragged Edge." Francis, a minor jailbird, attaches himself to the precarious earnings of Anna, kills one of her customers who thinks he is the victim of the badger-game, and then devises an alibi so admirable that not only do the police praise him, but the widow rewards him by giving to him the jewelry and clothing of the dead man. Measurable prosperity follows for Francis and Anna: he teaches to her the hokum of the floor-shows, and obtains employment with her in one of the best of the cabarets, where their dancing makes of them the idols of the night-joint crowd.

But Francis insists on talking about how he killed old Urban, although his narrative omits Anna's part in the brawl. His intimates laugh at him, and tell him he is boasting; the police deride him, and insist that they know precisely how the old rounder died. Each assurance that he is safe from detection drives him into new frenzies of confession. He must, he insists, be known as a man who has done murder; and Anna, who loves him and is untrue to him with every man who bids for her favors, begs that he make himself happy by killing her. He forthwith chokes her to death, and greets with joy the policemen who are called to jail him.

Mr. Abbott,—who has provided an underworld jargon which he says is an English equivalent of the original text,—is quoted as saying that the play is a study in the propulsive power of conscience; but the psychology here isn't in alignment with common experience. Francis does not mean to kill or even seriously to injure his victim: the circumstances and the direct consequences would combine to give to him not only a sense of security, but also a conviction that the deed was not one for which he should be made to suffer. So much for this dancing waiter as a "study." Regarded as a survey of the kind indicated by the title in its sociological implication, the play is commonplace in its selection of incidents and types.

Mr. Gering's mise-en-scène is a scheme of innovations that do not quite come off, and is a fresh illustration of the foolishness that lies in the tendency to do away with old methods before something is found to take their place. The devices designed to give speed, continuity, and flow to a construction calling for eleven changes of setting made last night for delay in performance and for the destruction of realism in the performing. . . . This performing was good mainly where it concerned incidental or non-essential parts, or in scenes of minor consequence as drama. Mr. Ames seemed uncertain as to what most of it was about; and Miss Lyon was just a mistake of casting. Mr. Landau and Mr. Sylvester were capital.

Hello! London on Line; Drop $78, Please

Chicago-England Phone Opens Saturday.

Trans-Atlantic telephone service between Chicago and London will be officially opened next Saturday morning and the service will be extended to all cities in Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin, F. O. Hale, vice president of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, announced last night.

The rate for three minutes will be $78. Mr. Hale will open the line with a call to H. E. Shreeve of the American Telephone and Telegraph company in London. At conclusion of the conversation the line will be open between all telephones in Great Britain.

Calls across the Atlantic will be made in exactly the same manner as ordinary long distance calls. The telephone user will call "long distance," and file his request for connection across the Atlantic, giving the name and address of the person or the number of the telephone wanted.

While the initial rate of $78 will be charged for the first three minutes, a rate of $[illegible] a minute will be charged for additional service.

The route of the Chicago-London line is by land line from Chicago to New York, then to the Rocky Point, Long Island, radio transmitting station, then by radio across the Atlantic to the receiving station at Wroughton, England, then by wire to London.

On the other side messages are carried from London to the Rugby radio transmitting station and thence across the Atlantic to the receiving station at Houlton, Me., and from there by land wire to New York.

Mr. Shreeve, who will receive the first call in London, was the first man to hear the human voice across the Atlantic. This was in 1915 during the experiments conducted by the American Telephone and Telegraph company. He was stationed in the receiving station at the Eiffel tower in Paris and heard words spoken in Washington and put on the air over the Arlington naval station antenna.

Woman's Fair to Show Education of Babies

Educating the baby as to its social responsibilities, even before kindergarten age, is the object of a number of "backyard schools" established in settlements in place of the old day nurseries, and in the backyards along the north shore. To teach children to play with those of their own age, and to develop in them a social sense that will make even the kindergarten more understandable, is a necessity of the poor little rich baby as well as of those in congested districts, it is said.

A group of women interested in the "backyard schools" were guests yesterday of Miss Helen Bennett at a luncheon at the Woman's City club, to discuss the instruction provided and to prepare for an exhibit at the Woman's World's Fair at the Coliseum, May 19 to 27.

The guests at the luncheon, representing junior elementary schools, kindergartens, extension colleges, the Pestalozzi-Froebel Teachers' college, and the "backyard school," included Mrs. Hubbard Carpenter, Miss Frances K. Kern, Miss Martha Seeling, Miss Lucia Morse, Miss Mabel Kearns, and Mrs. R. W. Gruner.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Little Girl Needs a Coat.

"Could you please find me a winter coat or other clothing for my little girl of 11? We have been obliged to keep her from school part of the time during the cold weather, as she had no warm coat. My wages are small and barely enough for our needs. F. W."

It's a pity to keep this little girl from school for lack of clothing when there are so many discarded garments she might be wearing. May she have the things your young daughter can no longer wear?

Can't Afford Dancing Togs.

"I wonder if any one has a discarded fairy costume or a butterfly costume, size 16, and a pair of ballet slippers, size 5, they no longer need? I am taking dancing lessons, but cannot afford to buy these articles.

"J. F."

Our young terpsichorean would be better equipped to pursue her art if she had these articles. Can you supply her with them?

BY NANCY R——.

Those of Chicago's fashionable world who wended their way down to the Princess theater last evening, found an unofficial stage set for them the instant they left their motors at the curb. Crowds lined the entrance to the theater, more crowds filled the lobby; flashlights popped; every one was agog to view the long heralded dress rehearsal of "The Ragged Edge," the Chicago Play Producing company's first venture of the season.

Discussion of the play itself belongs in another column, but that it sustained the interest of most of the audience, from the first sudden eclipsing of the house lights, leaving the watchers in a gasping darkness, to the tragedy of the last, and thirteenth scene, is worthy of mention.

For it was an audience sophisticated and trained in the way of the theater, and it approached last evening's performance in a curious, expectant frame of mind, not forgetting that, as Kenneth Macgowan remarked yesterday at the Drama League luncheon at the Casino, it was but a rehearsal.

In the two upper right hand boxes was a gay group, including the Byron Harveys, the Cyrus McCormicks, the Barrett Wendells, Prince and Princess Michel Cantacuzene, Mrs. David Adler, and William McC. McKee. Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, beaued by Edwin Krenn, slipped into seats in the last row of the theater, preferring them to the third row places reserved for them. Arthur Bissell, president of the C. P. P. C., had an aisle seat in the center of the house, while Arthur Aldis, another of the enterprise's leading spirits, sat nearer the stage.

◆

The Joseph T. Ryersons, the Andrews Kings, and the Billy Clows arrived together, just a few minutes ahead of the John Bordens and the Chauncey Borlands. Arthur Heun escorted Miss Katherine Dudley and Miss Alice Roullier to view the presentation, and scattered about the house I noticed such familiars as the Rosecrans Baldwins, the Mitchell Follansbees, pretty Jane Scriven, Mrs. A. A. Carpenter, and Miss Nellie Carpenter, Mrs. Clair More, the Charles Strobels, the Lucius Teters, the Donald Ryersons, the J. Hamilton Lewises, Mrs. E. R. Dunham, the William S. Monroes, the Charles Barney Goodspeeds, the Gardner Hammonds, the Howard Willetts, Edward Bennett, Albert Isham, E. E. Prendergast, and George Tobin.

Day's News in Society

The Drama league's luncheon at the Casino yesterday for Miss Ruth Draper was a gay and festive affair. Mrs. Howard Willett, the club president; Miss Chrystal Herne, Miss Draper, Mrs. Charles E. Kohl, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Kenneth Macgowan, Mrs. Clyde Stevens, Mrs. Charles H. Besly, Mrs. W. F. Tuttle, and Mrs. W. S. Leeds sat at the speaker's table. There were several talks after the luncheon, and announcement was made of the league's matinée party for this afternoon to attend the performance of "On Approval" at the Selwyn theater.

Frank O. Salisbury, the British artist, best known for his portraits of the king and queen of England, the prince of Wales, and many English titled persons, is to arrive today to open an exhibition at the Anderson Art gallery. Mr. Salisbury is to be the guest of Mrs. Moses J. Wentworth of 1240 Lake Shore drive during this his first visit to Chicago. Portraits of Mrs. Wentworth, Elbert H. Gary, and Dr. S. Parkes Cadman are among the paintings being exhibited.

Hurley of 3400 Sheridan road is to be hostess at the first lecture on Feb. 23, and thereafter the lectures will be held on the following Wednesdays at the respective residences of Mrs. Cudahy, Mrs. Lester Armour of 325 Wellington avenue, Mrs. William Roy Carney, and at the Quigley seminary.

The list of Chicago girls who received bids for and attended the Yale prom held at New Haven last week-end included Janet Chase, Miss Barbara Neff, daughter of Nettelton Neff; Miss Margaret Hitt, Miss Helen Scudder, Miss Janice McNear, Miss Brier Wright, and Miss Alicia Patterson. Miss Suzette Dewey, daughter of the Charles S. Deweys of Washington and Chicago, was also a guest.

◆

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hotz of Lake Forest have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens Van Alyea [Margaret Fitch] in Milwaukee.

The Heyliger de Windts of Winnetka and Mrs. de Windt's father, John Holmes Arnold, who have been at Biloxi, Miss., for the last month, are to depart Sunday for New Orleans for a week before their return north.

Mrs. Robert Hall Warren [Harriet May] of Neenah, Wis., and her mother, Mrs. John E. May of the Ambassador hotel, are in Philadelphia for a round of visits.

Baroness Tells of Her Own Impoverishment to Help Other Needy

Swept by the fierce tide of the Russian revolution from a life of ease in her own land to that of factory hand, chocolate dipper, wrapper of soap, school teacher, secretary, and finally lecturer in America, the Baroness Catherine de Hueck proved yesterday that she had retained her capacity for laughter, as she detailed her experiences to the student body at Loyola university.

"As a knitter of underwear I was terrible," she confessed. "I'm glad I don't know who had to wear the suits I turned out. And as a dipper of chocolates, I learned never to eat another chocolate. Then somebody discovered I could talk, which isn't unusual for a woman, and here I am."

Her estates and jewels confiscated by the bolsheviks, her relatives murdered or starved to death, her husband an invalid through wounds and shell shock, their lives and that of their small son in danger many times, she said, they managed to escape in peasant costumes through the assistance of a friendly young bolshevik, and for the last five years they have lived in Canada.

Her lecture was given under the auspices of the Catholic Near East Welfare association, which is seeking one million permanent members to maintain and expand work in Russia and the near east.

I was a second year student nurse in a large hospital, when one day a woman who had come to visit a patient passed through the hall and spoke to me and said: "I don't believe you remember me."

"I told her I hated to admit it, but I was afraid I didn't, and she said: "Don't you recall you took care of my mother when she was ill here in room 29?"

I couldn't remember, but not wanting to be rude and let her know this, I said: "O, why, of course, I remember your mother now. She was such a lovely patient. How is she getting along now?"

Can you imagine my embarrassment when she remarked: "Why, Miss Jones, don't you remember she died?" M. O. P.

Sheer Frocks and Women's Hygiene

New way safer—Discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton "pads," it permits one to dance, motor, go about for hours without a moment's doubt. Also deodorizes; thus ending all fear of offense.

Obtain at any store without embarrassment simply by saying "KOTEX." Box of 12 costs only a few cents. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

No laundry—discard like tissue

Massage Better than Astringents for Aging Skins

by Antoinette Donnelly

Mrs. X. writes to inquire about the advantages of massage given by a professional over the advantages of the home administered one. In her case, she can afford the services of a professional, but is a bit in doubt about the advisability of it, having heard stories of how you are forced to buy tissue builders and tonics and astringents to apply yourself at home, anyway. In the selling of these articles, importance is given their value to the skin.

"Are the materials more helpful, then," my correspondent asks, "than the actual massage? And, if so, why couldn't one just use them without bothering with the professional at all?"

To understand the value of massage one has to know a little about the cause of wrinkles and bagginess. Under the skin there is a layer of fat which tends to disappear as we grow older. When this fat disappears the skin becomes slack and hasn't the power to stretch as it used to. The jaw line shows this tendency to bagginess more plainly because there are larger pads of fat along that line than elsewhere in the face.

So, of the two—the materials used for tissue building and massage movements—the latter is really of greater use in sustaining a smooth character of skin than the former. While the materials referred to have value, they cannot restore that natural layer of fat. Astringents or shrinking creams will give a certain temporary relief. But, to my way of thinking, the real advantage to the skin comes with the toning of the muscles and the stimulating of the blood circulation, and this you get better from massage movements.

For one who can afford the services of a professional I should advise picking out an expert operator and committing the face to her professional care. The majority of women are lazy or too occupied otherwise to give the time or patience to the performance. A great many do not know how to go about it, and if you massage with downward movements, say, when the upward ones are what the face needs, more harm than good will come of it.

However, there is a simple massage process that is stimulating and muscle toning that you cannot go wrong on—if you are half bright, anyway.

It is simply beating a tattoo on the face for five minutes morning and night with the fingertips. Rain light blows all over the face until you experience an exhilarating sensation. Use a little tissue builder or nourishing cream at the same time.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

M. T. P.: THE PORES BECOME enlarged because they are clogged with secretions and it takes time and patience to overcome them. Scrub the face with hot water and soap, rinse in warm water, then cold water. If possible follow up with an ice rub which is about the most effective way of closing the pores and toning up the skin. Witchhazel, if warmed, is another excellent astringent.

Paves Way!

Business girls who get there know that good looks and exquisite grooming pave the way! That's why so many like pretty Miss Ellen Gaffney, value so highly the immaculate loveliness of complexion that comes from using Black and White Cleansing Cream. So light and soft it melts at a touch, it searches every pore for impurities which would cause blackheads and other blemishes, and keeps your skin dewily fresh, clear and youthful. You can get this delightful cream from 80,000 dealers everywhere. The large 50c packages contain more than twice as much as the generous 25c ones.

Miss Gaffney, who lives at 176 Marion St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I depend on the soft, melty Black and White Cleansing Cream for the nightly and noon-day cleansing I consider the most important part of complexion care. It removes every trace of dust, soot and powder, and leaves my skin glowingly clean and silky."

Best results come from using Black and White Skin Soap along with the Black and White Beauty Creations.

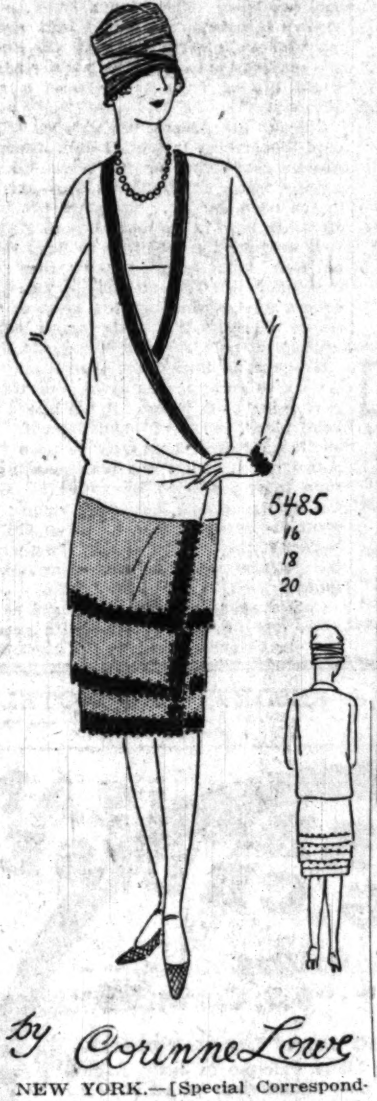
Two Tones of Beige Comprise This Gown



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—There may be some deep rooted affinity between Eve and the rib. At all events, womankind seems to be haunted by an affection for those ribbed fabrics. Although these reached their highest peak of consideration several seasons ago, smart women continue to exploit, in both coats and frocks, a predilection for poplins and failles.

Here is a poplin afternoon frock which ought to give one a good dress score when playing at the afternoon bridge. It is made in the surplice style which is still so good, and it is developed in two tones of beige. Let us say right here, too, that this tint promises to be just as smart this spring as ever before in its history.

The bodice of the frock is developed in a flesh colored beige which is being used frequently for both afternoon and evening models. To this is attached a skirt composed of three tiers of old rose poplin, an old rose perceptibly tinged with beige.

These two tones blend charmingly, and they are both given an unifying color contrast by the rust colored satin ribbon applied as trimming. On skirt and sleeves this ribbon shows a picoted edge.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Cooking Information in the Dictionary.

Some of our correspondents have a way of saving up questions until they get enough to require at least a three page answer and then writing them out for our attention. We do not approve. We like to be able truly to answer a letter, and could carry on a far livelier correspondence if we could get these questions one at a time. But, quite seriously, we really hate to give short shrift to a letter, but what to do? Days are short and tasks many.

We are delighted when we get one good question that gives us a topic, and grateful, too, and there are such in a long letter we have just received, while there are a number that could be answered straight from the dictionary, which is one of the most interesting and beautiful books in the world. An unabridged dictionary is full of cooking items, with interesting little sidelights on subjects, often, which you will not find in a cook book. Take one question from the list just received. It is this: "What is isinglass in cookery?" First, it is something far more interesting, of course, than isinglass in a stove door, which is mica.

But the dictionary says that it is "a semi-transparent, whitish, and very pure form of gelatin, chiefly prepared from the sounds, or air bladders, of sturgeons from the rivers of western Russia. It is used for making jellies, as a clarifier, etc. Cheaper forms of gelatin are often so called."

But first it says that it is literally "bladder of the huso or large sturgeon," and then refers us to huso, bladder, and the blast which is a gust of wind. All of which, especially the last bit, seems entertaining and reminds us of the German name for the cream puff, which means wind bag (Windbeutel).

In a French cooking school I saw isinglass used all the time, and it was like a great sheet of the thinnest glass; but it seems, from a cooking dictionary, that the isinglass, when dried, just as it comes from the fish, has many forms and so is called pipe, lump, leaf, honeycomb.

Curtain Goes Up on Old Fashioned Girl; Exit Flapper

BY DORIS BLAKE.

A recent dispatch form the coast carries the "news" that the old fashioned girl, as a prospective wife, gets the vote by a huge majority in college youth preference. Sixty-four per cent of the young men voting on the preference of type of girl for marriage purposes paid homage to her. The flapper, to prove she is out of style as well as out of taste, earned but 7 per cent indorsement. The medium mannered girl, not definitely defined but supposedly a combination of flapper and conventional, got 14 per cent of the votes.

From the news report, which isn't news at all, since men have gone on practicing old fashioned girl preferences by major vote for ages, the denounement of the flapper is certain.

Some one early the days of flapperhood predicted exactly what has happened: that there wouldn't be any more of her specie immediately men showed preference elsewhere. So it has come to pass.

But the old fashioned girl, I learn from a couple of eastern college youths, isn't a replica of the Victorian vintage. She leans, but never faints. And she doesn't lean too hard—just enough now and then to please with the you-nice-big-hero stuff. She may be bobbed, if not boyishly barbered. She is level headed, sensible. Sensible enough, my young informants say, to be just a little silly now and then. But—she does not drink, she does not smoke, and she does not permit herself to be mauled for the asking. Those last three points are emphatically hers. Unless she is able to claim exemption from any of the three habits she is out of the old fashioned running.

She can powder her nose and touch up her cheeks and her lips if a little color is needed to restore the peach bloom, but she has to do it so the world never suspects. She can wear just as up to date clothes as the vogue prescribes so long as she halts this side of the unconventional.

Her manner, as explained to me, is composed, easy, comfortable. She is not shy. But her speech—almost as important as the three points already mentioned as making the outstanding difference—is clear of profanity, gentle or otherwise. Slang she may indulge in lightly, but it must be nice slang.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Shows He Cares.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 17, and a fellow of 19 pays much attention to me. He has never told me he loved me, but I love him dearly. How can I win his love? WORRIED."

He shows you he cares by his attentions and his desire to be with you and give you pleasure, Worried. That's the surest indication.

She Didn't Choose Him.

"Dear Miss Blake: I was at a party and my girl was there. The girls had to pick partners, and my girl did not take me. Please advise. THOMAS."

She doesn't wish to be friendly, Thomas. Her actions prove that. You'd better choose another girl.

LEADERS ATTEND LAST RITES FOR SIMON O'DONNELL

Business men, political leaders, and officials of Chicago trades unions yesterday attended the funeral of Simon O'Donnell, former head of the Building Trades council, which was held from the residence at 1010 Michigan avenue, Evanston, to St. Mary's church, Evanston. Burial was in Calvary cemetery.

The Rev. H. P. Smyth of St. Mary's church conducted the services. Active pallbearers were Michael J. Boyle, Attorney Timothy Fell, James Garvin, George Chamberlain, Frank Herlihy, Thomas D. Garry, Timothy Ryan and John Dowle.

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

The reason gardeners who are successful in growing head lettuce have to start thinking about planting the seed before the birds begin to sing in the spring is that the best heads are formed in cool weather. The plants have to be thrown into high speed and kept growing without interruption until the heads are ready to cut. Lettuce could stand a slight nip of frost better than a real hot day.

Chicago gardeners usually start the seed indoors the last of March, allowing five or six weeks for the plants to get a start under cover before they are set in the open garden. They are not usually safe here in the open before May 1. It is best for the seedlings to have three or four true leaves before they are transplanted. The national bureau gardeners advise pinching the ends of the leaves off about half their length before setting them in rows in the garden.

If space is limited the plants may be set six to eight inches apart, but ten to twelve inches is better. A hot bed is the best place to start head lettuce, but shallow boxes or pots may be used in a warm room. An extra transplanting is sometimes practiced by growers. Give the plants direct sunlight when the weather is warm enough to open the sashes of the hot bed or a window where the lettuce seedlings are being grown indoors.

Cold frames, wherever they are available, can be used profitably in getting the plants accustomed to the outdoors.

Whether you contemplate a profitable sales connection or are actually engaged in the selling of Chicago, this question has burned its way into your mind. Its vital.

CAN IT BE ANSWERED

THE ANSWER IS YES!!!

THE THIRTY-TWO YEARS WE HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN THIS FIELD IS DUE ENTIRELY TO THE FACT THAT WE BUILD SUCCESSFUL SALESMEN.

To create successful salesmen requires more than hiring and training. It requires ability—gained only from experience—to select and develop property that will pay the purchaser a substantial profit.

A HAPPY CLIENTELE MAKES A SALESMAN SUCCESSFUL. OUR PRESENT SALES FORCE HAS BEEN WITH US FOR YEARS—CONTENTED BECAUSE THEY ARE MAKING MONEY and BECAUSE THEY REALIZE THAT OURS IS THE STANDARD OF COMPARISON IN REAL ESTATE ACTIVITIES.

We are on the eve of one of the greatest sales campaigns ever conducted in Chicago. A building program, unequaled, will back up this campaign. Continued advertising, along with directed by mail "lead getters," will acquaint and impress the public with soundness of our great development.

THE ONLY WAY YOU CAN DETERMINE IS BY COMPARISON.

We are giving to you the opportunity of comparing our sales story and past records. Friday evening, Feb. 11, at 8 p. m., we are going to unfold our sales story. WE WANT YOU TO JUDGE the effect these facts and figures may have on the project with which we place you in contact.

Remember that you are the sole judge—your future is in your hands and unless we fully convince you of the money making possibilities no invitation will be extended to join our organization.

NO RED TAPE—We require white gentlemen of refinement over 25 years of age. We prefer married men, but all honest applicants will be given utmost consideration.

Work may be done at home and will in no way interfere with your present occupation. No business experience required and work can be done easily by gentlemen in all lines of work.

An answer to this ad will promptly convince you that the problem of an extra weekly pay check is solved. YOU WILL NOT BE ASKED TO SELL ANYTHING. This is a simple publicity work of a sociological nature and can be easily accomplished by any person without business experience. All payments weekly. We also have a few vacancies for gentlewomen and if wives or sisters have spare time and are willing to work, bring them with you. Call Friday evening, 8 o'clock sharp.

J. C. STEWART,
Room 1512. 624 S. Michigan.

Notice—This ad has been tremendously successful for dozens of happy applicants and our company. Now don't hesitate. Answer this ad and you will be given the same careful consideration that made scores of applicants wonderfully happy last week. This is not "just another ad," but a real opportunity for real people. Idlers and star gazers stay away. REMEMBER, FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 11TH, 8 P. M. ONLY. None will be admitted after the above time.

$ $ DO YOU WANT $ $

$ $ TO TURN YOUR $ $
$ $ $
$ $ IDLE HOURS $ $
$ $ $
$ $ INTO DOLLARS $ $

Do you believe you have the natural ability to succeed in any given line of work IF YOU HAD THE RIGHT KIND OF ASSISTANCE?

If you do believe you can succeed with that kind of help, then arrange to come to a lecture on the subject of HOW TO TURN YOUR IDLE HOURS INTO REAL DOLLARS.

This lecture will be given by a self-made and self-educated man who fought for years to find the right kind of a deal and the proposition with honest and sincere assistance behind it. He will tell you the truth about his struggle for success in business and how he found the right kind of a proposition.

If you are a willing worker and anxious to succeed, then the greatest benefit you can do for yourself is to come to this meeting

NEXT FRIDAY EVENING.
FEB. 11TH, 8 P. M.
IN OUR LECTURE HALL,
THIRD FLOOR,
225 N. MICHIGAN-AV.

Attending this meeting may be the turning point in your career—so do your best to come to this meeting; we will do the rest. Your success is our success.

We will guarantee to show you the way to turn your spare time into $50 or more a week, and it will not interfere with your present position.

LADIES, PART TIME.

See me Thursday night, Feb. 10, at 8 sharp, and I'll prove to you I can have you driving your own car in ten days and earning from $200 to $500 per month, and you don't have to sell anything. Remember, no selling. Gordon R. Cowie, Straus Bld.

FOR EASTER.

Have you the clothes you want for spring? You could afford the best if you had a reliable income. I need the assistance of a few refined ladies, over 25 yrs., or if younger must have dignity. No flappers. Can arrange part time, congenial work. Need not interfere with household or social affairs. I represent old responsible firm, with several hundred women employed. Many came to us without experience. This proves it possible for women to succeed and increase income by following our plan. For information on salary and hours, apply in person. Confidential. See Mrs. Gibbon, Suite 411, Emereman Bldg., 4750 Sheridan-rd., after 11 a. m. or before 8 p. m.

EXTRA MONEY EVERY WEEK. 15—LADIES—15.

For spare time work. I don't care what your present occupation is if you are 25 years of age and willing to work 2 hours a few evenings a week and need additional money. Write me for an appointment. No selling. We are willing to help all who are willing to try. Address G O 155, Tribune.

We have a new 15 story fireproof building here, a beautifully furnished lobby, attractively furnished kitchenette apts. We try and give a little better service than you could find elsewhere; we know that many of our guests are alone in this city, have not many friends, and we try to make it as homelike as possible for them here. Our location is the best on the North Side and the transportation is excellent. We have all these advantages, and yet—our rentals are very reasonable. Come out. We will be glad to show you through. If you are one of those read this ad carefully. Note that we are advertising nothing but property along prominent streets in Chicago.
